Farm Loans. Read This.

I am in the farm loan business and am making quite a success of it for various reasons. I have the very lowest rate of interest going and by all odds the best option offered. There is no delay in closing a loan, as it is practically closed the moment the application is made. I have certain advantages that enable me to save many of you from $20 to $30 in negotiating the loan. You get the entire face of the loan, as no portion of it is held out in advance.

Legion Gaining Members

Indications that the American Legion membership has become stabilized, and a healthy growth of the organization is indicated in the first 1923 reports from Nebraska's 333 posts received at headquarters. The Legion membership has been made permanent—“Once a Legionnaire, always a Legionnaire”—and members all over the country are showing a disposition to pay yearly dues with the same grace as other January 1 bills. It is expected that the Legion membership in Nebraska, approximately 20,000 for the last three years, will increase considerably this year. Men who were not members previously are signing up in large numbers this year, and reports of great enthusiasm are being received from the various posts.—Douglas County Legionnaire

The Chorus will meet Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Amack to continue work on the Story-Song, “The Pink Rose”. We wish to meet at 7:30 so that some time may be spent after the practice in a social way.
In another column of this paper will be found the program of the Music Recital as noted above. An offering will be lifted at the close of Recital.

Something to Think About
By F. A. WALKER

KNOW YOUR TALENT

THE first requisite in the life of the youthful, is to know his or her natural talent so that it may be intelligently developed and turned to profitable account.

Find the hole in which your peg fits without wabbling and keep it there. Do not move from pillar to post in quest of another, and you will enjoy more of what makes life valuable, glad as the years swing by that you have held firmly to your original intention.

Most of the failures in this work-a-day world are due to inefficiency, caused generally by shifting from one station to another and the woeful lack of fixed effort in the pursuit of a definite course.

You can never find the port you hope to reach if you persist in sailing your ship without compass and rudder. The tides and the winds will toss your precious craft into the open jaws of destruction or hurl it high and dry on the scowling rocks from which there is no likelihood of escape.

If you have a talent for painting, see that you produce pictures of beautiful themes and attractive colors; if your hand is deft in the use of tools, clasp the saw and the hammer and resolve that no one shall excel you.

You cannot overcome difficulties nor rise above the common level by lounging around in idleness, bemoaning your lot and envying the prosperous men and women climbing towards the hill-tops.

Whether you have one talent or five talents, there is but one medium through which you can achieve, and that is by hard, continuous work, holding steadfastly to your course and refusing to yield to discouragement.

There is in every person's life the crucial moment of choosing a permanent vocation, and when that is overcome, there remains nothing else to do but to drive straight ahead, determined to win an honorable destination.

To the men and women who are predisposed to loafing, given to stopping by the wayside to gather wild flowers when they should be tramping resolutely upon the highway, this scarcely forms an agreeable subject for meditation.

But these, as you may have already guessed, are they who have hidden their talent in a napkin and been crowded from the ranks of the successful, because of their own fickleness.

MESSENGERS

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

SOMEONE has said that thoughts are things—
I know each thought of mine,
Is like a bird with living wings
And pinions all a-shine.
I toss a thought upon the air,
As pigeon owners do—
No matter when, no matter where,
It hurries home to you!

O live each day with open heart
So, when my thought shall come
Across the miles we are apart,
It shall not find you dumb.
O live each day with open door,
Your heart's door open wide—
Some thought of mine is speeding o'er
The valleys that divide.

It bears a message all a-glow,
The message old and young.
The message men and maidens know
In every land and tongue;
It sweeps across the azure skies,
It darts across the dome,
And home to your heart it flies,
Because your heart is Home.

And may my bird, so fond, so fleet,
Upon its happy quest,
As it flies east another meet,
A pigeon flying west;
And, as they fall upon the blue,
Oh, may that pigeon be
A thought of yours, a thought as true,
A thought that flies to me!
