WILL BE HERE NEXT THURSDAY

All preparations for the Thirty-first Annual Trade Extension Trip of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce have been completed, according to an announcement of John W. Jenkins III, Chairman of the Trade Extension Committee, today.

Everything is in readiness for the special train of twelve cars which will carry one hundred and twenty-five prominent business men of Kansas City—manufacturers, wholesalers, bankers, grain and live stock men—on the seven day trip through Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado and Kansas, starting Wednesday night May 10. This special train will arrive in Red Cloud May 11. Red Cloud will be one of the sixty-nine towns to be visited.

Nothing has been spared to make this tour a success. The men on the trip are the leaders in their respective lines. They are going out from Kansas City "to meet old friends and make new ones" in Kansas City's trade territory. These Kansas City men are going out to look over the territory and to see how Kansas City can cooperate with the business men in this territory in a mutual way.

The itinerary was chosen after three separate committees had selected routes, all three of which covered practically the territory finally selected—a very fine compliment to the towns on this year's trip.

That the business men of Kansas City were pleased with the territory selected was evidenced by the promptness with which reservations were made after the trip was announced.

Twenty thousand sheep bells for distribution to the school children, yellow sateen umbrellas for the individual trippers, and special head gear are all ready. A staff photographer will accompany the trip to take pictures at every stop.

A feature of every stop will be the parade of trippers, headed by the twenty piece band, from the train to the center of the business section where a concert will be given while the members of the party call upon the business men of the town in their places of business. In addition to sheep bells, literally tons of advertising novelties will be carried by the individual trippers for distribution enroute.

The party will be headed by Edw. O. Faeth, President of the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, and John W. Jenkins III, Chairman of the Trade Extension Committee of the Chamber. Honorable Frank H. Cromwell, Mayor will be the official representative of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hauck returned home Saturday evening from Coffeyville, Kansas where they spent a few days with their parents.

The Polly base ball league will open the season Sunday. Upland will be here to play the home team. The game is called for 3 p. m.

A BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF AMERICAN PAINTINGS

At the Baptist church Thursday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock, the hand-painted slides showing the work of our American artists will be shown. These slides are very beautiful.

This is indeed a real treat for the people of Red Cloud. The ladies of the Delphian Society are assured by the state chairman of art that though these slides are in constant demand and are sent into every state in the union they have none of them ever been shown in Red Cloud.

While the pictures for Tuesday night were selected with their educational value chiefly in view, to show the development of art, the pictures to be shown Thursday evening are all beautiful pictures and will be enjoyed by every one.

In addition to the slides of American paintings masterpieces of the world will be shown. These slides failed to arrive in time for the entertainment Tuesday evening, but are here now and this insures a fine program for Thursday evening.

The admission price is 25 cents.

On Friday evening at the Baptist church a special showing of some of the best of the pictures secured for the Tuesday and Thursday evening entertainments will be shown for the benefit of the pupils of the public school.

The pupils of the Red Cloud School have shown their interest in good pictures in purchasing pictures for their school rooms and the ladies of the Delphian Society are very glad to give them the opportunity of seeing such a very fine collection Friday evening. The admission will be 10 cents. Time 8 o'clock.
