Wild Lettuce is spreading fast in our city and bids fair to outrival the dandelion. Hoe it out, keep it from going to seed as well as all other weeds. Let us not give our visitors the chance this year they had last of finding six foot weeds within a block of Main street or within many blocks. Our city can be just as clean and beautiful as any other if each will do his part.

Again it is the time of the year to fight the dandelion. The best way to exterminate them is to remove and burn blossoms and buds. This is a method successfully employed in other places. If not burned the seeds ripen and nothing has been accomplished. The plant lives but two years. To guard your lawn against new plants sow good grass seed several times during the season. Dandelions have a very poor chance in good blue grass sod.

MINISTERS NEED FREE HOSPITALS

Survey by Interchurch World Movement Reveals Pulpit's Poverty.

$1,242 HIGH AVERAGE SALARY FOR PROTESTANT PREACHERS

Clinics and Homes for Aged and Infirm and Better Salaries for Pastors Are Part of New Cooperation Program.

As a result of the campaign now being made by the Interchurch World Movement the combined Protestant churches of America will provide many more hospitals, clinics and homes for the aged and infirm. An interesting feature of these Protestant hospitals will be free treatment for ministers, as recent surveys made by the Interchurch organization have made the need for special dispensations very obvious.

The following startling facts were divulged as to the average salaries in the various denominations. Starting with the highest, the average for Episcopal ministers is $1,242; the average for Presbyterian (North), $1,177; for the United Presbyterians, $1,084; for the Reformed Church (Dutch), $1,170; for the Methodist Episcopal (North), $1,170; Congregational, $1,042, and for the Baptists, (Northern), $950.

With government experts announcing that $1,500 is the lowest salary upon which a family can be decently maintained and suggesting budgets for one lower, ministers have a discouraging outlook. Such things as hospital bills are almost impossible to meet, and yet every normal family has some illness in its midst every year. Accordingly the Interchurch Movement, while on its way to obtain higher averages in salaries, will assist by providing free care in its institutions.

PATROLMEN TO REPAIR ROADS

To Keep Recently Constructed Highways in New Hampshire in Condition Many Men Are Employed.

Within the last ten years 442 miles of gravel roads have been built in New Hampshire at an average cost of $3,826 per mile. It is clear that auto travel would ruin them in a short time if they were not maintained in good condition all the time. To meet this necessity several hundred patrolmen are employed from the last of March to the first of December in patching every little rut and hole that appears, in cleaning the ditches and culverts and in spreading oil lightly over the surface. Each patrolman has a section of road assigned to him and is required to furnish a one-horse wagon, a shovel, a rake, a drag and such other equipment as is needed for his work. If the road is not oiled it is smoothed with the drag after every rain; oiled roads do not require frequent dragging. The patrolmen are paid an average wage of $3.25 the day. In 1915 the total cost of maintaining these roads was $240 the mile. The road officers of New Hampshire reckon that well-maintained gravel roads cost about $250 the mile annually less than any of the more expensive types of road for the class of travel on four-fifths of the through routes in the state. On one-fifth of these routes the travel is too heavy to be carried by gravel and more expensive construction is necessary; no amount of maintenance of a gravel road will make it strong enough to carry more than a certain density of travel, particularly where automobiles are numerous.

Difficult Transaction.
"When a man marries for money," said Miss Cayenne, "you may expect complaints from everybody concerned of having gotten the worst of the bargain."

Buys Interest in Home Bank

Chas. A. Waldo of Inavale, former Bloomington boy and for several past years a merchant in Inavale, has recently purchased the interest in the Farmers State Bank of this place which was recently purchased of I. E. Montgomery by Mr. Harvey of Superior. Mr. Waldo, who is still in the mercantile business in Inavale, intends to come to Bloomington as soon as he sells out his stock of goods, and take active part in the management of the bank.—Bloomington Tribune.

Married

Wednesday evening, April 28, at six o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reigle, who reside five miles northeast of Inavale, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elma Maude and Mr. George Rueben Pitney. Rev. Chas. E. Schofield, pastor of the Methodist church in Inavale, officiated using the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony. Leslie Reigle, a brother of the bride, was best man and Geneva Harvey, cousin of the groom, was bride's maid. Norma Reigle acted as flower girl while Myrtle Maude Mayo, a name sake of the bride, carried the ring in a lily. Miss Hazel Overleese played the wedding music. The bridal party stood in a bay window tastefully decorated in pink and white with a background of potted plants.

At the dinner served immediately following the ceremony, plates were laid for fifty guests. The pink and white color scheme was carried out in the table decorations.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful gifts. The groom is a son of Mrs. Cora E. Pitney. The young couple will make their home on the N. E. Harvey farm northwest of Inavale. They have the best wishes of their many friends for many years of happiness as they begin life's journey together.

The everlasting trio—husband, wife and alimony—caused considerable excitement in the community Tuesday evening, when a gentleman from Superior came to the city and found his wife attending the theater with another man, when he supposed that she was visiting her mother in Omaha. Contrary to reports no acts of violence were resorted to, as Marshall Phillips acted as chaperon while the matter was discussed between the three, at the home of the wife in the south ward. The matter was brought before the attention of the county judge, but was continued over until such times as more evidence in the case can be produced.

N. W. M. Progressing

Red Cloud Baptists made a splendid showing in the final every-member canvass for the New World Campaign fund Sunday when they made additional subscriptions, bringing the total for the local church up to $731.00. The church's quota was $5,744.00. Reports on the final outcome of the campaign were telegraphed Sunday night to A. B. Newell, state campaign director, by P. P. Bentley, local campaign director. A statement from state headquarters shows that Sunday was the greatest giving day in the history of Nebraska Baptists. Never before have the members of the church gone down in their pockets to contribute so generously to a Baptist campaign. During the day more than $200,000 were reported to state headquarters, and the grand total of the New World Movement subscriptions up to date exceeds $600,000.00. As a result, Nebraska held her lead among the Central Western states in the New World Movement campaign.

"We are not ever the top yet but the great state wide response by Nebraska Baptists Sunday practically insured the success of the New World Movement Campaign in the state," said Mr. Newell in a statement Tuesday. "I am confident that Nebraska will now complete her quota and will hold her high place in the Baptist denomination"
