GIRL FLUTE PLAYERS OF KIOTO, JAPAN

If a good-looking American woman musician were to hide her face from the public, we would put her down as crazy. But in Kioto, Japan, customs are widely different from ours. The two girls in this photograph serenade the public with their flutes, with their heads and faces covered by basket-like hats.

SEDATE ALL-DAY FROCKS

ONE-PIECE dresses serving the same purposes that suit-skirts and blouses do are better described by their newer name, all-day dresses. It tells their story of good service, morning or afternoon. They have been made in a few very good styles, of the same serviceable materials that are used for suits, and they have come to stay. The all-day dress and the separate skirt and blouse make a welcome variety in the apparel of active women and especially of business women. Worn under heavy coats in midwinter they are warmer than suits, and worn without a wrap when the weather is mild they are less burdensome. But leaving out these practical considerations altogether, they hold a secure place in our regard because they are dependable and offer variety in the dress of busy women. Nearly all these one-piece frocks are simple in design and many of them have been converted into frocks after doing service as suits. It is an advantage to have them simple because one does not grow tired of simple things. We may become unconscious of them, but they will not get on our nerves as fustier things do if we wear them often. As an example of simplicity the all-day dress shown above challenges comparisons. Except for a little braid couched on in the simplest of patterns and a few bone buttons set in a row at each side, it offers nothing to take our attention away from its trim fit and businesslike air. A silk cord with tassel pretends to adjust the frock to the waist line, but that matter is taken care of in reality without its help. It makes a very fine finishing touch, however. Silk braid has been cleverly used as a decoration for these smart all-day frocks, as it has for suits. In the dress above, long lines at the sides are accented by buttons, but in a new model short tabs of silk braid were used for this purpose. Sometimes both braid and buttons appear on a frock and they seem even better suited to it and to each other than embroidery and buttons. Some models are embellished with embroidery in bands or squares, or triangles, in set designs that are in keeping with the character of the dresses, which is sedate. But they make the right kind of background for crisp collars and cuffs if one chooses to furnish them up a bit.

Silk Culture Old.

A KANSAS WOMAN Run-down—Nervous, Weak

Kansas City, Kans.—"I found Dr. Pierce's medicines a wonderful help to me during middle life. At that time I became all run-down, nervous and was weak. I would have smothering and dizzy spells so bad that I could not stand up and my back would ache terribly all the time. I took both Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and these medicines built me up, gave me strength, and brought me through the change in the best of health. I am glad to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines, for I know they are good."—MRS. GEORGE JACOBS, R. Route 3.

MOTHERS

Bushong, Kans.—"I am the mother of four children and from my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I fully appreciate its value and can highly recommend it to prospective mothers as it helps to alleviate one's suffering. During my first expectancy I suffered untold pains, and the second time I was determined that I would avail myself of some means to lessen the agony, and I can say without any hesitation that the 'Favorite Prescription' carried me through that trying time with all the desired ease and comfort. Later on, however, I made a grievous mistake in believing that I could dispense with the 'Favorite Prescription' during motherhood and I did so to my sorrow. It will always be my stand-by hereafter.

"I hope that through this statement some other woman may be relieved of the dread of motherhood."—MRS. V. W. ROWLEY, Route 1.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.
