SEEING IS BELIEVING

I have just returned from an inspection trip of northwest Kansas, driving by auto to Decatur, Rawlins, Cheyenne, Sherman, Wallace, Greeley, Wichita, Logan, Sheridan, Thomas and Norton Counties, stopping at many places and driving the country around the town.

I have found some real bargains in wheat and stock farms, wheat going from 20 to 40 bushels the acre, land ranging in price from $12 per acre, up, with easy terms and small payment down. The average renter in this county can handle a half section of this land.

If you are interested see me at once and make arrangements to go and look this land over, for land values are advancing and the bargains I now have may soon be gone.

GEO. W. HUTCHISON.

THE IGNORANT SUSPICIOUS

Every time a man undertakes some worthy project in the community there are the suspicious ones who ask: "What does he get out of it?" Just as if nobody ever did anything without an ulterior or selfish motive.

A public improvement of some kind is proposed and a certain element sets up the cry: "Somebody is going to get something out of it." A man accepts an office at a sacrifice, thinking he can help the community, and some fellow speaks up and says: "Oh, well, he'll get a good deal more out of it some way than the salary." And when a fellow makes a donation to some worthy cause his motive is questioned and questioned.

The suspicious—the ones who do the questioning—are the ones who deserve to be suspected, not the one they are "questioning." Where a man suspects selfish motives in another, he knows deep down in his own heart that he has selfish motives in most things that he does. There are a lot of righteous people in this old world doing all they can for the betterment of the human race—helping all of us in every way they can. Money is not their main object in life—which cannot be understood by those whose object in life is money. There are public officials as honest as anybody else, and doctors who do more charity work than they do work for which they are paid—and lawyers and merchants and manufacturers who have other things in view than piling up their wealth. Yet, notwithstanding the great number of people of this kind there are still those who are always ready with that suspicious question: "What does he get out of it?"—Tribune, Thomas, Okla.
