Farmers Union Picnic

The Webster County Farmers Union will hold their annual picnic at Cowles Friday, August 4th.
Mr. Barrett, National President of the Farmers Union, and C. J. Osborn, State President, will be the principal speakers for the event while there will be plenty of music, readings and sports to complete the program.

Ellen Marie McCallum Dies

Ellen Marie, aged 3 years, 4 months and 3 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCallum, residing south of Blue Hill, passed away Wednesday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, in this city.
The little one had been suffering from tonsillitis for a few weeks and underwent an operation, after which complications set in which resulted in her demise. Funeral services were held this afternoon, Rev. Cope in charge, after which interment was made in the Plainview cemetery.

Red Cloud Defeats Inavale.

Sunday afternoon the Inavale team, who has joined the Polly League, and the local team crossed bats on the Starke diamond. The visiting team did not put up the usual hard fight they have heretofore staged when playing here and were outclassed thruout the game. Red Cloud won by a score of 8 to 0. Leonard and Bean was the battery for Inavale, Leonard striking out 5; Slaby was on the mound for us and struck out 7 while Pichler did the catching.

Another player Rex Relihan, who plays in centerfield, made his debut with the local team and he no doubt will strengthen the team both at the bat and in the field.
Blue Hill comes here next Sunday.

Prizes Awarded In Flower Contest.

The "Plant Zenias" campaign which was instituted in this city by the local P. E. O. society, resulted in many beautiful gardens of these flowers by those who believe in making their homes more beautiful. A contest was conducted for the children. E. J. Overing, Mrs. Damerell and Rev. Bates were appointed judges and they judged the gardens and made the following awards:

Marguerite Hadell, 1st, $3.00.
Frances Jones, 2nd, $2.00.
Helen Schultz, 3rd, $1.00.
We hope this organization conducts another campaign next summer.

Red Cloud Chautauqua Opened Wednesday.

Red Cloud's Chautauqua opened Wednesday afternoon under very flattering conditions with the Howard Quintet musical program. These musicians are past masters in their art, and those who are lovers of good music and missed the opening number, were deprived of an excellent treat.

In the evening after an excellent prelude by the Howard Quintet lasting about thirty minutes, they were followed with an excellent address by Dr. Hulbert, for years Envoy Extraordinary of the Emperor of Korea. Dr. Hulbert came with a message to Red Cloud's Chautauqua Wednesday evening of exceeding interest and value in these days when the "East" is so largely in the public mind. Few men speak with such authority and from so deep and intimate a knowledge of facts, none more eloquently.

BAND CONCERTS CEASE FOR LACK OF SUPPORT

The band boys met last evening and decided to refund to the City Council their donation of $50.00, since they were unable to raise, among the business men, a sufficient additional amount necessary for the financial support of the continuation of these apparently otherwise highly enjoyable entertainments. This is, indeed, a most regrettable state of affairs. From the viewpoint of old players available, as well as the instructor, the community was never more favorably blessed or the band much stronger than it is at this time. It is to be hoped that some means may be shortly devised whereby the small amount necessary for the resuming of these open air concerts may be forth coming.—Commercial Advertiser.

NEBRASKA'S GIFT MAY BE RETURNED

Steps to get back the $3,500 silver service which was presented by the people of Nebraska some fifteen years ago to the battleship bearing the state's name will be taken by Governor McKelvie. The vessel has been out of service for the last year or two as unsuitable for modern naval use.

A. F. Smith, head of an Omaha jewelry house, wrote to Mr. McKelvie that he had obtained information regarding the silver set through Senator Hitchcock, and learned that it is now in charge of the naval yard commandant at Mare Island, near San Francisco. Smith suggested that it would make a fine showpiece to adorn the governor's office.

The silver service consists of a punchbowl and other pieces such as might once have been in use on board naval vessels of the United States, but not since it became unlawful to serve liquor on them. It was bought with money collected by popular subscription about the time that the battleship Nebraska was completed and launched.

Governor McKelvie will write to the commandant of the navy yard at Mare Island, who has agreed to send the set if money is advanced to pay for its packing and expressage. He may not put it on display in his office, but will see that it is kept on hand so that it can be included with other state relics and trophies in the new capitol.—Lincoln Star.
