

"RESULTS MORE THAN CLAIMED"

So testifies Mr. J. F. ARENDT,
Box 44, Romig, Texas

PE-RU-NA

THE REMEDY FOR EVERYDAY ILLS

"I have used Per-na for years in cases of colds and catarrh. The results have been good, in fact, more than you claimed. Have also taken Lacupia and can easily say it is one of the best blood purifiers I have ever used."

Mr. J. F. Arendt

For Catarrh and Catarrhal Conditions

The evidence of one man like Mr. Arendt is more convincing proof to you of the merits of Per-na than any written words of ours. For fifty years Per-na has been the standby of the American family for diseases due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the organs of the body. Thousands, like Mr. Arendt, have proved the effectiveness of Per-na for coughs, colds, nasal catarrh, stomach, bowel and liver disorders or any disease characterized by a catarrhal condition. If your suffering is the result of a catarrhal disorder try Per-na. It is a true, tried medicine.

"Eatonic—Worth Its Weight in Gold"

Writes Mrs. E. L. Griffin from her home in Franklin, N. H. "I feel like a new person. Stomach feels fine after eating—all from taking your wonderful eatonic. It's worth its weight in gold."

Millions of sufferers from sour, acid, gassy stomachs, heartburn, indigestion, bloating, full feeling after eating, should try eatonic. Just try it—that's all, and get relief, new life, strength and pep. It produces quick, sure and safe results, because eatonic takes up the harmful acids and poisons and carries them right out of the body. Of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well—quick!

The cost is a trifle. Your druggist will supply eatonic, so, if you want better health, all you need do is—try it TODAY. You will surely feel big benefits at once. Adv.

SHE KNEW WHAT WAS IN IT

Little Eve Fairly Well Acquainted With the Varied Contents of the Family Bible.

Bishop Hoss said at a Nashville picnic:

"The religious knowledge of too many adults resembles, I am afraid, the religious knowledge of little Eve. 'So you attend Sunday school regularly?' the minister said to little Eve."

"Oh, yes, sir," said she.

"And you know your Bible?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Could you, perhaps, tell me something that is in it?"

"I could tell you everything that's in it."

"Indeed!" And the minister smiled.

"Do tell me, then."

"Sister's beau's photo is in it," said little Eve promptly, "and ma's recipe for vanilla cream is in it, and a lock of my hair cut off when I was a baby is in it, and the ticket for pa's watch is in it."

The Neighbor Found Out.

A young woman was out in the front yard with an oil can "oiling" the dandelions so that they would meet with an early death. A neighbor came along and asked her what she was doing. She nonchalantly replied that she was "oiling the grass so the lawn mower would run easier."—Exchange.

A Disadvantage.

"You can't deny that the railroads are at considerable disadvantage in some ways."

"No," admitted the profiteer. "It is impossible for a railroad to raise its prices without everybody's knowing all about it and starting all kinds of discussion."

Circumstantial Evidence.

"That man belongs to the civil service," "One would never guess it from his manners."

"Cold in the Head"

is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Those subject to frequent "colds in the head" will find that the use of HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will build up the system, cleanse the blood and render them less liable to colds. Repeated attacks of Acute Catarrh may lead to Chronic Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

WAS NOT MATTER OF LOVE

Other and More Cogent Reasons Induced the Old Gentleman to Hold His Wife's Hands.

As the Londoner sat in the village inn, drinking a modest pint and chatting with the local residents, he got on the subject of married life. He advanced the opinion that true happiness was more often to be found in the peaceful country than amid the turmoil of a town.

"Well, I ain't so sure about that," said one old chap. "But I do know as I sat here last night and held my old woman's hands for two hours by the clock!"

"There!" said the visitor in triumph. "That upholds my argument, and shows how much you love her!" "Love her," gasped the old chap. "Why, if I'd 'a' let go she'd 'ave scratched my bloomin' eyes out!"—London Answers.

Stepping Out.

The late long staple cotton crop has made quite a lot of money for South Carolina negroes. A short time ago one of them purchased a high-priced car. A few days later he went back to the salesman.

"Can you got any of dese here cowketchers?" he inquired.

"Do you mean bumpers, Charlie?"

"Yassir."

"Well, Charlie, do you want one for both ends of your car?"

"Nawsir, cap, ain't nobody gwine ter ketch up wid me. Ah jes want one fo de front."

WORLD ABOUT THE SAME

Today, as in Ages Past, There Are Those Who Seek the Simple, "Old-Fashioned" Girl.

A London correspondent, remarks the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, discovers a rollicking satire upon people of the day, that is of those of us who gravely sink our heads as we contemplate the manners and dress of many young folk of the day. The correspondent finds that in the Saturday Review of fifty years ago the following article was printed.

"The girl of the period is a creature who dyes her hair and paints her face as the first articles of her personal religion—a creature whose sole idea of life is fun, whose sole aim is unbounded luxury, and whose dress is the chief object of such thought and intellect as she possesses. Her main endeavor is to outlive her neighbors in the extravagance of fashion. If a sensible fashion lifts the gown out of the mud she raises hers."

"All men whose opinion is worth having prefer the simple and genuine girl of the past, with her tender little ways and pretty bashful modesties, to this loud and rampant modernization, with her false red hair and painted skin, talking slang as glibly as a man and by preference leading the conversation to doubtful subjects. . . . All we can do is to wait patiently until the national madness has passed out and women have come back again to the old English idea."

Not a few writers and private talkers have said things to the same effect as the foregoing. We hear it every day and hearing it we may accept it as a scathing indictment of the new girl, just as our forbears accepted the foregoing article as a just indictment of the girls of a half century ago.

Headstrong, forward and disobedient young people were known long before the time of the Review's editorial. Readers of the "Last Days of Pompeii," may recall the lamentations of a chief character that young people of his time were not as reverent and respectful in the presence of their elders as they had been in a former generation. Neither were they as religious.

Certain it is that the Apostle Paul, in writing those epistolary messages thought it pertinent and timely to remind women not to be too forward in church. As it appeared to him it was necessary for him, as an authority, to repress women, warning them specifically against bobbing their hair.

It seems that the race has always stopped to ask now and then: "What has become of the old-fashioned girl who," etc.

De Soto's Route.

Council Bend, Miss., has taken from Memphis, Tenn., the honor of being the point at which De Soto first saw the mighty Mississippi. Dr. J. C. Rowland of Jackson, Miss., who has traced De Soto's route clear across Mississippi, guided by the narratives of De Soto's companions, in which the topography of the country was fully described, has located the great Indian mound at which the adventurous explorer and his followers camped the night before they saw the Father of Waters. On this, the highest Indian mound in Mississippi, a monument will be erected to De Soto.

Doctor Rowland is convinced that De Soto first beheld the great river at Council Bend. The explorer's famous trip from the point where Tampa, Fla., is now located, was made in 1541, 24 years before St. Augustine was founded, and 75 before the Mayflower completed its first voyage.

Trying to Economize.

I visited a cash-and-carry grocery. Their leader for the day was rice. I bought five pounds and several other articles and asked to have extra paper on the rice, but it was refused.

Struggling up the high steps of a street car with my many bundles, I stumbled; something pierced the bag of rice, and it began to ooze and fall. Of course the car was crowded, and as I squeezed in it suddenly lurched ahead. I made a frantic effort to save my rice, letting everything else go.

Kindly fellow passengers tried to help, hiding their laughter as best they could. I had the misery of being compensated and laughed at, besides losing all my rice, and this has finished my efforts at trying to beat the old high cost of living.—Chicago Tribune.

The Sun Volcano.

Not long ago at the Yerkes Observatory an eruption was observed (and photographed) on the rim of the sun which threw up material to a height of 500,000 miles. One cloud of it, which appeared as if floating detached, was reckoned to have some thousands of times the volume of the earth.

We are accustomed to regard great volcanic explosions on the earth as the most appalling of natural phenomena, but they are feeble and trifling disturbances compared with the outbursts which are continually taking place all over the body of the sun.—Kansas City Star.

Has Proper Regard for Rooster.

Charles Collins of Oak Hill, Litchfield, Mo., thinks so much of a White Wyandotte rooster that he encourages him to roost nights on the footboard of his bed and feeds him every little while. This is because Mr. Collins was awakened one night by the excited crowing of the rooster, which had somehow got into the house, and found when he got up to investigate that the house was on fire. Anything that rooster wants hereafter he must have.

All Tired Out?

Are you burdened with a dull, nagging headache? Does any little exertion wear you out? Does it seem sometimes as if you just can't keep going? Modern life with its hurry and worry, and lack of rest, throws a heavy strain on the kidneys. The kidneys slow up and that tired feeling and constant headache are but natural results. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Nebraska Case

I couldn't turn over in bed without help because of the sharp pains in the small of my back. My kidneys were weak and I had dizzy spells. After taking one box of Doan's Kidney Pills I was able to get up. Three boxes made a lasting cure."

HAD FORGOTTEN THE CLOCK

Little Story Has a Moral for Those Who Fail to Heed the Early Call of Duty.

With a horrified start, John Spooks awoke from a sound sleep and listened.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Yes; there it was again. It was no dream!

"Good-night!" he cried. "My heart! I never knew before that I had one!"

Thump! Thump! Thump!

"Evelina," cried the unfortunate man to his wife, "my heart's bad! Run round to the druggist's and get me some medicine. Oh, this is horrible!"

Thump! Thump! Thump!

Spooks, lying on his back, felt his whole body rebound with the terrific force of the pumping.

Thump! Thump! Thump!

The very pictures on the wall seemed to sway dizzily with the vibration.

The agonized man could stand it no longer. Leaping up in bed, he grabbed the pillow to his heart to smother the sounds of that awful thumping, and found that his alarm clock had been under his pillow ticking harshly.

He had shoved it under there when it had started to ring two hours before.

Sugar From Timber.

Speaking of the suggestion of sawdust sugar, a Ceylon planter says: "While I cannot vouch for the sweetening properties of timber in general, I know there are trees which yield sugar. We might have been sending you considerable quantities from Ceylon had an experiment made then been more efficiently carried out. Palmyra trees which yield a sugary syrup, were tapped, and modern machinery installed to refine the juice, but for some reason the native workers could not be prevailed on to carry the stuff down from the forest to the works. There is still a future for palmyra sugar, when the ill-luck is lived down."

Quite Superfluous.

After a little tea party the children were playing some game quietly in a corner of the room.

The lady of the house was curious to know what was keeping them so interested, so she called her own girl toward her.

"What game are you playing Mollie?" she asked.

"Weddings, mother," replied the small girl. "I'm the bride, and Margery Jones is the bridesmaid."

"And who is the bridegroom?" asked mother, knowing that there was no small boy among the guests.

"Oh," came the quick answer, "this is only a very quiet wedding, you know."—London Answers.

Forgiven.

"Can you help me out, sir?" said the seedy looking stranger. "I've had some hard luck."

"I suppose you've seen better days?" replied Mr. Twobble.

"Oh, yes, sir. I once got $75 a week for playing in a jazz orchestra."

"Well," said Mr. Twobble, as he thoughtfully thrust his hand into his pocket, "I'm a humane man and I won't hold that against you. Here's a quarter."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

An Opinion.

"I think this trial marriage idea is just horrid."

"Oh, they have been working out so for a long while."

"Nothing of the sort! It is a new idea."

"Old as the hills. Do you mean to say that every marriage isn't a trial—to one of 'em, anyway?"

A Difference.

"Does your husband enjoy golf?"

"I can't say that he enjoys it, but he plays it a lot."

Bright Youth.

Eugene was leaving for New York alone. His brother wrote out for him a telegram announcing his safe arrival, which he charged the youngsters to send as soon as he reached his destination.

No telegram came. After burning up the wires to assure himself of the youngster's safety the older brother awaited with interest Eugene's first letter.

It said, "I arrived safe, so I did not think it necessary to send the telegram."
