Republican County Convention Held Here Tuesday

The Republican County Convention was held at the court house Tuesday, the same being called to order by the temporary chairman, Jas. S. Gilham. Later Emanuel Peters was elected chairman and H. S. Poe secretary. Each precinct then elected one delegate to serve on a committee on resolutions and one delegate on a committee for the selection of delegates to the state convention.

A number of resolutions were submitted and unanimously adopted by the convention.

The following delegates to the state convention were elected: E. J. Peterson, H. Schmidt, Fred Hedge, Jas. S. Gilham, A. J. Bragg, J. H. Ellinger, Ira Waggoner, Dick Hoppen and Geo. Warren.

The alternates are: Otto Skjelver Jr., Jake Goll, E. S. Fitz, J. H. Gillsdorf, Hugh Hunter, W. G. Hamilton, Fred Turnure, Geo. Amack and W. H. Leetsch.

Interesting talks were made by W. J. Vance, J. S. Gilham, E. J. Overing and Ira Waggoner.

Death Calls Marie Strobl

Mrs. Marie Strobl, one of the county's aged and most highly respected citizens, residing north of the city, passed to her eternal reward on last Friday morning at eight o'clock. Several months ago she underwent an operation in a Lincoln hospital, but since that time had been unable to regain her normal health.

Marie Dolezal was born in Czechoslovakia, Bohemia, March 25, 1858. She was united in marriage with Joseph Kubat in 1883. This union was blessed with four children, Joseph and Venetie Kubat and Mrs. Marie Miller, the other dying in infancy. Her husband passed away in 1892. In 1894 she was united in marriage with Mike Strobl. Since that time she has proven herself to be a loving and congenial helpmate and an affectionate mother to her three sons, Frank, Mike and Joe Strobl and one daughter, Mrs. Mary Polnicky, who with one brother residing in her native country, and a niece at Ralston, are left to mourn her demise. Mr. Strobl answering the summons of his Master a few months ago.

Funeral services were conducted from her late home Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. L. Beebe in charge. Interment was made in the Red Cloud cemetery.

THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL

Next week marks the close of another successful school year, the baccalaureate sermon being delivered on Sunday evening, from the Besse auditorium, by Rev. Bruce N. Eshelman. Tuesday afternoon was to be class day with its school prophesy, history, etc., the valedictorian, Miss Verna Trine, and the salutatorian, Miss Edythe Zeiss, but on account of the auditorium not having been completed earlier it of course was impossible to give the three school operettas, which were arranged for last fall, any sooner and now, since the operettas are coming so late, it is found necessary to cancel the class day program, because it does not give the seniors time to prepare the work and so they will put in the time on the class play and other commencement preparations.

Wednesday evening the class play will be given and Thursday evening is commencement, with District Judge Harry S. Dungan as the orator for the occasion, when the following will be presented with their diplomas:

Clifford D. Bradshaw, Gesina Boom, Irene Buckles, Bernard C. Burden, Lynn H. Bush, Aleatha O. Campbell, Isa May Chaplin, Ethel P. Coon, Dorris L. Enyart, Sumner B. Eshelman, Paul A. Throne, Elma Van Dyke, Josephine Frisbie, Elta M. Fry, Marvin J. Harris, Lucille C. Harwood, Morrison McConkey, Ray Mountford, E. Corrine Neuerberg, Earl W. Paten, Mary Marjorie Stunkard, Blanche M. Sherer, Verna Trine, Reba M. York and Edythe J. Zeiss.

Mrs. Alex Smelser received word this morning that her father, Mr. McMullen who resides at Courtland, Kan., was struck by lightning, yesterday, death resulting instantly.

A special session of the city council was held Wednesday afternoon, at which time 4 ordinances were passed, three of which provide for the issuing of bonds for paving districts Nos. 2, 3 and 4, and the sale of same. The fourth is an ordinance to define and punish offenses relating to the streets of the city. They are published in an other column of this issue.

Bert Stunkard and Charles Steward attended the purebred Shorthorn cattle sales of W. E. Pritchard Avoca, Iowa and the Hopley Stock Farm at Atlantic, Iowa. The sales drew a large crowd of cattle breeders and some very high prices were recorded. The Pritchard offering of forty-four head selling for a total of $41,800 an average of $1,070 per head. The day following the Pritchard sale the Hopley Stock Farm sold six three head of home bred and imported Scotch Shorthorns for a total of $16,725 an average of $1,771 per head. Charles Steward strengthened the Woodburn herd by the purchase of a 3 year old Scotch heifer with a white bull calf at foot and rebred to the grand champion gull Dale Clarion. Mr. Stunkard also purchased a Scotch cow bred to the same bull.

FLORENCE OIL COOK STOVES

A FLORENCE is a triple blessing—bakes, cooks and roasts and does it easily and at the same time. No ashes, no smoke, no fires to poke, no dampers to regulate. No wicks, no valves. Burns kerosene.

Come in and see how simply this oil stove works; how the intensely hot blue flame means more heat and less care. Let us show you why the Florence Portable Oven with its baker's arch assures even baking, tempting pastries and well-browned roasts.
