ANOTHER ROAD HOWL

Superior, Nebraska
October 8, 1921
Red Cloud Commercial Club,
Red Cloud, Nebr.

Gentlemen:
The road between Red Cloud and Superior is in mighty bad shape. It has been in poor condition practically all summer. We have endeavored to bring pressure that might remedy this road, but to the present date we have not succeeded.

I am wondering if we could get together and perhaps bring some remedy that would be of mutual benefit to all concerned. My suggestion would be that we call a road meeting at either Red Cloud or Superior, or some point half way between. We could get our commissioners together from both places and see if we could, perhaps, get this road in better shape.

I would like to have an expression from you as to whether you have any plans or whether you think that this tentative plan that I suggest would be of value.

Yours Truly,
Ford Harper
Secretary.
