Groceries and Queensware

If it's worth printing at all-- it's worth printing well!

Nothing gives a business concern a "Cheap John" appearance as quickly as the use of poorly done printing. A concern is judged by the appearance of their place of business and by the class of correspondence and the kind of advertising matter used. Since the success of any business institution depends upon the impression made upon the public the necessity of using only the very best printing is obvious.

It costs as much to do a job poorly as to do it right

We are prepared to handle high grade commercial printing of all kinds and enjoy doing work for those who are particular about their printing and want it right.

Milo S. Martin Laid at Rest

Milo S. Martin was born in Whitley county, Indiana, on the 17th day of May 1848. There he grew to manhood, and in the year 1869 was united in marriage with Miss Emaline Young, a union that was continued for a period of 43 years, ending in the month of August, 1912.

To this union there was given five children, all of whom are still living, and all permitted to be present at this service. The names of the children are—Mrs. Eva Hughes, Lawton, Iowa; Mrs. Minnie Essig, of Heartstong, Colorado; Mrs. Maud Hedge, of Red Cloud; Archie F. Martin, of Hastings, and John L. Martin, of Red Cloud.

About seven years after the decease of his wife Mr. Martin was united in marriage with Mrs. Annie Bomford, whose loving and efficient ministry during his long period of suffering proved a blessing beyond measure.

In the year 1892 Mr. Martin came to Nebraska, residing for about a year at Guide Rock, then coming to the vicinity of Red Cloud, where the home remained until three years ago when the family removed to Colorado, there, until recently living upon a ranch. A few months ago they took up their residence in the town of Vernon, on account of Mr. Martin's declining health.

In early life Mr. Martin became a member of the Baptist church, transferring his connection to the Baptist church of Red Cloud, where his membership has since remained. He was never demonstrative in religious matters, but was uniformly true to the word of God as he understood it, having little patience with those who denied or sought to explain away the force of the truth he had so fully believed. He was very conversant with the policy and practices of his church, and deplored any departure from established forms and customs. The years of trial through which he passed, and the extreme suffering of the last year exerted a refining influence upon his christian life and he gave abundant testimony that he was ready to depart to be with Christ. The end came on the afternoon of the 16th day of June, 1922, his age being 74 years and 30 days.

In addition to the surviving widow and the children as stated, there are present two brothers of the deceased, Warren W. Martin and Stephen A. Martin of Columbia City, Indiana. They have come a long way given expression to their filial love and regard, and we, who so well knew the departed husband, father, and brother, join with them in the expression of our sympathy.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. I. W. Edson assisted by Rev. F. J. Newland.

A Sunday School Aid

The international Sunday School lessons which are appearing regularly in The Chief are prepared by Rev. P. B. Fitzwater, D. D., teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and are read, studied and appreciated by thousands of Bible students in all parts of the country, the lessons being syndicated to hundreds of papers.

These lessons are prepared from a non-sectarian point of view, and may be used by attendants of all Sunday schools which use the uniform international texts.

The lessons are published in advance of the date of use, therefore should be preserved when the paper comes.

These lessons have been a big help to superintendents when the regular supply of leaflets has failed to arrive on time, and are especially appreciated by those who for any reason are unable to attend regularly.

Don't Fill It.

A hot-water bottle should never be really filled. If it is to be put in a bed to warm it have it only about three-quarters full.
