Wants Workers

Brigadier Andrews of the Salvation Army today issued a call for volunteer workers to assist in putting over the Salvation Army program for 1920. He said in brief:
 "While to insure a successful campaign it would be necessary for the Salvation Army to hire a professional campaign man to supervise and direct the campaign in each county, such supervision would cost us many thousands of dollars and we do not feel that we can afford to so organize our work. So volunteer workers who will come to the Advisory Board in this county will save the day. While our budget of $220,000 is very small compared with last year, we are convinced that we will be called upon for a great deal more work than in former years. Increasing illegitimacy is crowding our Rescue Home to its greatest capacity. While we do not anticipate hard times the period of readjustment is upon us and we want to be prepared to administer to the wants of the people whenever called upon. If you have had experience in former campaigns I earnestly request your aid in this work."
 The advisory board of this county is composed of: E. S. Garber, E. G. Caldwell, W. B. Smith, Howard Foe, Fred Turnure, E. Amack, Chas. Platt, A. B. McArthur, F. J. Munday.

Sheriff's Sale

Notice is hereby given, that under and by virtue of an Order of Sale issued from the office of Edith L. McKeligan, Clerk of the District Court of the Tenth Judicial District, within and for Webster county, Nebraska, upon a decree in an action pending therein, wherein Bernard McNeny is Plaintiff, and against Carrie Fry, et al. Defendants, I shall offer for sale at public vendue, according to the terms of said decree to the highest bidder for cash in hand, at the south door of the Court house, at Red Cloud, in said Webster county, Nebraska, (that being the building wherein the last term of said court was held) on the 26th day of October A. D. 1920 at 2 o'clock P. M., of said day, the following described property, to-wit:
 The undivided one sixth interest of Goldie Fry and Gladys Fry Sutton in and to the South half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 3, Township 1, Range 11, in Webster County, Nebraska, subject to the life estate of Carrie Fry.
 Given under my hand this 21st day of September A. D. 1920.
 FRANK HUFFER Sheriff.

The Margin of Safety

Is represented by the amount of insurance you carry.
 Don't lull yourself into a fancied security.
 Because fire has never touched you it doesn't follow that you're immune tomorrow—no today, if you have time—and you better find time—come to the office and we'll write a policy on your house, furniture, store or merchandise.

CZECH WITH A SCOTCH NAME

Editor of New York Hins Lidu Descended From Rob Roy's Clanmen.
 If Harry Lauder were to read that a MacGregor was one of the leaders of Czecho-Slovakian thought in America he would doubtless conclude that the printer man had pled the type. Just the same it's a fact that the patronymic of B. C. Gregor, editor of the New York Bohemian daily, Hins Lidu, is nothing less than a Czecho-Slovak remnant of MacGregor.
 And the answer is that one of the editor's liveliest ancestors was an adventurous Scot of the great Rob Roy's clan who, found his way to Bohemia and stayed there.
 The real Bohemia of New York, quite unknown to the pallid Bohemians who criticize life from the elevation of a Greenwich village table d'hote, lies in the Seventies, between Second avenue and the East river. Since the war its inhabitants call themselves Czecho-Slovakians.
 Editor Gregor, whose forefathers forgot to hand him down a Scotch accent, and who wouldn't know how to say "Hoot, mon!" either in Scotch or Czecho-Slovak, is a son of a renowned Bohemian patriot who served for 50 years as a parliamentary representative of his people in the legislature of their Austro-Hungarian oppressors. The editor himself is a profound student of international affairs and is looked upon as a sage by the 700,000 Czecho-Slovakians in America.—New York Sun.

FEWER GOLDEN WEDDINGS

Late Marriages and the Divorce Courts Reduce the Number of These Anniversaries.
 More and more infrequently with the succeeding years do we read of the observance of the golden wedding anniversary. Memory recalls the time when such celebrations were of frequent occurrence; when the sons and daughters, grandchildren and often great-grandchildren gathered to honor and felicitate those who had shared the joys and sorrows of two-score-ten years and invoke heaven's blessing upon them as they continued hand in hand the journey toward life's sunset.
 This infrequency may be due in a measure to the present custom of marrying at a later age than was the rule several generations ago and to the fact that we of the present seem to fall earlier under the hand of the grim reaper than did our sturdier ancestors. But to the divorce evil may be accredited the greater part of the blame. The present-day marriage is too often hastily contracted, the parties thereto fail to weigh carefully the responsibilities of married life, and the most trivial differences sometimes lead to separation. The number of couples who live to round out fifty years of matrimonial companionship becomes ever smaller and smaller.

What Delayed Auntie.

Aunt Martha, in town with her daughter, who had to be operated upon, was having her first taste of urban life. To while away her time she "hired out" as a cook. The first Saturday night she was at work her employer sent her to make some purchases. She was hours returning and as the distance was short, her employer grew rather anxious about her. She came in about 11:20.
 "Where on earth have you been, Aunt Martha?" was the question that greeted her.
 Still showing plainly signs of mental stress, she said: "Lawdy, ma'am, I been trying to find a place to get across dat street downtown. I stood on de corner half an hour waiting for all dem street wagons to get by, but dey kept er comin'. Den I walked up dat side of de street, but all de corners wuz just alike. I couldn't get across, so I jes' waited till all dem things went home, and den I come here as fas' as I could."

Vote for RE-ELECTION of

CHIEF JUSTICE

Andrew M. Morrissey

"The political parties have made no nominations for Chief Justice. The Chief Justice is not elected as a party candidate, but his name will be found with other Judicial Candidates, and school officers on a separate ballot.
 "We favor the re-election of Chief Justice Morrissey because we believe in the law designed to take the courts out of politics and to elect Judges because of their qualifications.
 "Six years ago when he became Chief Justice the court was about three years behind. Today the court is as nearly up with its work as it is practicable for a supreme court to be. Credit for this is not wholly due to the Chief Justice, but other members of the court who have contributed to this result give full credit to Chief Justice Morrissey for his share in its accomplishment.
 "He has executive ability that gets results. He enjoys the friendship and co-operation of his associates. He has the respect and confidence of the lawyers who have business in the Supreme Court. He has helped to clear away many technicalities of the law. Law-breakers have been brought to justice and honest men enjoy the protection of the courts.
 "If you are in doubt about how to vote on Chief Justice, ask your District Judge."—Lincoln Tribune.

To The Voters of the 10th Judicial District:

As my court work will prevent me from making a personal campaign I take this means of informing you of my desire for a second term as one of the District Judges of this District.

I have served as a Judge for one year now and have showed what kind of a Judge I am. My election to a second term will be no experiment. You know what kind of a Judge you will get. I believe my work entitles me to a second term. In addition to this I am the only candidate from the west end of the District.

I take great pride in being in a position to help enforce the laws that my father, C. J. Dilworth, by four years hard work as district attorney, in a district that extended from the Missouri river to the Colorado state line, helped to establish and maintain a home.

I have lived in Nebraska since 1870 and I have the utmost pleasure in the fact that those who have known me longest and best are, without a single exception, for me in this contest. Also, that my home people endorsed me strong in the primaries, Phelps county giving me a majority, and that too, after an active canvass by my competitors and none by myself. I have but one ambition, and that is to be elected as one of the Judges of this district, and so wind up my active life, and to conduct such office that I, my friends and my children can have pride in my official career.

I desire this office as an endorsement and will appreciate your vote at the coming election. A straight party vote will not count in electing the judiciary. You should mark on the ballot prepared for judiciary candidates, your selection. You will find my name there.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM A. DILWORTH,
 Holdrege, Neb.

To The Voters of Webster County;

I am a candidate for County Judge on the Non-Partisan Judiciary Ticket. I have always been affiliated with the Republican party. My opponent, Mr. Ranney, has always been a Democrat. Judge Ranney has always voted for, contributed to and fought for Democratic candidates. He has served thirteen years as an official for Webster county. Two terms as County Attorney, and four terms and an extra year as County Judge, is surely all that even a Democrat is entitled to in a Republican county.

I graduated from the Nebraska University, College of Law in 1911. Have practiced law in all its branches, including Probate Matters, for nine years and am thoroughly qualified and competent to fill this office.
 As a candidate for County Judge I will appreciate your support. I solicit your vote.

B. W. STEWART.
