OUR LEGISLATURE

The present legislature has before it four bills to put a crimp in the motion picture business, the fifth largest industry in America. Censorship bill, that will not remove the causes for criticism against the more glaring faults of the pictures or the business. It will, however, add to the state pay roll and tax budget.

Another makes it imperative for the showman to run two shows, one for juveniles, and one for adults. A very sensible idea to prevent a mother attending picture shows with her children under 18, or children under 18 attending shows with a mother.

Another is aimed at Sunday picture shows, which of course adds greatly to the morality of communities, besides taking a little joy out of somebody's life.

Another bill is presented to add a 5% state tax on the gross revenue of each theatre. As the industry is already taxed to death by federal taxes it puts it up to the showman to quit business or pass the tax on to his patrons directly or to add it indirectly by increasing the price of his shows.

Whither are we tending in our legislative halls? Are we going to continue increasing taxation and restrictive measures, until people revolt and swing the pendulum as far to vice and excess, as certain elements are now trying to swing it in the other direction? Too much taxation and tyrannical law, made Russia red and Bolshevik.

Is it going to continue in this country until the specious arguments of the radicals will sound like common sense to the average American man?

All these bills are vicious and un-American in their intent, and should be defeated for the best interests of state and nation.

Every sane thinking citizen should work for the defeat of these bills, as they are unfair and un-American. They contribute nothing to the welfare of the state or community, and they do furnish hooks upon which the radical element of the nation base their arguments to tear down the structure of our form of government, the church, the home and everything dear to the heart of every right thinking American citizen.

The dam at the mill is finished. It should be a matter of congratulation that Red Cloud has now a far stronger and much more available water power than Kearney or any other city in the state. Red Cloud ought to and does feel jubilant over the result.

Allie Albright has his ups and downs, but his downs seem to be rather frequent judging by the way he sat down upon the street crossing the other morning. He picked himself up looked around to see if anyone was looking and then took to his heels at a lively rate.

We understand that Henry Cook has established a branch store at Cora, Kansas.

His Majesty, the ground hog, failed to see his shadow last Friday, February 2nd, and according to tradition spring weather will soon be here.

Red Cloud, the Sioux chief, was the guest of Professor Marsh, of Yale College. It is related in a New Haven paper that when a citizen there held out a box of cigars, saying, "take one," Red Cloud innocently helped himself to a bunch. "Will you have one?" continued the entertainer, addressing the Chief's companion, and the other Indian slipped the other bunch from the box into his ulster pocket.

The Chamber of Commerce was formally opened Monday night. There was a large attendance of the initial meeting and the organization promises to be a success right from the start. The Beitz orchestra furnished delightful music for the occasion which was greatly appreciated.

Sunday Services as follows:

10 a. m., Sunday School. Subject "The Spirit of Prayer."

11 a. m., Sermon: "Real and Apparent Values."

7:15 p. m. Service of Song and Story entitled, "The Pink Rose."

The Chorus will meet Saturday evening for the final rehearsal of "The Pink Rose" to be given Sunday evening. We will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagoner, at 7:30.

The Pink Rose service is a story of Mrs. E. M. Whittemore written by herself of her work in New York City and how thru the gift of a pink rose the life of a young lady was transformed leading to the saving of hundreds of others. The story is interspersed with eleven songs arranged by I. H. Meredith. The entire service is most impressive and inspiring.

If you have anything to sell or want to buy anything that you think your neighbor might have, say so on the Bulletin Board north of the Church.

Mother's Cook Book

Let me live in a house by the side of the road.
Where the race of men go by.
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong.
Wise, foolish; so am I.
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat?
Or hurl a cynic's ban?
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

SIMPLE GOOD THINGS

BEFORE the chestnuts are all gone prepare a few delicious dishes using a few cooked chestnuts.

Chestnut, Raisin and Apple Salad.
Take one cupful of seeded raisins, two cupfuls of boiled chestnuts, two cupfuls of apple, one-half cupful of large grapes and one-half cupful of French dressing. Cover the raisins with half of the dressing and let stand an hour. Mix the chestnuts (peeled of their brown skins) and diced apple with the rest of the dressing. Cut the grapes in half, remove the seeds and add to the other ingredients. Serve on shredded lettuce leaves.

Date and Coconut Sweets.

Take two cupfuls of dates, after stoning, one cupful of grated coconut, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of lemon juice and four tablespoonfuls of sugar. Put the dates through a meat chopper, add the salt and three-quarters of a cupful of the coconut, and the lemon juice. Mix the ingredients well; then form into round balls and roll in the remainder of the coconut and the sugar.

Fruit Sweets.

Take one cupful of figs, seeded raisins and dates, put through a meat chopper, add one tablespoonful of lemon juice and two of orange juice, with a pinch of salt. Mix well, take a small portion and form into a small oblong, roll in sugar and press half a walnut in the top; place in a dish dusted with sugar.

Whipped Cream Cake.

A simple, easy cake to make and serve, and one which the whole family will enjoy is this: Prepare a plain layer cake batter and bake in two tins. Whip a cupful of heavy cream until stiff, add three tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla. Spread over a layer and put on the second. Cover the top with the cream and garnish with candied cherries.

Golfers Cannot Overswing.

A leather device, to hold the arm in exactly the proper position while swinging, is now available for the aid of golfers anxious to improve their game. The device, described and illustrated in Popular Mechanics Magazine, is strapped to the left arm, and allows the arm to be bent backward the necessary distance, but prevents too much bending.

SCHOOL DAYS

THE Sarcophagus, or stone coffin, has been used by the more civilized peoples since the days of the early Egyptians. Its successor today is the Norwalk Vault. Luxuriantly carved and painted were the sarcophagi of the Greeks and Romans, but the Norwalk Vault of moulded granite combines quiet dignity with its rugged strength. Sealed by hand, within the grave it becomes one solid piece of eternally protecting masonry. For every funeral:
