

A Newspaper That Gives The News Fifty-two Weeks Each Year For $1.50

VOLUME 49

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA, NOVEMBER 17, 1921

NUMBER 6

Photographs

Do You Need Any This Fall?

Now is a good time to get them as we are making a

Special Price of $6.00 and $7.00

A DOZEN--FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY.

See The Styles in The Street Case

THE GLEASON STUDIO
Red Cloud

Good Values

CERTAINLY you want the lowest price on all your purchases. We are going to give you this help when making your purchases at our store.

Remember our store the next time your wants are in our line.

We are after your business.

J. C. MITCHELL
The Jeweler Grafanolas and Records

Better Service

In order to meet the demands of our patrons we have re-arranged our store and are now in a position to give better service and individual attention to your wants.

Leave Your Orders Early

Our customers can assist us greatly if they will leave their orders early. This gives us time for careful attention, considerate handling, eliminating errors.

We Meet all Competition

We wish to emphasize the fact that we positively pay the highest market price for your produce---meeting all competition.

The Farmers Union
RED CLOUD, NEBR.

Legion Banquet a Success Armistice Day Celebration at Inavale Pleased People

Last Thursday evening about forty five of the American Legion met at the Powell & Pope Cafe at eight o'clock where they enjoyed a banquet given in honor of the new members.

The "feed" which was gotten up for them attests the ability of Messrs. Powell and Pope and all present spoke highly of it. The organization then adjourned to the I. O. O. F. hall where Mr. S. Hardman was the principal speaker. His talk was very appropriate for the occasion and was greatly appreciated by them, after which several new members were given the ritual work of the order and a few "side degrees" the latter furnishing a great deal of amusement for all present. This organization expects to have several prominent men of the city deliver interesting talks at their meetings throughout the winter and also have several new members which will be initiated at their next meeting.

Field Being Cleared for Tomorrow's Foot Ball Game

Clear the field! Let the band play! Here they come! The Red Cloud all stars and the famous Red Cloud American Legion foot ball team!!! They are all here ladies and gentlemen. The most remarkable array of death defying, short winded, would-be foot ball heroes in America.

The disarmament conference is losing the public eye. It fades into insignificance. Forgotten are the great foot ball games of the past. The moon stands still, the winds moan, the sun hides its face. You can't blame the moon, for Ike Johnson, that famous piano sellin', picture framin', victrola peddlin', Ike, is going to play full back!!!! Leaving the beauties of the furniture store on Main street Ike is going to defy death on the field of battle, pardon us, we mean Hedge field. And gathered about the famous star will be seen an array of talent never before seen outside of the famous State Institution at Lincoln. We can't say which one.

Friday will be a great day in Red Cloud. The doctors will be present in a body. They may have several bodies before the day is over. The coaches, hearses, ambulances, etc. will be furnished by the local undertaking parlor, and the mourners will be present at two bits a throw.

It will be a great show. The full backs will be full. The half backs will be half full, and the quarter backs will be awful.

There will be no rifles, shot guns, second hand cats, dogs, or cabbages, allowed on the field. All those having over ripe eggs will please leave them at Weener's, he saves em'.

Forget your troubles, come to the greatest game of all history and root for your old favorite. At Hedge field Friday at 3 p. m.

P. E. O.'S ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. C. P. POPE

On last Saturday afternoon the Ladies' Club entertained the P. E. O. at the home of Mrs. C. P. Pope.

The reception committee was composed of Misses Vela Swartz, Elsie Post, Mrs. Mary Mitchell and Mrs. Glen Stetson.

The Club's regular program was carried out and the members responded to roll call with current events on the lesson topic. It was an afternoon of instruction on "James Barrie." The lesson was carefully conducted by Mrs. Stockman.

In addition to the works and general life of the author, the play, "What Every Woman Knows" was discussed in detail.

Miss Post gave a reading from the book, "The Little Minister," entitled "Description of the Flood in Thrums." A committee composing Miss Ella Stonebreaker, Mrs. Maynard and Mrs. Breakey assisted Mrs. Pope in serving a dainty two course supper. The whole afternoon was an enjoyable affair.—Commercial Advertiser.

County Attorney H. S. Foe was attending to some legal business in Burlington, Colorado, the last of the week.

The Armistice Day celebration held at Inavale last Friday was a success in every detail. The fronts of the stores were decorated and a large crowd was present to enjoy the festivities of the day.

At 11:02 the American Legion members together with their firing squad and the color bearer marched to the flag pole where the firing squad fired three volleys in honor of the unknown hero who was buried at the Arlington cemetery that morning after which Paul Polnicky sounded taps, and Dr. Martin, Commander of Post 238, delivered an address part of which is as follows:

"As the Fourth of July will always be associated with waving flags, fireworks and a general rejoicing because of the Declaration of Independence; as Memorial Day has been set aside for the decoration of the graves of our departed heroes; so Armistice Day should be perpetuated in that manner which will best preserve the memories of the events and incidents of November 11th, 1918.

When the announcement was made to the Armies of the World which for four years had been struggling in a death-grapple, back and forth over the scarred and barren no-man's land, the men in all armies thanked God. And then the realization of what the Armistice really meant burst upon their senses,—the hilarity, ravelry knew no bounds.

The evening of the great day found the men gathered around the campfires, regretful of the partings that peace would bring, and pledging to preserve forever the comradeship which only those could know who together had shared into the eyes of death, the comradeship which knew no distinction of rank or race, or wealth. And this same spirit of pride, thanksgiving and affection animated the men in training camps and the civilian populations of all Allied Lands.

Coming all memories of the first great Armistice Day, on this the third anniversary of that great event, the nation does honor to those who gave their all with no thought of reward or praise, unselfishly and unknown, and at this hour the man who served and sacrificed, unknown, will be tenderly laid to rest in the National Shrine at Arlington.

And so the American Legion asks every community to do honor to this great anniversary first, by solemn services of praise and thanksgiving. Then let the afternoon be set aside for incidents of festal rejoicing, and as the twilight hour approaches the darkness of the night, let all those who were united in a common work during the war gather round their respective campfires, there to renew the comradeship of the war, thus to perpetuate and preserve the memories and incidents of their service, pledging and dedicating themselves anew to the great work for which their departed comrades gave their lives."

He closed his address by giving the Pramble of the American Legion which is as follows:

"For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the auto-racer of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

The ex-service men, while waiting for dinner, participated in sports, foot racing, etc. Rev. Newland entered speed contests with some of the Inavale boys, and despite his very stationary appearance, was victorious. The feed, which was a barbecue consisted of soup, roast beef sandwiches, coffee and pickles. The men who are responsible for the splendid manner in which all were entertained are certainly to be congratulated. Afternoon sports were races by boys, girls and men, the principal event being a potato-race. The Legion members and all the rest of the people present were well pleased with the day's program and the royal manner they had been entertained by the Inavale citizens.

Alarm Clocks

A new stock of Westclox Alarms

BIG BENS
SLEEPMETERS
BABY BENS
AMERICAS

We Make 'Quality' Right--Then the Price Right

E. H. Newhouse

Red Cloud Jeweler and Optometrist Nebraska

It's Underwear Time Now

Save Money on Your Winter Underwear

Special Heavy Fleece

$1.25

AND

$1.50

Coopers Wool Unions at

33 1/3 %

Less

Than Last

Season

Boy's Special Fleece Union, Extra good, at 85c

See our new display of Overcoats
$18.00-$18.50 and $22.50

The Cowden Kaley Clothing Co.

"Always Reliable"

THE KIND OF STATIONERY YOU USE tells the whole story of your business career. Write your letters on Hammermill Ripple Bond, correctly printed at the Chief office. It creates a favorable impression.