CARNIVAL A SUCCESS

Rev. Hammel requests The Chief to print the following article which appeared in Monday's Commercial Advertiser, and he states that he is not the author of the same:
 "Were you there?" You missed the greatest time of your life if you weren't. Red Cloud's best and latest Carnival was on the Methodist church lawn.

Darkies, straight from the heart of Africa, entertained the people with native songs and comic gestures. The leader assured the audience of the company's inability to speak the American language, then turned for confirmation to his company and they astonished everyone by saying "yes, Sir." After their part of the program, they mingled quite freely with the crowd.

Under the green, swaying palms the dark Hawaiian maidens sang their soothing melodies carrying us back in dreams to the shores of Waikiki.

"Know your past, present and future," yelled the clown, and away he swept the crowd to the gypsies tent. Weird voices and smoke came from the tent. Awe struck and wonder mingled on their faces as they came from that mystery of mysteries.

These performances, along with the world famous Ouija board were repeated several times for the benefit of newcomers.

Ice cream and lemonade were sold for refreshments. The amount raised was around $60.00

All colors of small pieces of paper commenced flying around. No strangers, all were happy and gay, especially Mr. Finch, who saw everything and scattered confetti. He was safe from troublesome people, because he was taller. Both he and Mrs. Finch are very lively and helpful additions to our church. Merry-making was for everyone. Just ask Mr. Starr if he had a good time. Imagine a person's mind so full of merrymaking that he would walk all the way home, leaving his car at the church. Notice Dr. McBride's face and neck. Too bad that men have to wear collars. Collars did not aid Mr. Ellis because most of the confetti went down his neck through his mouth. Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Renfro, Mrs. Starr and Mrs. McBride are others to ask if they enjoyed it.

Miss Kathrynne Burke arrived in the city Saturday to resume her school duties after spending the summer with her parents at Walnut, Iowa.

Mrs. Chris Zeiss went to Central City Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Henry Phares and family. She was accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Milligan.

Mrs. C. L. Courtright and daughter, Ruth, and son, Claire, returned to their home at Beaver City Monday, after visiting with Attorney and Mrs. F. J. Munday.

Mrs. F. A. Hildebrandt returned home Friday from Alma where she has been visiting her mother. Her aunt, Mrs. Emilie Woods accompanied her home, and returned to her home at Harvard, Saturday.

Mrs. E. J. Beauchesne and daughter, Marjorie, returned to their home in Omaha Saturday, after visiting with her mother, Mrs. A. C. Schultz. Her mother accompanied them home for a visit.
