The one Nebraska state daily that has not raised its price is the State Journal, still being sent a whole year for $5 or $7 with the Sunday. The coming legislative session will be an important one. There is bound to be special farmer legislation and every one is interested in the question of prices of what they sell and what they buy. That takes in everyone. A free discussion of all sides is given in the Journal, an independent paper. No family can afford to be without a daily at this time, and the Journal with its progressive attitude is best suited to your needs. It is filled with high-class features and is Lincoln's only morning paper. Special train service enables it to give you later news than other papers. The Sunday Journal should be sold at five cents. Farm Bureau Notes

LIVE STOCK SALES

During the past week the Poland China breeders, the Duroc Jersey breeders and the Shorthorn breeders, met at the Farm Bureau office and talked over the possibilities of Combination Sales. The snow and cold weather prevented some of the breeders from attending these sales. Any Pure bred breeder wishing to consign to these sales, should call at the Farm Bureau office before February 1st, and list his stock. Following are the dates:

Poland China Bred Sow sale, Saturday, March 26, 1921—35 bred sows and gilts; Duroc Jersey Bred Sow sale, Saturday March 5, 1921—40 bred sows and gilts; Shorthorn sale, Wednesday, April 5, 1921—15 bulls and 25 cows and heifers.

In addition to the Combination sale, J. H. Hamilton & Sons of Guide Rock, will hold their Poland China Sow sale on February 9, and Clarence Johnston of Guide Rock, will hold his 3rd Annual Duroc Jersey Bred Sow sale on February 21, 1921.

Farmers should keep these sales in mind and if wanting some breeding stock to add to their herds or start with a few females, or if in need of a good place to get what you want and you will never be able to buy at such reasonable prices as at the present.

DESERTERS' NAMES WILL BE PUBLISHED

Washington, Dec. 27.—Draft deserters whose fears have been lulled to rest by more than two years of security from prosecution are about to receive an unpleasant surprise, for the names of 173,911 of them are shortly to be published in their "home town" sections as a preliminary step to bringing them to a speedy trial, the war department announced today.

Publication of names in local newspapers is expected to aid materially in apprehending offenders, as it is believed that most persons knowing the whereabouts of a draft deserter will be only too willing to volunteer the information. Much aid is also anticipated from members of the American legion, which has consistently urged the department to take action against draft delinquents.

The greatest care will be exercised in making up the list of deserters, lest the names of innocent men be included, department officials stated. Already 151,354 men have been found to have been improperly reported as deserters by state adjutants general and local draft boards.

These errors were rectified by the adjutant general's department, which has just completed examination of the records of 489,003 registrants reported as deserters.

The lists are carefully checked against the records of men who served in the army, navy and marine corps during the war, in order to eliminate the names of men who actually rendered service, but overlooked the formality of notifying the local draft boards.

The department announcement defines "wilful draft deserters" as men who registered under the provisions of the selective service law, but failed to report for military duty at the time and place specified. Under the law they are held to have been inducted into service from the date on which they were ordered to report and since they have never been discharged, are still under military jurisdiction, and liable to trial by general court martial for desertion.—State Journal.

Repeater 63rd; and Woodrow 2d, a Beau Donald—Beau Mischief bred sire. You will never have a better opportunity to buy quality Herefords as this sale will afford. They will never be as cheap again as they are now. Send for catalog to J. M. Hollingsworth, Manager, Cambridge, Nebr., or L. M. Evans, Owner, Haigler, Nebr. The sale will be held in the fine new concrete pavilion in Haigler.

C. O. Soon Shortens Sentence.

Private Bings was incorrigible. His disposition had always been too merry and carefree to suit the commanding officer, but when he entered the post command whistling, it was altogether too much. "Binks," said the captain sternly, "you seem to like to whistle. I'll give you your chance. Stand there in the corner and whistle for one hour." Private Binks swung into the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner." "Your sentence is mitigated to five minutes," said the captain, rising wearily to attention.—American Legion Weekly.

Her Voice Improved.

When Jennie was a child at school and had to read aloud the lessons on the blackboard, the pupils in the benches two or three rows in front of her could hardly hear her. Now Jennie is married and has two small children, and when she takes them to the neighborhood picture show and reads the lines flashed on the screen, it is audible to everybody for six or seven rows in front of her.—Jim Fox.
