- Vice President, F. W. Cowden.
- Treasurer, W. A. Sherwood.

Business Women's Club Entertains Teachers

About sixty-five were present at the Business Women's Club last night to help entertain the teachers of the Red Cloud schools.

The hall was appropriately decorated with strings of cupids, arrows and hearts.

Three large tables were set in as near a heart shape as possible and decorated with hearts, cupid dolls, red candles and beautiful flowers.

Angel food cake, brick ice-cream with a red heart in the center and coffee was served.

Greetings to each guest was found on the back of the heart place-cards. These were in the nature of a fortune told for each one.

Miss Hatt's Christian was toastmistress for the happy occasion. She humorously introduced each speaker and stated that as hearts were the symbol of Valentine, she hoped all their hearts would beat in unison tonight and that all would respond in happy mood.

Miss Mary Peterson, as president of the Business Women's Club, greeted the teachers in a splendid manner. Miss Nina Simmons, as president of the Teacher's Club, gave a response, an appreciation of the evening's pleasure and entertainment.

Mrs. Barbara Phares gave a toast to the teachers, praising them for their hard work and the ideals for which they stand, ending with a humorous piece of poetry. Mrs. B. W. Steward gave a responding toast to the Business Ladies. Mrs. Oliver Powell gave a witty toast on hearts. Miss Post toasted diamonds, saying that hearts were usually more valued than diamonds, but yet most girls liked the latter best. The two were not luckily found together. Mrs. Ed Garber toasted spades. The business woman spades and digs each day and truly enjoys an occasion like this. Clubs were spoken of in general by Miss Ducker. Especially was this one commended.

This whole occasion was pronounced the whitest, most original and clever of any heretofore on the calendar of this club. The teachers were loud in praise of their entertainment.

The "500" Club was splendidly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Garber on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Cather, of Holyoke, Colorado, who were former members of this club.

Twenty-eight guests sat down to a three-course turkey dinner, served at 7 o'clock.
