

After Eating Just Takes An Eatonic

"The first dose of Eatonic did me wonders. I take it at meals and am no longer bothered with indigestion," writes Mrs. Ellen Harris,

Thousands of people, like this dear lady, gratefully testify about Eatonic, which does its wonders by taking up and carrying out the excess acidity and gases which bring on indigestion, heartburn, bloating, belching and food repeating. Acid stomach also causes about seventy other non-organic allments. Protect yourself. A big box of Eatonic costs but a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.

INDIAN STORY OF CREATION Menaboshu Made the Earth, According to the Legend-Great Lakes Are Bear Tracks.

Menaboshu, according to the legend of the Chippewa Indians, was the creator of all things. He avowed one day that he would make the earth. But the almighty creator did not find his task easy, for he wanted to make the earth larger than any other thing, Truly he rounded the soil between his powerful hands, until it grew into a great ball; but, freed from their touch, it fell in a heap. In this way he tried again and again; each time he saw the mass crumble. Then Menaboshu mixed water with the soil to form mud; and, besides, moulded it about a great rock, when behold-a still larger ball. The mass, at last, kept the chosen shape.

The creator, pausing to rest from his toll, beheld his matchless work. Menaboshu next undertook to devise the many living things which dwell on the earth. Before the surface of the giant ball had time to dry. in fact, the lusty god began to make the animals, last of which was manbegan to make the animals, one kind after another, on the broad palm of his left hand. Among others he made the bears.

The first bear soon escaped from its maker. The wild beast, with its untried strength, leaped to the earth and bounded straightaway across the continent of North America. But the land where the sprawling bear's huge paws struck the earth was still so fresh and soft that they left deep tracks. All was strangely new.

These deep marks on our continent quickly filled with water. Scarcely had the frightened bear bounded away. when the beautiful lakes-Superior, Michigan, Huron, Ontario and Erleappeared, full to the brim. They are old as the first bear's tracks.

The creator now hastened to make rain. At sight of the water, filling as I did to take this medicine and get the lakes, he began to fear, lest the soil again fall in a heap; and he caused the rain to fall from the sky. so long that the lakes overflowed their shores. And the water from Superior, seeking the level, flowed toward Erle, the track of the foot which struck first and settled, under the bear's weight. much lower than the others-the water, on its way to the sea dropped abruptly from Ontario into Erie. And lo! the Falls of Niagara!

There is nothing in this world which works to greater advantage than to be silent. No one likes to be ignored. It hurts like the mischief to have an antagonist throw up a barricade against which we have no power. The moment the other fellow is silent, that minute all detailed plans of attack are worthless. The only thing one can do is to be silent also, and there you are! Though but an armistice, the action of conflict is over. The one who refuses to converse may be one you have no use for. Still it bothers you, You are annoyed, your pride is injured at the realization that the one you hold in scorn has the opportunity to ignore you. The moment you resort to tantalizing banter you acknowledge the final defeat. If you fail in line and imitate you compliment. The secret is to steal the thunder first. If one you love keeps silent it hurts twice. Once because you have no idea how deeply you may have offended to bring down upon your head such punishment, and again because the loved one could ignore you. Just think over the conquering points of this silent weapon .- New York Mail.

Declares Tanlac Enabled Him to Eat Better, Sleep Better and Work Better. - Has Gained Thirty Pounds.

"I consider Tanlac the grandest medicing in the world, for I have actually gained 30 pounds in weight since I began taking it. It has just simply filled me with new life and energy and for the first tin e in years I can sit down to the table and enjoy three square meals a day like other people. In fact, Tanlac has made me eat better, feel better, sleep better and work better, and I guess that's all a man can expect of a medicine.

"Before I took Tanlac, I was off 25 pounds in weight and was so badly run down I was hardly able to do my work. Nothing seemed to agree with me and my food invariably soured on my stomach. I would always have an uncomfortable bloated up feeling in my stomach, and although I tried many kinds of medicines, I never got relief until I took Tanlac.

another from the dead. The Jews rightly interpreted His claim to being able to raise the dead as a claim to To her mystification he said: "I will® Deity.

2. Judging mankind. No human being is wise enough to judge his fellow being. Christ's claim to be the judge of mankind they interpreted to be His claim to Deity, and they were correct. III. The Man Who Will Not Work Should Not Eat (II Thess. 3:6-13). There had developed among the Christians at Thessalonica a tendency to idleness. Some were neglecting their lawful earthly callings-even to the extent that they were becoming a charge to the church. From the context of the Thessalonian epistles it would seem that this serious condition was the result of wrong views concerning the second coming of Christ, Such as this is wholly wrong and absolutely contrary to the significance of "the blessed hope." The attitude of those possessing an intelligent view of the Lord's coming as taught by Christ and the apostles, is earnest attention to the present duty. "Occupy till I come," is Christ's charge. Speculative star-gazers have brought this precious doctrine into disrepute. Unceasing fidelity to all the responsibilities of the present is the correct attitude of those who are waiting for the Son from heaven. To correct this wrong, Paul-

1. Asserts his authority to command (v. 6). This authority was given him by Christ,

2. Commands them to withdraw from those who thus walk disorderly (v. 6).

3. Paul's example (vv. 7-9). Paul pressed with great earnestness the doctrine of the Lord's return, and yet consistently continued in his lawful calling. In order to not be chargeable unto them he labored with great earnestness night and day.

4. Those who will not work should not eat (v. 10). This is the right principle upon which to base all works of charity. It is the efficient cure for pauperism. The right economic order has as its foundation principle: Work in order to eat. This should apply to all classes, rich and poor.

5. Busybodies exhorted (vv. 11, 12). Idle men and women always become busybodies. Paul's exhortation is that they with quietness work and eat their own bread.

Man's Glory.

Man's glory lies in his striving after the best; his shame, in' contentment with the second rate. The banner under which the true man marches bears the word "Excelsior," but the goal upon which he fixes his eye bears the inscription, "The Best."-Church Misslonary.

Tears Brighten the Eyes.

There is a very widespread belief that the process of crying tends to weaken the eyes and rob them of brightness. Actually, the truth lies in the opposite direction, according to an ceulist.

The shedding of tears (provided that the weeping is not overdone) is one of the greatest aids to softness and brightness of the eyes.

The explanation is this: The eyes need a bath just as our bodies do. There is a certain quality in the "tear liquid" which does not exist in water, and that is why a tear bath is of much greater value than a mere bathing with cold or warm water.

There is a possibility that one of the reasons for the superiority of feminine eyes in point of limpidity and brightness over the male optics is the tendency of the gentler sex to indulge in more or less frequent outbreaks of tears.

The moral is that if you want to have what novelists call "eyes like the fishpools of Heshoon," give the eyes a tear bath at least once a week.

Wants a Free Trip.

Railroads require that when a body is shipped to any point the undertaker shall purchase two full tickets, but it is optional whether any one accompany the body.

The following unique proposal was sent to a New York undertaker recently:

"Within the next five weeks I am due at Santa Fe, N. M., and as 1 understand there are times when the near relatives of one who has passed into hazy oblivion cannot come to New York to take charge of same, 1 hereby hold myself open at any time within the above named period to accompany said oblivious party to any point in the West or Southwest as a matter of covering my transportation in exchange for said services."

in Modern Life.

J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., sald in a Y. M. C. A. address: "The successful business man today is one who knows how to choose his managers. A successful modern business is too vast for any one man to handle. So managers are essential, and if these managers are badly chosen, failure follows.

"The unsuccessful business man is apt to depute authority to such creatures as young Corn Husk,

"Young Corn Husk's daddy sent him to the mill one day to try to sell the season's wheat crop

"Corn got hold of a miller and submitted a handful of wheat to him. The miller examined the wheat carefully. Then he said:

"'How much more has your father got like this?'

"'He ain't got no more like it,' young Corn answered. 'It took alm all morning to pick that out.""
