MEN YOU MAY MARRY

By E. R. PEYSER

Has a man like this proposed to you?

Symptoms: Short, coat looks as if it were too tight over his husky little breast. He is fond of clothes and yet never indulges in a comfortable suit. He sits on the edge of chairs, and he is always on the edge of telling you he loves you. He doesn't stutter, yet he is nervous. As a lover he is very amusing, especially when he pretends that he isn't your lover. In most cases he tries the platonic, but his saccharine smile gives him away and his terrific effort never to be late is a fearful tolltale.

IN FACT

His great fault is his faultlessness and people always know he will turn up a bustling little mass.
