Not What We Do -How Well

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

LIFE isn't all in big amounts, Or greatness in a title: It isn't what we do that counts-How well we do is vital. The little tasks and little things Are what in time will tell; Not what we do the glory brings, But if we do it well,

The humble task of humble hands Has just as much of beauty, As much efficiency demands, As any other duty. The fellow in the shallow trench Must have a soldier heart; The fellow standing at the bench

Must do his honest part. The lowest brick in any wall Is still the brick that made it: The edifice will stand or fall How well or poor we laid it, And this the dignity divine Of all we are or do; Your work requires the best of mine

. Mine needs the best of you. We work together, you with me, Whate'er we build or fashion; Our perde should be our honesty,

And quality our passion, Are what in time will reli-Not what we slo the glory brings, But if we do it well, Reptile's Appearance in Seminole Indian Council Induced Tribe to Accept Government's Offer.

Old Indians relate that in the deliberations which led to the emigration from the Florida lands to their home in the West, the Seminole chieftains were still stubborn and rebelliagainst accepting the proposition of the government. At this time a large | may have been so steepy or some other and slowly coiled himself and looked flat, but in any event they both were around upon the gathered tribesmen. as though beseeching them to take council of his movements. For a short time he stayed, and then slowly oncoiled himself and leisurely took himself to the westward.

This was taken as an omen by the chiefs and the medicine men, and upon a vote being taken it was unanimous ly voted to accept the terms of the government and go westward as required. Thus many lives and much expense were saved.

Another curious legend among the very old men is that the "Mingelesse," the redcoars, will some time come and help the Seminole to regain his lost of bed at 1 in the morning. lands. This came about probably on account of some old promise made by the British during the fighting days of the Revolution or the War of 1812. And even as late as the Green Peach war, in the early 80s, the old Seminoles proclaimed that the Great war had come and that the "Mingelesse" were coming with great guns to aid the Seminoles in whitering the white man and regaining their had lands.
