SEED CORN

The germination of the seed corn is very poor, due to the large percentage of moisture this fall, and then the hard frozes coming unusually early this year, resulting in killing the germs.

SAMPLES TESTED

Several weeks ago I secured samples of corn from all parts of the county. One kernel from 25 representative ears was secured, and sent to Lincoln for a germination test. The results of the test was that the majority of samples had a germination test of 68 per cent, a few running around 82 per cent and one going to 94 per cent. The lowest was 24 per cent. These samples were taken from cribs of corn, and from good looking ears.

Two weeks ago I judged at the Corn and Poultry Show, at Orleans, and the seed corn situation was very bad there. Not a single ear, out of many of the exhibits, would grow. Only one exhibit ran to 80 per cent. HENRY R. FAUSCH, County Agricultural Agent

Puts Candidates in Field

The non-partisan league convention in this city last Friday, was largely attended. The town was full of automobiles and reminded us of the old time days when the farmer's alliance was in its zenith. That the farmers have decided to set the stakes for the other fellows, was made evident when they endorsed candidates for the office of county representative and for commissioner of the 2d and 3d districts. C. H. Robinson was the choice of the convention for state representative and H. A. Stumpfenhorst for commissioner in the 2d district and Adam Albers for the commissionership of the 3d. These three named men are representative of the farmer's interest as they of the league look upon it and will without doubt prove to be strong candidates in the primary race. The senatorial situation was taken up Monday of this week, when delegates from Nuckolls, Webster and Franklin met in this city and gave their endorsement to one of their number—C. Cowley.—Blue Hill Leader.

All very well said, Mr. Matthews. But you failed to state that these candidates feared that the non-partisan party was not strong enough to vote them into office, therefore they have filed on the Republican ticket, the name of Mr. Robinson already appearing in the political announcement of one of the county's papers which advocates the principles of the Republican party. It is a pleasure to note that the Democrats have not catered to the leaguers in their selection of candidates.
