CHAS. L. COTTING
THE DRUGGIST

Will be Buried Sunday at 2:30

S. H. Johnson, residing in Catherton township, received a telegram this morning stating that his son Charles' remains had left Hoboken, New Jersey. The body will arrive in this city Friday evening or Saturday morning. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the New Virginia church. The Red Cloud American Legion Post will have charge of the service at the grave.

Bound Over to District Court

The first of the week Sheriff Huffer arrested Marvel Pentress and Ryan Birkner on the charge of having mash in their possession. Several barrels and milk cans containing different brands of mash were found south of the river near the old mill dam, west of this city. The gentlemen were brought before Judge Ranney where they entered a plea of not guilty, but were bound over to District Court. They being unable to furnish bond are now guests of Sheriff Huffer.

Succumbs From Operation

Lottie Ducker, passed away last evening at Hastings, after having undergone an operation which was thought for a time to have been successful. The remains will arrive in the city this evening. She had been visiting relatives in Fairbury where she was taken suddenly ill. Her father, Deputy County Clerk A. V. Ducker and Dr. Stockman left for that place Sunday morning. Upon arrival she was taken to Hastings for an operation. The news of her untimely death comes as a distinct shock and the community deeply sympathize with the family.

Chautauqua Closes

The Kaufmann Male Quartet received a continuous ovation from number to number in the prelude on Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Ira P. Berry, a teacher, lecturer and noted preacher gave an extraordinary address on the subject, "Art. Travel and Patriotism". It was brimful of good things. His patriotism was deepened while he visited the leading cities of Europe, mingled with the people of Palestine, went over the hot sands of Africa by camel, along the Nile on the back of an Arab, clambered among the Alps and returned to tour the United States twice crossing it in a Ford. It was a deeply instructive and worth while lecture.

The Earnest Joy Artist's Trio on Friday afternoon entertained under difficulties as a storm came up and blew over some stakes to the tent and this frightened the people and they repaired to the school house until the tent was fixed and the rain ceased when the remainder of the splendid program was rendered without further interruption. This was an artistic group of players and singers giving only the best class of music. Earnest Joy himself ranking as one of the greatest violinists of the day. He rendered a number where he played upon four strings at once. Mrs. Foy is an artist on the piano and has an excellent voice. Miss Frank, a singer from Louisville, Kentucky, has one of the sweetest and clearest voices heard on the whole week's program.

Dr. Gabriel R. Maguire, distinguished explorer, told of his many thrilling adventures in Africa for seven years. He showed his wonderful collection of curios, among which was a fine collection of snake skins of the largest snakes found in Africa.

The Wales Players ushered in a big day on Saturday. Josh Lee, reader and humorist, followed in championship form. Every body laughed and was happy with him. His soldier rhymes were grand.

The play "Pollyanna" was enacted to the satisfaction of all the lovers of that sweet story here. All were experts along their lines of acting. Many determined to play the glad game with Pollyanna after this.

Sunday, the closing day, was another big day. The churches of the town had their Sunday schools as usual and then gathered under the big tent for union church services, with a united choir singing. The platform manager, Porterfield preaching the sermon, which proved to be a powerful one, indeed. The Midland Metropolitan Singers gave a sacred concert in the prelude of the afternoon.

Then followed the number many had been so anxious to hear—Frank Dilnot of London, England. He told the story of the life of David Lloyd George Prime minister of England in a dramatic way well worth hearing. He compared England and America, saying we are alike: In both having the same kind of spirit; same kind of home life; both democratic; same language; same emotions exhaust us and that England would be ready to answer our call for help if need be. More stars and stripes seen floating there than any other beside the Union Jack for liberty and progress.

The children gave a musical dramatization of "Songs of Auld Lang Syne." Some singing and some doing pantomime. Mary McBride presided at the piano. The larger girls did most of the solo work. Some of the songs were: Juanita, Old Folks at Home, Annie Laurie, Slumber Boat, Home Sweet Home, etc., ending with America, the audience standing. This was brief but very good.

The Metropolitan's gave the closing concert consisting of portions of operas, ballads, old favorites and humorous numbers. The work of the pianist was splendid.

The result of, boosting for another Chautauqua here next year is not very gratifying as only 264 tickets have been placed and only 28 persons have signed the guarantee obligating themselves to the extent of $5.00 each in case of default. A better program is anticipated for another year.

Are you fair to your watch?

An automobile needs frequent attention. What about your watch—a mechanism infinitely more delicate?

CARBON in the motor of a car will decrease the running efficiency of that car. And yet the carbon will accumulate. The car owner, knowing this, has his car frequently overhauled—and the carbon removed.

And yet this same man, perhaps, will allow his watch, a mechanism infinitely more delicate, to run for years without attention. All the while it is accumulating dust—for tiny dirt particles will sift in through the most tightly fitting case—and this will in time impede the timekeeping performance of the watch.

Your automobile performs occasional service, but your watch has to run continuously for a full twenty-four hours each day. Look at your watch. How long has it been since you took it to a jeweler for examination?

If your watch is to run at its highest efficiency, it should be cleaned, oiled and adjusted at least once a year—before the last particle of oil has disappeared from the bearings.

Our Service Department is well equipped to make any repairs and adjustments that may be necessary.

And while you are in, we particularly invite you to view our very complete stock of new watches dressed in attractive Wadsworth Cases.
