

Smyrna Gives Kemal Pasha a Joyous Welcome

This photograph depicts the joyous reception tendered to Mustafa Kemal Pasha by the Turkish residents of Smyrna who greeted the president of the grand national assembly of Turkey on his return to that city. The reception was followed by his marriage to a wealthy and prominent young woman.

France's Navy Helping in Occupied Region

This is the first photograph to reach here showing the French naval forces co-operating with the military in the occupied area of Germany. Some of the French naval men are shown arriving at Dusseldorf where they were dispatched at various points along the Rhine to safeguard France's interests.

Ambassador Warren Comes Home

Charles B. Warren, the retiring American ambassador to Japan, and his family photographed on their arrival in San Francisco from Tokyo.

Destroyed by the Irish Rebels

Having turned from assassination to arson the Irish republicans have destroyed many fine buildings. Here are the ruins of Palmerston, the residence of Lord Mayo, near Naas, County Kildare.

WORTH KNOWING

An intensely white enamel, resistant to acids to a degree hitherto unknown, has been developed to protect surfaces subjected to gas or fumes, such as are found in hospitals and chemical laboratories.

The American library in Paris, founded by the American Library Association after the World war, with books supplied to the American army, now has more than 20,000 standard works.

A South American Indian tribe is ruled by a woman whose every utterance is a word of law.

Rousselot, French Catholic priest, invented numerous devices for the recording of sound.

The British army is now engaged in a movement against flies. Cook-houses and other artificially-warmed places where flies are likely to go into winter quarters are being sealed and sulphur dioxide is pumped into the interior. The flies cannot escape or survive.

NEWS OF NEBRASKA IN CONDENSED FORM

Recent Happenings in Nebraska Given in Brief Items For Busy Readers.

The house has gone on record as being absolutely opposed to the use of the State owned automobiles for "Jofriding."

Sherman Spears of Stratton was shot through the cheek by a shotgun load during a coyote roundup in Hitchcock county.

A course in bible study has been installed in the Pawnee City schools and is proving popular. Local pastors are teaching.

A headquarters troop of Boy Scouts has been formed at Fremont with Henry Scherer as scoutmaster and Harry Webb as commander.

ANDREW M. MORRISEY of Lincoln, Chief Justice Nebraska Supreme Court.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hardenbrook celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home in Fremont last week.

Bentley will entertain several state conventions this spring, and is making arrangements to care for them in royal style.

Nearly 15,000 interested spectators were in attendance at the opening day of Omaha's big Auto show at the auditorium.

The large community hall, known as Wildcat hall, located 12 miles northeast of Constock, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

The 1923 state high school basketball tournament will be held in Omaha March 8, 9 and 10, and from indications it will be a hotly contested series.

Mistaking a can of gasoline for water resulted in the serious burning of Mrs. Van Conet and the complete destruction of the Conet home at New Bourrough.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Stephenson, 101, died at the home of her son, Edwin Z. Glass, in College View. Mrs. Stephenson came to Nebraska from Michigan 18 years ago.

Repeal of the rule prohibiting smoking and chewing on the grounds of the University of Nebraska is asked in a petition being circulated by persons said to represent the student body.

According to information received from Washington, Postmaster General Hubert Work has nominated Frederick Nielsen, a young man of Lexington, for appointment as postmaster.

Harley Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fischer was severely injured when he fell from a slide on the school grounds at Clay Center. Both legs were broken and many other injuries received.

Work has been started on the organization of various livestock clubs among the boys and girls of Custer county. The adopted slogan, "Sargent, the Heart of the Livestock Country," will soon be the watchword of every young stockman in the vicinity.

A record breaking egg reported by a Plattsmouth farmer. The egg was seven and a half inches around and eight and a half inches long. It was opened and another egg complete with a shell was disclosed on the inside. Both eggs were perfect in formation with the shells and yolks.

At a meeting of the Grand Island school board it was decided to build a junior high school building on the south side.

Twelve hundred men shot five wolves in a big hunt which covered more than eleven square miles of territory near Norfolk. Twelve wolves got away. The receipts of the hunt were voted to the Salvation Army.

George Ablon, who has been sought by his brother, Abe Ablon, since his disappearance from Omaha six weeks ago, was located at the state hospital for the insane at Lincoln where he was committed three weeks ago.

Anna Svoboda, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vachy Svoboda, living near Schuyler, was seriously injured and bruised, when attacked by a crazed cow that Mrs. Svoboda was trying to herd back into the farmyard after it had escaped from its pasture.

The new Nebraska capitol is unique in world architecture and probably will found a new style of building design which will be known as Nebraska style and upon which Nebraska public buildings in the future may be modelled," declares Dr. H. B. Alexander, professor of philosophy at the University of Nebraska.

Falls City is circulating petitions for a referendum on Sunday Movies.

Nebraska growers have marketed 75 per cent of their surplus potato crop.

Saunders county has decided to place 280 miles of highway under the patrol system.

The village of Adams has voted $18,000 bonds for the erection of a community auditorium.

Rural mail carriers of Red Willow and Hitchcock counties have organized a district association.

Falls City will pave more than thirty blocks the coming spring, and more districts are being created.

The village of Waco is installing a water works system which is expected to be ready for use about May 15.

A checker tournament held at Chappell resulted in Bigspring winning 47 games, Chappell 33 and 23 draw games.

For the fifth consecutive time Esther Stock Kroger has been elected secretary of the Kearney Chamber of Commerce.

More than 35,000 crows were killed during a month's competitive campaign between Antelope and Madison county hunters.

Elmer Root is dead at his home near Holmesville, after a deep slumber of a week, doctors assigning sleeping sickness as the cause.

Expenditures on buildings of more than $250,000 will be made in Columbus this summer, according to permits asked of the city council.

County Agent R. S. Scott of Sidney has resigned to accept employment with the extension department of the state college of agriculture.

Citizens of Fontanelle are now enjoying the benefit of a twenty-four hour a day electric service from the municipal plant at Fremont.

Increase in cattle receipts at the Omaha Union stockyards for January, 1923, was 40,958, according to a bulletin of the Stockyards National bank.

Citizens of Gibbon vicinity have petitioned the county board of supervisors to build a state aid bridge across the Platte river, south of Gibbon.

Arthur Snelting, 20 years old, was fatally injured near Seward, when, while repairing the belt in a tractor his arm was caught and torn off.

Stanton was threatened with destruction when the First Methodist church building was destroyed by fire. Five other buildings were on fire at one time.

Farmers are permitted to register their farms and their farm name with the secretary of state and to have an exclusive right to the name by a bill passed by the house.

Seven hundred members attended the fifteenth anniversary of the dedication of the Masonic temple at North Platte. It was the largest gathering in local Masonic history.

As Red Willow county's contribution to the near east relief, a thousand bushels of wheat were shipped to Omaha. The carload was brought in from all parts of the county.

Lewis James Loder, who came to Nebraska in a covered wagon in 1857 is dead at his home in Waverly. He moved to that vicinity a year later and had lived there ever since.

Everett T. Winter for four years county agent in Butler county, has resigned and has leased a large ranch in Holt county where he will move as soon as his successor is named.

A coal vein has been opened up on the Lusby farm near Auburn. The coal is of good quality, and is said to be better than that being shipped in. The vein is about a foot thick, but the miners believe that as they work farther under the nearby hill the vein will become thicker.

"Shut-ins" at the Nebraska penitentiary gave a show in the prison chapel for the benefit of the University of Nebraska stadium fund. Five hundred persons including many legislators, attended. The show, consisting of songs, choruses, skits, and playlets, was produced entirely by "shut-in" talent, who coached themselves, did their own casting, selected their music and even printed their own programs.

The mummy of a nobleman, who may have been attached to the family of Pharaoh, and which was brought to Nebraska at a cost of $5,000 by Rev. H. V. Boninger, formerly of Crawford, Neb., lies in a sarcophagus in the State University museum. The historical data relative to the find shows that the mummy was found in the royal burial ground of Thebes in upper Egypt in January, 1885, and that it probably belonged to the 18th or 19th dynasty, about the time of Ramesses II.

The Rev. John V. Bandy of Humboldt has been called to assist in the church college endowment at Pittsburg Pa., and the Rev. Mr. Chadwick of University Place is substituting at the Methodist church in his absence.

The fiftieth meeting of the Nebraska Press Association was held in Lincoln February 22-24. 132 visitors attended a banquet at the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday evening, at which Governor Bryan was the principal speaker. Representative W. H. O'Gara of Laurel, Senators Hastings of Grant and Wilcox of Richardson, and Speaker Mathers of the House gave short addresses.

Dr. Morris Nielsen, Blair was elected president of the Elkhorn Valley Medical association at the annual meeting held in Fremont. The new president succeeds Dr. Davies of Fremont. About 40 physicians were in attendance at the convention.

Farmers of Douglas county are organizing and taking steps to protect themselves against thieving and are determined to get the night prowler who robs their hen coops, steals their harness, carts off their butchered hogs hung up to cool, or makes away with live hogs when they are ready for market.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Sunday School Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Copyright, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR MARCH 11

JESUS IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:39-54. GOLDEN TEXT—Christ also hath once suffered for our sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God.—1 Peter 3:18.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42; Luke 22:39-54.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Angel Helps Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Prays for Strength.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How to Stand the Hardest Test.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Submission to the Father's Will.

I. Jesus at the Mount of Olives (v. 39). He went from the upper room under cover of night to the garden of Gethsemane. Gethsemane means oil press. It is a place where the oil was crushed out of the olives. There is a striking significance in Jesus' coming to this place. Olive oil was precious, being used both for food and lighting. The bruising and crushing of Christ in this garden has yielded the largest blessings in the world. It has provided food for men's souls and light for their lives.

II. His Companions (vv. 39, 40). Peter, James and John, who had been with Him on the Mount of Transfiguration, were permitted to go with Him into the deep shadows of the garden. He took those who were best able to apprehend the meaning of the tragic hour to be His sympathizing companions. This was needed to prepare them as His witnesses. Then, too, as a human being He craved sympathy.

Jesus Praying (vv. 41-44).

1. He Withdrew From the Disciples (v. 41). Even those disciples of the "inner circle" could not go with Him. He tore himself away from them for He must be alone in this darkest hour. He knelt down and prayed.

2. What He Said (vv. 42-44). "If thou be willing remove this cup from me." The cup did not mean the physical sufferings of the cross, though they were very great. He did not now desire to escape from the cross and thus stop short of His redemptive work, for this was the supreme purpose of His coming into the world (Heb. 2:14). It was rather the revelation to Him by the cross which loomed before Him, of His identification with sin in becoming the world's Redeemer. By virtue of the holiness and perfection of His nature, He could do nothing else than shrink from it. He saw in this bearing of the sins of the world the turning away of His Father's face. Knowing what was before Him, He came to Gethsemane for this hour, and in it He consciously brought his human will into accord with the divine will. Though the cup was bitter he bowed in submission to the Father's will. So great was this agony that His sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground. In this crucial hour an angel from heaven strengthened him.

IV. The Disciples Sleeping (vv. 45, 46). They had boasted of their fidelity, but could not watch with Him for an hour. He had issued a word of warning to them, but they were so benumbed with sorrow that they failed. He gently rebuked them, and commanded that they rise and pray lest they enter into temptation.

V. Jesus Betrayed (vv. 47, 48).

1. The Betrayal (v. 47). This was done by Judas, one of the twelve. He had enjoyed the most intimate relations with the Lord, eating with Him, listening to His teaching, witnessing His marvelous miracles and enjoying His confidence.

2. The Sign of Betrayal (v. 47). It was the kiss, the token of the most tender affection and friendship. He now degrades it by making it the token of disloyalty and treason. Jesus' words to this infamous disciple shows the infinite tenderness of His heart. If Judas had been at all human this pathetic appeal would have smitten him to the very heart. How many professing disciples have proven their disloyalty to the Master and even betrayed Him. All who bear the name, Christian, and especially ministers and teachers who deny the virgin birth, deity and vicarious atonement of Christ are following in the footsteps of Judas. May each one inquire, "Lord, is it I?"

VI. Jesus Arrested (v. 54).

The multitude around with swords and clubs led by Judas invaded the sacred precincts of the garden and arrested Jesus and brought Him before the high priest.

Our Blessings. It is good for us to think that no grace or blessing is truly ours till we are aware that God has blessed some one else with it through us.—Phillips Brooks.

Our God. God sleeps in the stone, dreams in the animal, wakes in the man.—Goethe.

Careful Reading. A page digested is better than a volume hurriedly read.—Macaulay.