BE PRACTICAL

The young man in love often goes into raptures about "the blue of the sea in her eyes and the golden haze of autumn in her hair;" but remember this, young man—SHE'LL EAT just the same as any other healthy girl.

Therefore, get down to practical affairs. Save your money, deposit it in a good reliable bank like ours and get ready to own a home for you and the girl and to provide the three square meals a day that you will both need as long as you live. You know when poverty comes in at the door, love sometimes flies out at the window.

American Legion Post 238
Elects Officers

On Wednesday evening the local American Legion Post held an interesting meeting at the Commercial Club rooms which will be their headquarters for the coming year. All the members of the Post are entitled to the rights of the Club rooms for the ensuing year.

Clare Pope, on behalf of Powell & Pope, presented the Legion that beautiful picture of the Coliseum at Rome after which H. S. Fox made the speech of acceptance for the Post.

The Adjutant was also instructed to purchase a new silk American flag.

A committee of three was appointed to make arrangements for holding an indoor carnival in the near future.

The following were re-elected officers for the ensuing year:

- Commander, Dr. R. S. Martin.
- Vice Commander, G. R. Beck.
- Adjutant, A. B. McArthur.
- Finance Officer, Harry Yost.
- Sergeant at Arms, Paul Polidori.
- Chaplain, Charles Pichler.
- Color Bearers, Chester Roberts and Bert Anderson.
- Sergeant Firing Squad, Everett Stroup.

Injured at Republican City

John Hayes and four other men, members of a bridge gang working near Republican City, had a very narrow escape from death when the car left the right of way south of that city Wednesday afternoon.

Hayes, however was the only member of the party injured, he being thrown under the wheels of the car and badly crushed.

He was immediately removed to the Alma Hospital, where Drs. Bartlett and Kerr did what operations were necessary. He is at present resting as well as could be expected.

Mr. Hayes home is at Red Cloud, Nebraska.—Alma Record.

Many Hear Sacred Cantata

The Sacred Cantata, "The Angelic Chorus," sung by the Community Chorus, Sunday evening, in the M. E. church was given to a capacity house, with many standing and some turned away from the door.

People came from Cowles, Bladen and Inavale to hear this first number of the week's program of Christmas activities.

The music was beautiful and uplifting, as is always a service of song. The special solo parts were unusually fine; the orchestral accompaniment was very noticeable throughout the whole evening, and the pianist, Jessie Crabbill, was at her best. Mrs. F. R. Hughes, director, spent many hours practicing the Chorus for this great musical success, and should feel amply repaid for the great amount of praise given it.

The secret of Christmas joy is not in getting but in giving, not so much to those who have, as to those who need.
Red Cloud music lovers surely gave the people a treat in this great cantata and it met their needs appropriately.
Christmas should be a time when the whole being is filled with holy aspirations and sincere desires to honor Christ by making the anniversary of His birth deeply significant to those with whom we associate.

The most impressive song of all, to the writer's mind, was "Mary's Manger Song". Mary's heart was touched with the Holy Spirit, and her lips moved with thanksgiving and sweet gratitudes to God for his great gift. Hear the angels singing, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men". His was the only birth ever celebrated by an angel choir. The echoes of that song still ring clear and sweet over many lands and the joy that gladdened the shepherds' hearts is experienced by all who give Him a welcome into their own hearts and lives, who rejoice in the celebration of His birthday anniversary because of their association with Him, in His work of redemption.

CLEVER CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Business Ladies' Club held a very clever Christmas party in the Odd Fellow hall on Tuesday evening.
They had a real Christmas tree and also the Madonna and cradle. The hall was tastefully decorated in Poinsettias and bells, and the long table was trimmed with velvet Poinsettias and red candles. An excellent program was rendered, the first being the singing of "Silent Night," by the quartet composed of Misses Rachel Cowden, Lydia Traut and Ruby Koon and Mrs. Clara Walker. Mrs.
Geo. Kaley gave the "Christmas Story" in her usual excellent manner and Miss Yola Swartz gave a fine Christmas reading. Miss Ruby Koon sang a vocal solo, while the quartet gave two other selections. Brick ice cream, angel food cake and chocolate was served and a fine time reported by all present.

MORE FUNDS NEEDED
FOR COMMUNITY TREE

At the meeting of the committee for the Community Christmas tree festival last evening, it was found that they were running short of funds and everybody is asked to give freely. It was voted that any money remaining after the expenses of this occasion are paid will be turned over to the local Red Cross, to be used for the needy in this vicinity. The plans are perfectly completed and there is no question but that the affair will be a grand success.

TO THE EX-SERVICE MEN

A. B. McArthur, adjutant of Post 238, American Legion, states that he has several state certificates belonging to the ex-service men of Red Cloud and Inavale and they are requested to call immediately and get theirs, at his office or the same are liable to "go west" soon.

To My Patrons

All those who owe me for work done are requested to see me at once and settle their accounts. All accounts not paid by January 1, 1922 will be given to my attorney for collection as I expect to leave the city at that time.
