FIND LIKENESS OF AUGUSTUS

Archaeologist Discovers Splendid Statue of Roman Emperor at Tivoli.

LIFELIKE STUDY BY

Valuable Addition to Portraits of Roman Emperors and is Only One Extant Done During Emperor's Life.

Rome.—Tivoli, that lovely little city perched above Rome, called Tibur by the ancient Romans, has just given to the archaeological world two new art treasures—an augusteum, or hall, and a splendid head of Emperor Au-

Prof. Alessio Valle, one of the archaeologists who have made Tivoli a special study, long believed that Tivoli should reveal an ancient hall of importance, considering the flourishing state of the city in Roman days. He began to dig near a newly discovered weights and measures office, also dating from the Roman empire, thinking that the public weights and measures must surely be near some important hall,

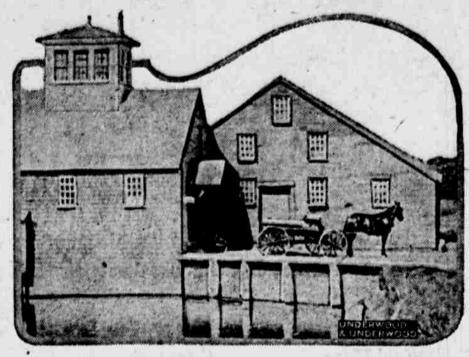

He was not mistaken. He has ment of white and green marble which looks as if it were put down this morning, so fresh is it, and the no flattering picture of the great statue of Augustus, broken but with emperor, but a lifelike study by an the head intact, as the picture shows, with the lifelike lines cut out of the marble by some unknown sculptor of evident genius.

Likeness of Augustus. The statue is a likeness of Augustus when he had grown old. An incription underneath it, which dediates the statue to the gods, "for the happy return in good health of our Augustus Caesar," proves it was done logal Tivoli citizen who signs himself scribes have learned nearly all they

300 SPIES IN THE

AMERICAN ARMY

Not Stopped by Coal Shortage

Kennebunkport, Me., has a grist mill, operated by the tide. It was erected in 1836 and has never stopped since then. Unaffected by shortage of coal or "daylight saving" laws, it goes steadily on, working four hours and then resting four. As the moon is an hour slower each day compared with the sun. however, the miller has to change his hours somewhat.

M. Veranus Diffilus. The same man | know about the Roman emperors gave the public weights and measures | told us, saying: to the city.

History lets us date this statue between B. C. 31 and A. D. 14, when Emperor Augustus died near Naples, aged seventy-six. Experts say the face opened up a hall with a Roman pave- is the face of a man of fifty. In the worn lines, the ill-tempered mouth, its upward twist at the left side, we have artist who dared to cut his statue as he saw the human model. For this reason, and because of its surely being done in Augustus' lifetime, it is a very valuable addition to the collection of portraits of the Roman emperors, and probably the only one extant of Augustus done during his lifetime.

The figure, which originally sat on the pedestal at the head of the hall, during the famous emperor's lifetime, is graceful, as Suetolus, that gosvotive offering to the gods by a sipy historian from whom later

Graceful Person

"He was a very graceful person through all the stages of life, though he was very careless in his dress and would set several barbers to work upon his hair together, and would sometimes clip and sometimes shave his beard, and at the same time would be reading or writing."

Augustus, though emperor, called himself a democrat and, says Suetolus, "always abhorred the title of lord as a scandalous affront." He tells us, too, that the emperor caught cold easily and wore woolen underwear in winter, "with a thick wool

This broken statue, with the base on which it stood, unearthed after so long bridges the gulf of centuries and brings one of the greatest rulers the world ever saw very near.

Love of Music Traps Robber of Poor Box

Philadelphia.-It was his love for music which led to the arrest of Jacob Katz, twenty-four years old. Katz entered the Emanuel Lutheran church here shortly after midnight and found the poor box which he emptied of its contents, $3. Then he found the new organ. Katz had musical talent and he ran his fingers over the keys. Then he became so absorbed in the instrument that he forgot where he was, pulled out the diaphone and thundered away. The strains awakened the pastor, Rev. Rudolph Nieder, who lives next door, and he called the police.

Brossessessessessessessessessesses

ORE TOTALS 50,000,000 TONS

Great Lakes Shipments Show Increase of 7,700,000 During Year, Say

Duluth Figures.

proximately 50,000,000 tons, according Iron ore shipped from the head of the lakes thus far amounts to 47,707,-

372 tons, with about 30,000 tons remaining to go out from the Duluth and Iron Range railroad docks at Two

Harbors and the Chicago & Northwestern railroad docks at Ashland,

Total shipments from all the docks for the season show an increase of approximately 7,700,000 tons over last year, when 40,067,850 tons were

Children Unshod in Big Shoe Town.

Brockton, Mass.-This city produces to figures announced here.

DESERTER MAKES CONFESSION

Amazing Story of German Espionage During the War

Is Disclosed.

Former Officer Tells of Being Sent From Germany With Other Cadets to Enlist in the United States Army.

New York.-An amazing story of German espionage during the war was disclosed when John Willet, former captain in the Forty-eighth United States infantry, confessed he was really Hans Willers, a cadet in the German army until 1914, when he was sent to this country with 300 other cadets to joint the American army and become United States officers.

Willet admitted he had absconded with $6,000 of his company's funds at Camp Sevier on November 28, 1918, a few weeks after the armistice, and demerted.

It was this offense and not any suspicion of his spy role which resulted in his arrest here when Hugh J. Hannigan, formerly a first lieutenant in the Forty-eighth, recognized the deserter on the street and hailed a policeman.

Hints at Treason in Washington. "You would be surprised how many high German officials held jobs in Washington during he war, Willet told Detective Sergeant O'Leary, The prisoner made this statement after he had narreted how he came here and what be would have done had his regiment been sent to France.

slaughter, and could have been use-respective territorial claims.

the police, in explaining why he and others were sent to the United States to enlist in the American army. Willet was taken to Fort Jay prison on Governor's island.

Confronted by two ex-lieutenants of the Forty-eighth infantry, Sidney P. Howell, a lawyer, and Francis Hatch, Willet began to respond to questions. As to his pedigree, he said he was born in Germany and educated there.

"I was trained for spy work when I was a boy and later when I was a cadet in a German military academy," the detectives quote Willet as saying.

"When the World war began in 1914 I was selected to join a band of cadets who were to come to the United States with orders to join the American army. Other groups went to the French army and to the British. About 300 others came over here with me. I knew my military training soon would be recognized and that promotion would follow, so I enlisted as a private the first opportunity I got. I had no citizenship papers-I did not need any. Enlisted as Buck Private.

"I enlisted as a buck private in Al bany soon after my arrival in this country. Within a very short time my ability as a soldier was recognized and I was promoted.

"My heart was nearly broken when discovered my regiment probably would not be sent to France. I would have died for my country gladly. So, 15 days after the armistice, I took the company fund money and left camp.

I might as well be dead. Life does not matter much to me." Willet said that after he deserted

"I'm telling you this freely because Camp Sevier he started traveling. He toured the Pacific coast. In Chicago about a year ago he married an American girl named Craw-

Where Italy and Jugo-Slavia Are Negotiating

shoes for world-wide distribution and makes more of some kinds than any other city, but Charles P. Brooks, attendance officer of the school board, reported that many of its children are unshed. There are at least fifty children in the city who cannot go to school because they lack shoes, he shipped.

CORNHUSKER ITEMS News of All Kinds Gathered From Various Points Throughout Nebraska. OF INTEREST TO ALL READERS

Arthur has organized a company to drill for oil in that vicinity. The price of milk at Columbus has been reduced to 10 cents a quart. A conference of the Midwest Farm bureau will be held at Lincoln early in January. A movement has been commenced in West Point for the organization of a commercial club.

A university press club has been organized at Lingoln by students interested in journalism.

Farmers in Gage county have been plowing the last few weeks, a rare thing for this season.

The state normal school at Kearney has added 7,883 volumes to its library during the last two years.

Douglas county commissioners will open bids December 30 on a $1,000,000 road improvement project.

Alliance is already laying plans to get the 1922 convention of the state volunteer firemen's association. An effort is being made by farmers around Edison to organize an equity store and cream station there. The Women's Public Service club at Broken Bow has started a movement to establish a city swimming pool. A recent drive for membership has increased the roll of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce to nearly 600. The abstract of reports of 1,009 state banks shows a decrease of nearly ten per cent in deposits for the quarter.

Rev. Charles W. Savidge, the Omaha "marrying parson," celebrated his 4,900th marriage ceremony last

Mrs. Etta Durland, well known Norfolk woman, is dead, following fatal injuries received when she was run down by an automobile.

The report of the Department of State hall insurance shows a deficiency of $63,754.73 for the year ending December 1, 1920. The electrocution of Cole and Gramment has been used since its adoption by the state.

Less than 5 per cent the usual number of fur-bearing animals in Nebraska are being trapped for their pelts this year, according to buyers and state game officials.

Hay reached its lowest price on the O'Neill market last week, when buyers were paying only $6.50 a ton for the best and were not anxious to buy even at that price.

Future University of Nebraska football games will be played on the state fair directors have formally rati- sistant general manager. fled this arrangement.

of the Nebraska Masonic home at welfare work, visiting the ruins of sons in the state, died.

State association of county agricultural agents, home demonstration agents and boys' and girls' clubs will December 30 to January 2.

The Grand Island police force unin the former Gold Cure institute at soon after the state went dry. Duluth, Minn.-The total shipment of iron ore for the season reached ap-

A request that the people of Nebraskn donate shiploads of corn for the president of the State Press Associastarving peoples of Europe instead of tion and one of the oldest printers in money has been made to the governor the state, sustained serious injuries by Walter I. Towle of Grand Island.

building is said to be one of the most beautiful church edifices in that part ness. of the state.

"Jack" Best, football coach and trainer at the state university, and portant and interesting programs of well known to every student of that the week of Organized Agriculture, at institution for over a quarter of a cen- Lincoln, January 3 to 7. The Nebrastury, celebrated his seventy-fifth birth- ka State Horticultural society has arday last week.

Delegates to the state volunteer firemen's convention, to be held in York of that industry. January 18 to 21, can ride on all railroads in Nebraska where the fare is Neb., graduate of the Indian schools more than $1 for one and one-half fare at Lawrence, Kas.; Chilocco, Okla.; for the round trip.

for the Nebraska district. They are: has enlisted as a private soldier for of Omaha; C. E. Matson, present coun-C. F. Sandall of York.

Omaha's death rate, 6.8 per 1,000 of population, during the week ending farmer, sold to the York Milling com-December 11, was the lowest in the pany five thousand dollars' worth of United States,

Dr. Charles Hershman, an Alliance physician, dropped dead in his office aroused and mystified by the death of while treating a patient with an large numbers of cattle which have X-ray machine. His death is attributed to a congested artery in the brain.

Receipts of cattle at the South - According to census figures there are Omaha market last week were the more women than men in Lincoln. The lightest seen there on a Monday in women have a majority of 1,784. The many weeks, only 4,500 head being re- number of men is 26,582 and the numported in, against 10,700 head the

The Midwest Implement Dealers' association will convene in Omaha January 5 to 7.

The carcless throwing of a lighted lights have also been connected. match was responsible for a serious prairie fire near the village of Ames which the farmers of the neighborhood and the people of Ames fought for two hours to conquer.

Rev. George Agius, pastor of St. Captain James G. Cheyne, Joseph's Catholic church at Geneva, recently celebrated the 25th anniversary of his ordination, at that the board of education to appropriate place. The program covered several days and was attended by 19 visiting which will be used in hiring a school members of the priesthood.

Frank Long of Alliance shipped two cars of nice, fat cattle to the South Omaha market from Buffalo, Wyo. one day list week.

Mrs. George E. Norman, wife of the manager of a moving picture theater at Hastings, a bride of six months, was killed when the car the was driving collided with another machine driven by Robert Smith.

The 1922 meeting of the Nebraska State Teachers' association will be held at Omaha, the first week in November, according to the decision of the executive committee, which met at Grand Island last week.

W. F. Cook, a David City restaurant employe, was held up by two masked highwaymen, who, after securely binding him up, took his keys, entered the restaurant, and carried off the contents of the cash drawer.

Forty-five nurses at the dormitory of the University hospital at. Omaha leaped or crawled in their night clothes through windows to safety when fire destroyed the building last week. Six young women were badly injured.

John Carter, a former resident of Weeping Water, was trampled to death by wild cattle at his ranch near Haxtun, Colo. He had taken the esttle to the pasture and when he did not return search was made and his body found near the gate.

J. H. Beveridge, city superintendent of Omaba schools, will be president of the Nebraska State Teachers' association for the ensuing year, and other officers are: Vice president, W. H. Martin, Fairbury; treasurer, John F. Matthews, Grand Idend.

Nebraska City commissioners at a recent meeting passed an ordinance limiting the number of pool halls of the city to four. This action was caused by the application of a man from Bethany who sought to establish another parlor in the city.

Newly elected legislators are beginning to worry over the prospect of a place to stay when they arrive in Lincoln to begin their work. Quarters are scarce and range from $80 to $125 a month. Many of them will find it impossible to bring their families.

The Nebraska Farm Bureau federation, which inaugurated an active membership campaign on October 25, now has a total membership of apmer at the state prison last week, was proximately 15,000 in the 17 counties the first time that method of punish- that have been canvassed, according to state headquarters.

The federal government is taking care of Charles Young, the leper victim who escaped from confinement near Battle Creek some time ago and created a sensation when he stated at Washington that he was helped to escape by officers of Madison county.

W. F. Thichoff has been appointed general manager of the Burlington west of the Missouri river, to succeed George W. Holdrege who resigned after fifty-one years' service with the Burlington. Mr. Thiehoff assumes his state fair grounds at Lincoln. The new post January 1. He has been as-

Miss Helen M. Davidson, a former One week after celebrating his 98th Omaha girl, has returned from Europe birthday William Thompson, resident and Asia, where she engaged in social Plattsmouth, one of the oldest Ma- ancient cities and having a thrilling experience when fired upon by bandits at Ephesus, Asia Minor. Nemaha county commissioners are of the opinion that a new survey of meet in annual convention at Lincoln the counties bordering on the Missouri river in Nebraska will add considerable territory to this state. Accovered a still in active operation cordingly they have made arrangements to have the state engineer asthat place, which went out of business sist County Surveyor, T. C. Daugherty in a survey.

Harry A. Brainerd of Lincoln, exwhen he was run down by an auto a The new $36,000 Methodist church few days ago. He is still feeling the just completed at Lodge Pole was effects of an operation in a hospital, formally dedicated last Sunday. The where his eyesight was partfally restored after two years of total blind-

> The development of fruit growing will constitute one of the most imranged a three-day program covering many of the more important phases Alex Negonka, Indian of Genoa, the Shoshone school at Washakie, There are four aspirants for the Wyo.; Genoa, and of the University of job of United States district attorney Nebraska, holder of a B. A. degree, T. J. McGuire and M. O. Cunningham duty at Fort Omaha. He speaks ten Indian languages, English, French, ty attorney of Lancaster county, and German and Spanish fluently, and is an expert carpenter and machinist.

Frank Leninger, a York county corn at 50 cents.

Farmers around Lodge Pole are evidently caused by polson in certain stalks, farmers say.

ber of women is 28,366, making a total population of 54,948.

The Cambridge municipal light plant is now furnishing lights to Bartley, Lebanon and Danbury. New street

More than 500 rabbit, shot as pests by the sporting club at Pilger, were shipped in three big barrels to the Salvation Army at Omaha and distributed to needy families in that city by Women of the Nineteenth Century club of Kearney have prevalled upon $300 toward a fund already available nurse for that place.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JANUARY 9

JESUS TEACHES FORGIVENESS.

LESSON TEXT-Matt. 18:21-35. GOLDEN TEXT-M ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you .- Matt. 6:14. REFERENCE MATERIAL-Matt. 6:12-

15; 18:15-20; Luke 17:3, 4; Eph. 4: 31, 32; Col. 3:12-14. PRIMARY TOPIC-Forgiving One An-

JUNIOR TOPIC-Learning to Forgive. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC -Forgiving and Forgiven. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC Forgiveness: Its Meaning and Scope.

In this lesson we have divine instructions as to our behavior in case of Ill-treatment.

I. Peter's Question (v. 21).

This question, "How often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him?" probably was occasioned by the ill treatment which Peter was then receiving at the hands of his fellow disciples. Christ's confession of Peter brought him into the limelight. The question of the disciples (18:1) "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" shows that there was some jealousy of Peter among the disciples and consequent contention among them. From the Lord's teaching as to the efforts to bring about reconciliation in case of offenses between brother and brother He knew that it would require the exercise of the spirit of forgiveness. Peter disposed to be gracious inquires "Till seven times?" showing his readiness to forgive his brother not three times, but twice three times and a little over. II. Jesus' Answer (v. 22).

The Lord's answer was an astonishing revelation to Peter. He said "Not until seven times, but until seventy times seven." This shows that our willingness to forgive should be limit-

III. The Two Creditors (vv. 23-35). This parable of the two creditors illustrates His principles of forgiveness. 1. The gracious creditor (vv. 23-27). The king in this parable represents God, and the servant who is greatly in debt represents the sinner-any sinner, every sinner, you and me. We were hopelessly in debt to God. Ten thousand talents are equal to some twelve millions of dollars. To meet this obligation would be an utter impossibility. This man's plea for time, promising to pay all, much resembles our vain imaginings that we can pay our debt to God, that by our future good works we can atone for our past most griveous sins. By the justice of God's law we were hopelessly condemned; by the grace of God we were freely pardoned.

2. The cruel creditor (vv. 28-35). This man who was forgiven so much found a man who owed him a small sum-about fifteen or seventeen dollars. He shut his ears to the man's entreaty to be patient with him, flew at his throat and cruelly put him into jail. The great mercy shown him did not touch his heart, so he refused to be merciful. Being set free from so great a debt as our sins against God, we should make God's act of unlimited forgiveness toward us the standard of unlimited forgiveness toward others. In dealing with others we should always keep these considerations before us: (1) We ourselves need it and doevery day continue to need the forgiveness of God. With all our imperfections and positive sins we need the continued mercy of God. When we pray, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors," let us be sure that we have put away all thought of sin held against others. To pray that prayer otherwise is an abomination. (2) That there is a day of judgment coming and at that day we shall be treated as we treat others. No mercy will be shown to those who have not shown mercy.

The heart, then, of this lesson is that God's gracious act toward us should be the standard of our actions toward others, and that we must exercise the same spirit of forgiveness toward our fellowmen if we would continue to enjoy God's forgiveness. The proof that we are God's children is that we manifest the spirit of God. "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matt. 5:48).

Thank God Every Morning.

Thank God every morning when you get up that you have something to do that day which must be done whether you like it or not. Being forced to work and forced to de your best will breed in you temperance, self-control, diligence, strength of will, content, and a hundred virtues which the idle neves know.—Charles Kingsley.

Jesus' Idea of God.

Jesus was filled with the joy of life because He had the most joyous idea of God that was ever thought of. Jesus taught the disciples that they could take the finest things in life and, raising them to their highest power, ascribe them to God. He told them about the Fatherhood of God and said, "If ye who are evil know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more your heavenly Father!" Jesus taught men to interpret God in the terms of the spiritually best.

I would have led my men to ford, it is said. Willet recently opened a mail order sild, and some of them have not been sul to my own country in many other business in this city under the name to school in weeks. ways," Willet declared, according to of Crawford.

View of an old quarter in Rapallo, where the Italians and Jugo-Slavs formulated their treaty, and are settling their