CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

Never accept "Just as Good" Brands; it will only mean disappointments and failures on bake-day, which are expensive.

Calumet is a High Grade Baking Powder, Moderate in Price

When you use it you never spoil any of the expensive ingredients used—such as flour, sugar, eggs and milk.

The sale of Calumet is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

REMEMBERED HIS DEAD PET

Boy Who Kept Green the Memory of His Favorite Deserved to Have Christmas Tree.

After he had spent many minutes looking over the Christmas tree display of a Kings Highway (Brooklyn) store, a small boy approached the dealer and timidly asked how much the cheapest tree in the stock would cost, says the New York Sun.

"Fifty cents," replied the dealer, and then noting the look of disappointment in the boy's face, asked him if that was too much.

"Yes, sir," responded the youth. "I'm afraid it is. I've got only 25 cents, which I saved in my bank. You see, it's for my dog. He died three years ago and every Christmas I have set a tree on his grave in the back yard."

"Well, here's one you can have for 25 cents," said the dealer. The boy, with a light of gratitude spreading over his countenance, started away on a run, shouting back that he was going home to get his savings.

"Hey!" yelled the dealer. "Come back and get the tree. You needn't mind about your pennies."

Hands Tied.

The woman heard a long, an endless long sermon in a small country town where she was visiting upon a recent Sunday.

When it seemed as though the minister were about to stop he would beam upon the congregation, saying: "Now you will forgive me if I say a few words about this."

And so it went on and on, while from time to time he assumed that he would be forgiven for his long and (in his own opinion) enlightening talk.

But what could anyone do? Just sit still and let the minister believe that his assumption was correct!—New York Sun.

It is not always the head of the family that foots the bills.

Some men seem to be happy only when they have a grievance.

Work ill done must be twice done.

DYED HER DRAPERIES, SKIRT AND A SWEATER WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple that any woman can dye or tint faded, shabby skirts, dresses, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, hangings, draperies, everything like new. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is guaranteed, even if you have never dyed before. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak, spot, fade, or run. So easy to use.—Advertisement.

Spanish Wedding Custom.

Each man present at a Spanish wedding party is entitled to dance with the bride, but he must pay for this privilege—literally.

On a table in the center of the room is a pie and after each dance the bride's partner is expected to cut away a piece of the crust and drop a coin inside.

The bride usually wears a black silk gown and a lace mantilla—white only if her family is titled or very rich.

The Baron's Spirit.

Samuel Gompers said at Atlantic City:

"Coal is too dear. There is no doubt about it. The coal barons have no mercy on us."

"I heard the other day about an inventor who went to a coal baron and said:

"I have struck a marvelous invention, sir—an imitation coal that can be sold at half price."

"Bosh!" sneered the coal baron. "Haven't we got one already that we sell at full price?"

Vofuble.

Talkative.

"Your friend seems quite talkative."
"Yes. There's many a dull minute when he's about."

Hats for Between-Seasons;

Matched Sets in Lingerie

WHEN it comes to their millinery, women will always turn their backs on winter, long before it has bid them good-bye, and herald the spring before it begins to peep over the horizon. Just now they are buying between-seasons hats that have a more or less decided flavor of spring. Perhaps the showing of spring millinery, for southern tourists, in the shops, turns their thoughts and hearts springward, or economy suggests that a hat and prices as low, or lower, than they are likely to be at other seasons.

The displays of lingerie feature silks in garments that are a little showier than those made of fine cottons but not superior to them in any way. The same styles appear in both silk and cotton materials, and colors are duplicated in them. Silk has encroached upon cotton in popularity until it is a close rival, and will hold its own, if manufacturers do not sacrifice quality which can be worn in the future is a good investment.

Here is a group of four alluring hats made for present wear. It happens that they are all fabric hats—that is, shapes covered with a fabric of some kind. The lovely model at the top is of black satin with a facing of green satin and it is trimmed with grapes in several colors. Grapes, by the way, are in great favor—small ones in their natural colors. A wide-brimmed hat at the left, has a crown in four sections and an odd drape of printed silk across the

The envelope chemise remains the most important article in underthings, for, whatever other garments are worn, this one is never omitted. It is shown in both the trimmed and tailored styles and often with pants to match, as pictured here. This set is made of crepe de chine and has a trimming of narrow val lace insertion placed in parallel curved lines or arcs—a "rainbow" design. Little ribbon flowers are pinned, with tiny

"THEY SAID I HAD T. B. AND WOULD NOT LIVE THREE MONTHS"

Mr. Harold W. Schmidt, Box 88, Bross, Clinton Co., Ill., believes he has reason to praise Dr. Hartman's Remedy for Catarrhal conditions.

"I used Pe-Ru-na eight months for Chronic Bronchial Catarrh. I do not get tired, feel like a giant, am six pounds over normal weight and able to work every day. In March, 1915, I contracted a severe cold with swelling and took to my bed. They said I had T. B. and would not live three months. After taking a couple bottles of Pe-Ru-na and a box of Man-A-Sig Tablets, could walk around and in seven months went back to work. My trouble was due to Chronic Catarrh of the nose and throat, which I had ten years, extending down into the bronchial tubes. 'Pe-Ru-na' was my life saver."

"What kind of a man is he—good, bad, or indifferent?"

"Well, that depends a good deal on who is on the other end of the plank with him."

"What do you mean?"

"Well, if you size him up with Judas Iscariot he looms up middlin' fair; but when you come to set him down between such fellows as you an' me, he does dwindle terribly surprisin'—he does, for a fact."

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health.
