How It Worked Out.

"I sent Josh to college," said Farmer Cornstossel, "so that he'd have the advantage of a better education than I had."

"How did it work out?"

"Josh overdoes his gratitude. He's all the time showing off his intellectual superiority so as to make me feel that I got my money's worth."

Jud Tunkins.

Jud Tunkins says he can't understand why some people think it's any kind of a comfort to explain to a man that his troubles are his own fault.

Baby's little dresses will just simply dazzle if Red Cross Ball Blue is used in the laundry. Try it and see for yourself. At all good grocers, 5c.

If the conceit were taken out of some people there would be nothing left to bury.

Many a man thinks he is choosing a wife when the privilege is all hers.

Mistakes We Often Make.

There is a proverb which reads—"The man who never made a mistake never made anything else." There is a great deal of truth in that saying. Sometimes we come across one of those perfect individuals who claims never to make mistakes, but more often we find that these very same persons not only make mistakes but very grave ones.

The Cuticura Toilet Trick.

Having cleared your skin keep it clear by making Cuticura your every-day toilet preparations. The soap to cleanse and purify, the Ointment to soothe and heal, the Talcum to powder and perfume. No toilet table is complete without them. 25c everywhere.—Adv.

Keep your eye on small opportunities. They sometimes grow.

Your New Home should be made artistic, sanitary and livable.

These walls should be Alabastined in the latest, up-to-the-minute nature color tints. Each room should reflect your own individuality and the treatment throughout be a complete perfect harmony in colors.

The walls of the old home, whether mansion or cottage, can be made just as attractive, just as sanitary, through the intelligent use of

Alabastine

Instead of kalsomine or wallpaper

How much better, when you have a new home, to start right than to have to correct errors afterward from former treatment with other materials, when you come to the use of Alabastine, as does nearly every one sooner or later.

Once your walls are Alabastined you can use any material over it should you desire, but having used Alabastine you will have no desire for any other treatment.

Alabastine is so easy to mix and apply—so lasting in its results—so absolutely sanitary—and so generally recognized as the proper decorative material in a class by itself that it is becoming difficult to manufacture fast enough to supply the demand.

Alabastine is a dry powder, put up in five-pound packages, with full directions, ready to mix and use by the addition of cold water, and with full directions on each package. Every package of genuine Alabastine has cross and circle printed in red.

Better write us for hand-made color designs and special suggestions. Give us your decorative problems and let us help you work them out.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. D. H. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago)
(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR MARCH 27

THE LIVING CHRIST.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 28:1-30. GOLDEN TEXT—I am with you always, even unto the end of the world—Matt. 28:20.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 27:51-55; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:36, 44-49; John 20:1-18; Phil. 3:2-11. PRIMARY TOPIC—The Easter Story. JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Ever-Present Friend. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Christ Our Living Leader. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christ in the Life of Today.

I. The Empty Sepulcher (vv. 1-7).
1. The earthquake (vv. 1-4). This occurred when the glorious angel descended from heaven to roll the stone away from the tomb. This work of the angel was not to allow Jesus to escape, but to show that the tomb was empty. Christ needed not even the help of a glorious angel, for He was raised up by His own power as the seal upon His atoning work on the cross. The open tomb and the angel sitting upon the stone with calm dignity is a picture of God's triumph over the devil, and the terror of the keepers is a sample of what all of Christ's enemies shall one day experience when He comes in glory to reign as King.

2. The angel's message to the women (vv. 5-7). (1) "Fear not" (v. 5). While the enemies had occasion to fear, these women who loved the Lord received good news from the empty tomb. The Lord will not long leave those who follow Him in love in suspense and dread. The empty tomb puts an end to all doubts and fears. It is the evidence that the question of sin is dealt with, and that God is satisfied and eternal victory is secured. (2) "Come, see" (v. 6). The angel told the women that the Lord had risen and invited them to come and see the place where He lay. The reason He invites them to come in is that He desires them to make sure about the facts. The Lord made special effort to convince the disciples of the reality of His resurrection. He remained with them for 40 days, giving them many infallible proofs. (3) "Go quickly" (v. 7). Having seen for themselves, their responsibility was to go to tell the message. While it is important to be convinced of facts, one should not stay too long because there is work to do. Experience is necessary before testimony. They were to go quickly to the disciples with the message, assured that the Lord would go before and meet them.

II. The Risen King Meets the Women (vv. 8-10).

The women quickly obeyed the command of the angel and were running to bring the disciples word. Jesus met them on the way. Those who have an experimental knowledge of Christ should go speedily to tell others of it. All who go quickly with His message, the Lord will meet on the way. When they saw Jesus, that He was really the Lord, they worshiped Him. They knew that He was the Son of God, therefore entitled to be worshipped.

III. Paying Money to Circulate a Lie (vv. 11-15).

That Jesus arose from the dead could not even be denied by the Sadducees. They could see but one way out of the difficulty, that was to bribe the keepers to tell a lie. They had paid money for His betrayal; now they pay much more to circulate a lie about His resurrection. What a wonderful power money has over the lives and consciences of men! It will not only induce people to lie, but it even muzzles the mouths of preachers.

IV. The King's Great Commission (vv. 16-20).

By virtue of His royal authority He issued this great command to the disciples. In order to prepare them to receive this command, He declared unto them that all power in heaven and earth was given unto Him. This is most fundamental. Only as the disciples realize the Lord's power are they likely to go about with the message.

1. "Go, teach all nations." This is the first and primary business of the disciples. The risen and mighty Lord issues this command to all (v. 19).
2. Baptize them in the name of the Triune God. Those who have become disciples of the Lord should receive that rite which signifies that relationship to Him (v. 19).
3. Teach them to observe all Christ's commandments (v. 20). Those who become Christ's disciples should be taught obedience to all His commands. All who thus obey Him shall enjoy His abiding presence. Christ's abiding presence guarantees the success of the enterprise.

"DEAD" SIX YEARS

American Tells of Suffering in Mexican Salt Mines.

Only Recently Gained Freedom, and Did Not Know Anything of the World War.

The World war had been fought and won, and he did not know a word about it.

He was Mate Maguire, an engineer and graduate of the Boston Institute of Technology, who for six years was a soldier of fortune in the rebel army of Mexico, and for five years and eight months a prisoner at hard labor in the Mexican salt mines, during which he never saw the light of day or a newspaper of any kind.

Maguire reached Tacoma a short time ago after a thrilling escape from the mines, in which he had been condemned to life imprisonment after his capture by the Mexican federals. He has just taken a position in the county engineer's office in Tacoma, says a Tacoma letter.

Young and adventurous, Maguire joined a troop of men from the United States who were fighting under Madera. He became second in command of all the troops and was part of the time directly under Villa. He was truly a soldier of fortune.

But one day Maguire and two other officers went into Chihuahua because they heard trouble was brewing there. They entered a cantina through a rear entrance. Here they found several of Huerta's officers carousing. They had nothing to do but surrender to them. They were gagged, tied and taken 65 miles on horseback to the headquarters of a United States half-breed serving under Huerta. Here at a general court-martial they were sentenced to life imprisonment in the salt mines of Chihuahua.

"It was worse than a death sentence to us," said Maguire. "We had heard about the conditions of the salt mines, where unbelievable conditions were existing, and the workers were being just tortured to death."

"We were dropped some 1,500 feet in the ground in a bucket. We felt as though we were being buried alive, and when at last I stepped into the mine, with its few dim candles, the famous lines, 'All hope abandon, ye who enter here,' entered my mind. It was just pure and simple hell. Rats, gila monsters, scorpions, lizards, lice and other underground creatures were in the surroundings. Food consisted of beans and flabby pancakes.

"That we might get a little tobacco we sacrificed part of our meals. No medical aid of any sort was available, and the death rate ran about one prisoner a day. Their bodies lay uncovered for weeks sometimes. In all the five and two-thirds years I was in there I never saw a newspaper or magazine. In fact, I didn't know there was such a thing as the World war.

"But fate at last favored us. The guards, we noted, were on a carousel that evening. When they came down the shaft we ended their careers with blows from huge stones. We donned their uniforms and made off. I went toward the United States border, which was 139 miles north, and the other two officers went down south.

"Well, now I am here, thank God! Ambition for adventure is wonderful, but adventure itself of this sort is far from entertaining."

Use of Peat as Fuel.

The burning of peat has an individual as well as a national significance. For instance, consider this from Peter Christanson, professor of metallurgy in the school of mines at the University of Minnesota:

"There is scarcely a farmer in the state of Minnesota, except in the southeastern, western and extreme northwestern portions, who could not make himself independent of a coal supply for heating purposes by preparing and using peat from his own farm. Incidentally, peat is found in sixty-four of the eighty-six counties of the state. Other states have lots of it, too.

"All the man needs to do is to take spade, cut the peat from his bog in blocks and dry it. He can do it cheaper than he can pay $15 or $20 for coal, too. My father burned peat for years here in Minnesota and it made an excellent fire. Farmers are using it for fuel in some sections of the state, particularly those from the old countries, who are acquainted with its use.

Valuable Invention.

A naval invention firm used during the war may revolutionize the task of the pilot. A cable seventeen miles in length is now laid from Portsmouth harbor to the Warner Light on the channel side of the Isle of Wight. The cable is charged with a high frequency current, by means of which a ship fitted with a receiving apparatus may locate its position and find its way. Such an invention, if adopted in all the more difficult ports of navigation routes, would not only add greatly to the safety of ships, but save much valuable time that is now lost.—London Daily Chronicle.

Uninfluenced.

"Does your wife influence your vote?"

"Not at all," replied Mr. Meekton. "Henrietta wants me to vote according to my own ideas; but it is remarkable how thoroughly my views always coincide with hers after she has taken the trouble to express them and to assure me that she is perfectly willing to go on elucidating until I fully comprehend."

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"
The Feeling Tribute of a Woman to
PE-RU-NA

READ HER LETTER—IT WILL DO YOU GOOD

"Pe-ru-na has been a godsend to me. I feel safe in saying that it saved my life. I was all run down and miserable when I commenced taking Pe-ru-na, but am on the road to recovery now. I cannot thank you too much."
—Mrs. CHARLES ANSPAGH,
R. F. D. No. 7, Lagrange, Indiana.

A letter like this brings hope and the promise of health to every sick and suffering woman. Perhaps you know what it means to have your daily duties a misery, every movement an effort, stomach deranged, pain in the head, back and loins most of the time, nerves raw and quivering—not a moment's rest or relief from suffering. Do as Mrs. Anspagh did. Take Pe-ru-na. Don't wait but start right away.

KIND-HEARTED LITTLE BOBBY DIDN'T LAST LONG ENOUGH

He Meant Well, but He Won't Go to the Movies With Mamma Again for a While.

Possibly the "Woman in the Sky" Didn't Use a Really Good Kind of Feather.

Bobby, a four-year-old Columbus boy, is an observing youngster; also, he is kind-hearted and willing to oblige, characteristics that were brought out in a recent incident which was embarrassing to his mother. Bobby's mother is young and pretty, and to enhance her good looks has frequent recourse to a powderpuff, with the usual remark that she fears her face is shiny.

One night this week Bobby sat with his mother in a movie, and directly in front of them sat a bald-headed man. His head was shiny, and this attracted Bobby's attention.

"Say, mother," he said excitedly, "that man's head is awful shiny, isn't it?" His mother's look of distress evidently was interpreted by Bobby to mean sympathy for the man with shiny head, for he said, loud enough to be heard for several rows of seats, "Mother, couldn't you lend him your powderpuff?"—Indianapolis News.

New Source of Paper.
From a mixture of sugar cane refuse and bamboo fiber a Trinidad planter has succeeded in making a paper equal in quality to the best wood pulp product.

Some people fail to recognize opportunity when it comes up and shakes hands with them.

Two little tots were still trying out Christmas sleds although it was a week or more after the holiday and the short hill down which they were coasting was entirely devoid of snow in spots. They would slide along for a few feet until they came to a bare spot, drag their sleds over the barren place to the next patch of snow and repeat.

"Where does the snow come from?" the smaller of the two children, a boy of about four, suddenly asked.

"My mother says it is some woman way up in the sky shaking her pillows until the feathers fall out," was the naive reply of his companion.

"Well," exclaimed the boy, after a thoughtful pause, "I wish her feathers wouldn't melt."

The Vanishing Point.
Mary Garden on her return from Monte Carlo said at a dinner in New York:

"You will hardly believe it, but in France skirts are getting shorter. On the Promenade des Anglais in Nice and on the Casino terrace in Monte Carlo it almost seemed as if they shortened an inch or so every day."

"Where will this thing end?" a movie king asked in awed tones.

"If skirts," Miss Garden answered, "get much shorter, they will end in being nothing but—a hem! a hem!"
