Miss Gladys Garber Weds

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Gladys Dana, daughter of Mrs. Winifred Garber of Los Angeles to David E. Thompson, of Los Angeles, former well-known Nebraskan. The marriage took place June 9, at San Jose, at the home of an aunt, Mrs. Dan Barber. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will spend the summer months at Lake Crescent, Wash., and will go to Los Angeles in the fall. Mrs. Thompson was born in Lincoln and lived in Nebraska until some years ago. The family home was at Red Cloud. Mr. Thompson was also formerly ambassador to Mexico. It was his fourth marriage.—State Journal.

Wages Cut at Power House

The city council held a meeting recently at which time the wages of those connected with the light and power department were reduced and different hours effected which took effect Wednesday as follows:

Superintendent.....	$ 150 00
First Engineer, 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.	125 00
Second " 4 p. m. to 12 p. m.	85 00
Third " 12 p. m. to 8 a. m.	75 00

Red Cloud Represented In Highway Log Book

A special meeting of the Commercial Club was held at the club rooms Wednesday morning at which time Mr. Smith, President of the Golden Rod Highway, was present and stated that this association was getting out a log book containing maps of the Highway from Denver to Nebraska City and also a writeup of the towns on the route. Those present decided that this city should be represented in the book and Joe Hewitt and A. B. McArthur were appointed a committee to solicit funds for the write up, and also equipping camping grounds for tourists thru the city. Messrs. Cowden, Munday and Turnure were appointed a committee to secure a suitable place for camping grounds.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

(By Superintendent)

A scholarship worth $200 is offered to rural teachers by the American Country Life Association, of which Kenon L. Butterfield of Amherst Mass. is president. The best article of less than 2500 words describing effective work done by the writer in making the elementary school a vital factor in meeting the needs of American country life. This must be delivered to the president of the association not later than August 15, 1921.

Tuition statements that have not been tended to can still be sent in if it is done very quickly.

Special meetings for increasing the mill levy to provide for nine months school where it has not been done heretofore and is required by law, should be advertised as soon as possible.

Permits are not allowed, neither will emergency certificates be granted this year as long as qualified teachers can be found.

Certificates granted after July 13, 1919 can not be renewed without college hours credit. This is one of the reasons why teachers' wages cannot come down much. Going to summer school once every two years for second grade certificates and once every three years for the first grade eats up the teacher's savings. The laws have tried to fix it so that you will have good teachers and good teachers cost money.

When a pupil for which a district is paying tuition moves into the district that gives high school privileges the district that was paying his tuition is no longer liable.

It is the opinion of the State office that a transfer should not remain in force when the reason for which it was made no longer exists, in that case we believe it is within the power of the county superintendent to cancel the transfer.

Ed Amack Buried Sunday

Ed. Amack who had been hovering between life and death for several weeks passed to his reward last Thursday evening shortly after six o'clock. While his condition had been serious and little hope had been entertained for his recovery his death casts a gloom over the entire community. He suffered a paralytic stroke on Dec. 27th but it was thought for a while that he would recover from the affliction. The deceased was born in Peppertown, Indiana, on the eighth day of August, 1868. He was married to Miss Nevada Richardson, Dec. 10th, 1887, at Rockville, Missouri. Two daughters were born to this union, Minnie and Dora. The latter passed away July 14th, 1902. His wife died August 5th, the same year. On November 15th, 1903 he married Mildred Gough, who with the daughter, Mrs. Minnie Stauber, and four brothers survive him.

He for the last sixteen years has conducted an undertaking establishment in this city with the assistance of his wife, who is qualified and licensed. He was considered one of the best embalmers and funeral directors in the state and also was a member of the Nebraska Funeral Directors Association. Mr. Amack was a man with a big personality and a kindly disposition. The nature of his business brought him in touch with sorrow, mourning and distress. Instead of being mercenary, his dealings with the bereaved developed in him more fully that kindly, sympathetic nature which won for him so many friends. He was prominent politically and socially and was always interested in civic improvement and the upbuilding of the community. He was a member of the Masonic and M. W. A. lodges and several years ago he served as County Coroner for two terms and also served as Councilman in the First ward.

A year ago last spring he was elected mayor of this city and administered the affairs of the office in a conservative and business like manner until the time of his sickness.

The remains lay in state at the home until Sunday noon.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Bessie Auditorium at which time a very large number of friends together with the Masonic order attended. Rev. Cope gave the opening prayer. Rev. Linger of Cowles delivered the funeral sermon, which was a masterful address for the occasion. Mrs. Frank Hughes sang two solos which were splendidly and expressively rendered, while Mr. Windolph presided at the pipe organ.

The floral offerings were many and magnificent, which showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held by the many donors. The last rites at the grave were in charge of the Masons who conducted their very impressive service in honor of the deceased brother.

P. J. Merten of Blue Hill was the undertaker in charge and was assisted by C. E. Leedom of The Omaha Casket Co.

Injured in Auto Accident

Saturday evening about ten o'clock another serious auto accident happened on West Fourth Avenue. Al Slaby was driving home and when near the Frank Star residence with Max Mizer and his family in their car, also going home, following behind him, some brainless wonder coming from the west with no dimmers on his car blinded Mr. Mizer so that he could not see and he ran into Mr. Slaby's buggy throwing him out against the curb. He sustained a severe cut on his back and was injured internally. At this time however, he is getting along nicely.

Fred Slaby was in Red Cloud, City, Wednesday afternoon, when he pitched the toe from his pitcher's box. The former was a score of feet from the pitcher's box when the men on the bench saw that it was a no-hitter. He is

Are you proud to pull out your watch?

FIFTY YEARS ago, perhaps, your grandfather bought a watch. Thick, elaborately ornamented and heavy in the pocket, it represented the highest skill of the watchmaker of that day. Perhaps it has come down to you as an heirloom.

And yet, if you were buying a watch today, would you choose such a model? Would you wear a suit of clothes of the style of a half-century ago?

Watchmaking has progressed. The modern thin models, with all the accuracy and sturdiness of their cumbersome predecessors, and with an added beauty of line, have become the ideal timekeepers for the man and woman of today. Such a watch you can display with a full measure of pride.

Keep the old watch for the memories that surround it. But let us show you our new models—pocket watches of unsurpassed elegance, sturdy strap watches for the out-of-doors, dainty wristlets in gold and silver and platinum. We will show you the masterpieces of the finest watchmakers of today, in infinite variety of style.

We also invite you to view our selection of watch cases made by Wadsworth, the creator of many of the most popular designs in watch cases for thirty years.
