Fred W. Miller, aged about 67 years, a resident of Superior, committed suicide at the river bridge south of Guide Rock Monday morning. Residents of that vicinity had seen him late Sunday night walking towards Guide Rock. He stood on the pier of the bridge and fired the fatal bullet into his forehead and fell backward into the river. The body was carried some distance below the bridge and lodged in some brush, where it was later found. Before taking his own life Miller removed his outer clothing and left them, with a letter and insurance policy, on the bridge. The letter contained instructions to notify his nephew, in Kansas City. He with his wife are the only known relatives.

SEEING IS BELIEVING

I have just returned from an inspection trip of northwest-ern Kansas, driving by auto to Decatur, Rawlins, Cheyenne, Sherman, Wallace, Greeley, Wichita, Logan, Sheridan, Thomas and Norton Counties, stopping at many places and driving the country around the town.

I have found some real bargains in wheat and stock farms, wheat going from 20 to 40 bushels the acre, land ranging in price from $12 per acre, up, with easy terms and small payment down. The average renter in this county can handle a half section of this land.

If you are interested see me at once and make arrangements to go and look this land over, for land values are advancing and the bargains I now have may soon be gone.

GEO. W. HUTCHISON.
