Groceries and Queensware

If it's worth printing at all— it's worth printing well!

Nothing gives a business concern a "Cheap John" appearance as quickly as the use of poorly done printing. A concern is judged by the appearance of their place of business and by the class of correspondence and the kind of advertising matter used. Since the success of any business institution depends upon the impression made upon the public the necessity of using only the very best printing is obvious.

It costs as much to do a job poorly as to do it right

We are prepared to handle high grade commercial printing of all kinds and enjoy doing work for those who are particular about their printing and want it right.

FARM BUREAU NOTES STOCK JUDGING

(By Henry R. Fausch, County Agent) As per schedule Webster county boys and girls participated in the third annual Stock Judging contest. Twenty members of the Calf and Pig Clubs took part in the contest.

M. B. Posson, Animal Husbandry specialist of Lincoln was in charge. The contest was conducted as follows: Each contestant was numbered and he was known to the judge by number and not by name. Mr. Posson would use a good individual for describing the different parts of the animal. Then a class of four animals were brought out for a practice, following this two more classes of four animals each were brought out for contest and on one of these classes oral reasons on placing the class were required. Reasons counted 50 and placing 50 points.

The above method was used on cattle, sheep, hogs and horses. The five stock used for contest were on the farms of Henry Fausch, Auld and Johnston, H. H. Crowell and W. E. Thorne.

Following is the score of the contestants. Eugene White 727 out of a possible 800, Cecil Means 690, Oscar Lea 706, Albert Vance 663, Logan Ohmstede 516, Spencer Vance 639, Lorimer Edson, 633, Robert Overing, 620, Harold Koertner 616, Amelia Steward 612, Howard Means 605, Earl Woodward, 576, Gilbert McMahon 567, Chas. McMahon 564, Edgar Amack 563, Harry Fishel 538, Oscar Ramey 536, Gilbert Lundstedt 515, Allen Vaughan 513, James Simpson 233.

High contestants in cattle are: 1st, Oscar Lea, 2nd Cecil Means, 3rd, Eugene White, 4th Spencer Vance and 5th Logan Ohmstede.

High contestants in hogs are: 1st Eugene White, 2nd Oscar Lea, 3rd Albert Vance, 4th Amelia Steward and 5th Cecil Means.

High contestants in sheep are: 1st Eugene White, 2nd Lorimer Edson, 3rd Logan Ohmstede, 4th Cecil Means, 5th Harold Koertner.

High contestants in horses are: 1st Eugene White, 2nd Cecil Means, 3rd Oscar Lea, 4th Logan Ohmstede, 5th Albert Vance.

The six highest contestants will compete in another contest at the Webster County Fair held at Bladen August 22nd and 25th. The three highest of six will represent Webster county at the Nebraska State Fair September 2nd and 6th. All of the members are invited to attend judging practice even if they are not six highest. This is very valuable and useful work even if you do not make the team.

Guide Rock Community Club gave a banquet for Club members Thursday evening, June 6th. M. B. Posson who was in charge of the judging contest was the main speaker. Needless to say the club members enjoyed the feed.

Lutheran Church

Regular services every first and third Sunday in the month in the Adventist church, corner Third and Walnut.

Coming Sunday, June 18, local services will be dropped in favor of the Diamond Anniversary observance of Synod which will take place in Prospect Park near Hastings. All congregations within a radius of seventy miles have been invited.

The history of the Missouri Synod begins with a number of conscientious Christians who emigrated from Germany on account of pietism, rationalism and also the religious intolerance practiced by many of the German rulers. Their party consisted not only of Saxon weavers and stocking makers, but there were among them merchants, men of the medical profession, jurists, officers of the civil government, painters etc., numbering approximately 750 men, women and children. Many of these emigrants left their homeland at considerable sacrifice of material advantages.

After their arrival in America their faith spread rapidly. In place of the German that the founders employed almost exclusively we find her missionaries now preaching the Gospel of Christ in seventeen languages. Together with other Synods of like faith in every respect she now represents the largest Lutheran body in the world.

Two services will be held in Hastings, in the forenoon at 10:30 and in the afternoon at 2:30. The public is invited to both.—O. E. Heintz, Pastor.

Notice of Application for Pool Hall License.

Notice is hereby given that on the 5th day of June 1922, W. E. Burwell filed his application and petition asking for license to conduct a Billiard and pool Hall on Lot Fifteen (15), Block 12, in the Village of Inavale, Nebraska. That on the 3rd day of July 1922 at the Court House in Red Cloud, Nebraska at 2 o'clock P. M. the hearing on said application will be had before the County Commissioners of Webster County, Nebraska, at which time all objections and remonstrances against the granting of said license will be heard.
