

Children's School Wear Week

School starts September 5th. While lots of mothers have anticipated the dress needs for their little ones, many have been delayed by one cause or another in making their purchases until now, while scores of other needs will be discovered when preparing the children for school.

Looking Backward

Thirty-five Years Ago—Items From the Chief of September 17, 1886.

Miss Cordie Sherer will attend the State University this year.

J. H. Kellogg & Co.'s new brick building is booming right along.

Miss Caroline Newhouse left Monday for Lincoln to attend the State University.

This week we publish proposals for bids for the erection of the new Odd Fellows Hall.

J. W. Moon is in the city superintending the erection of his new brick block which will be under headway soon.

County Clerk Bailey, Judge McKeighan, J. L. Kaley and a large number of other Red Cloud citizens attended the state fair this week.

A. J. Kenney and A. S. Marsh were over to Salem recently in the interest of our city in relation to the Missouri Pacific extension.

The consecration of Grace Episcopal Church of this city by Bishop Worthington took place Tuesday with appropriate ceremonies.

Our Chinese Laundry is now open and ready for business. Wing Lee is the handsome proprietor while John Win will assist with the "washee" business.

John Storey, who for many years has been the trusted employe of Henry Cook, has been promoted by Mr. Cook to manager of the City Pharmacy.

Charley Hunter, congressman from Inavale, is the proud possessor of a male heir. The board didn't pass a resolution congratulating Charley but the Chief thinks they should have done so.

Dr. L. H. Beck, well known in this city and for several months connected with Henry Cook's City Pharmacy, has located at Riverton. The doctor steps into a good practice, Dr. Stapleton having decided to go west to engage in the drug business.

The numerous friends of Hank Wauer living north of this city gave himself and family a genial and lusty housewarming on last Monday night. Henry has just erected a fine new dwelling house and it was thought only just to commemorate the event in a proper manner as he is one of the pioneers of the county.

The business outlook for Red Cloud is indeed encouraging from the present outlook. With ten new store rooms going up, all rented, and then to think there are not enough store rooms to fill the wants of those who are seeking business locations in our city.

Thirty Years Ago—From The Chief of September 11th, 1891.

Robert Potter is home from Billings, Montana.

Will Tulley is home again from the north-west.

Ward Bloss, of Wisconsin, a friend of J. H. Bailey's was in the city last week.

John and Charlie Dickerson and Tom L. Wilson were taking in the state fair.

John Dickerson is rolling around over our street on his new safety bicycle.

Mrs. A. C. Hosmer and daughter Ethel were in Lincoln this week the guests of Mrs. A. L. Funk.

C. Wiener, our popular clothing merchant has just furnished the fire department with a fine new outfit of suits.

Walter Warren is home from Ogden where he has been for some time past. He had quite a serious attack of rheumatism but is getting better.

Will West and Will Yeiser are raising a very fine crop of down on their upper lip, that in time (a long time) will be an undergrowth for a mustache.

Several railway scrapers etc. belonging to J. N. McDowell's outfit passed through Red Cloud this week. Our reporter hopes another railroad may be in sight.

Married at Red Cloud, Nebraska, September 1st, 1891, by D. F. Truskey, county judge, Mr. Eelert G. Bargman and Miss Bertha E. Shuts, both of Webster County.

Alfred Hadell while engaged in draping the store of which he is manager, had the step ladder to give way beneath him Monday precipitating him to the floor. In the fall he fell on his back across the ladder which came near being fatal. However we are glad to learn that he will recover. It was a close call for him.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it. They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons!

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

FARMERS' ELEVATOR

This afternoon Herb Ludlow had a collision, about six miles north of this city, with a car driven by man from Trumbull. Mr. Ludlow, his wife and daughter sustained some bad scratches and the occupants of the other car were badly injured, the driver received a deep gash in his neck and his daughter sustained a dislocated shoulder. Both cars were badly damaged.

How to Tell.
It is quite easy to tell how long a man has been married by the way he speaks to his wife. If he says "My darling wife," that means three months; "wifey," six months; "the wife," one year; "Mrs. Blank," two or three years; "the missus," five or six years; "mother," seven years; "my better half," ten years; "the old lady," twenty years; "grandma," twenty-nine years; "Mrs. Blank," forty-two years; "Jane," fifty years.—Portland Oregonian.

Chinook Language.
The Chinook language is a jargon of Indian, French, English and other words, named after the Chinook Indians of the Columbia river in the state of Washington and in British Columbia. It was once much used by traders and Indians in that region, but is now nearly abandoned. Gill's "Dictionary of Chinook Jargon" was published in Portland, Ore., in 1891, and Boas' "Chinook Texts" in the Smithsonian report of the bureau of ethnology at Washington in 1894.

Theocratic Government.
Theocracy was the name given to a system of government by ecclesiastical authorities, professedly in the name of and under the direction of heaven itself. The priests claimed to rule under the immediate sovereignty of God, and the revelations announced as coming from the deity were given out as the civil law of the state. The people of ancient Israel were under such a government from the time of the Exodus until the accession of King Saul.

Ultimate Literature.
Criticism is the youngest of all the literary forms. It will perhaps end by absorbing all the others. It is admirably suited to a very civilized society with rich memories and long traditions. It is particularly appropriate to a curious, learned and polite humanity. For its prosperity it demands more culture than any of the other literary forms.—Anatole France.
