Farm Loans

I am ready at all times to make any loan desired at the very lowest rate of interest, best option and least expense. No examiner is sent in to decide whether the loan shall be made. I decide that myself and save you that expense. I am sole agent for Trevett, Mattis & Baker, a company that has been doing business in the county for 25 years, and never has withdrawn from business a single day during that time. No other company can say as much. Other companies get scared and quit business. Not so Trevett, Mattis & Baker. Patronize a company that has always had confidence in Webster county. J. H. Bailey.

Christian Church Notes

"Commit thy works unto Jehovah, And thy purposes shall be established." Sunday School 10 a. m. Morning Worship 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor 7 p. m. Evening Worship 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening 8 p. m.

Ladies' Aid meets every Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. J. Pope. Sunday morning service was well attended in spite of the Pastor's absence. The Historical Study of the Bible proved a popular subject and one worth more study than is usually given it.

All enjoyed the Union service at the Baptist Church in the evening. As should occur every Union night the house was crowded.

Rev. Nelson will be home Saturday morning. Let's welcome him with a large congregation on Sunday morning and evening. C. G. Nelson, Pastor.

Garfield Community Church

10 a. m., Sunday School. Lesson theme, "The Story of Joseph". 11 a. m., Sermon, "The Humanity of the Master" 8 p. m., Story and Song Service, "The Pink Rose".

The Chorus will meet Saturday evening at the church for final practice on "The Pink Rose". The Social committee is planning a pleasant surprise for all who come.

The offering Sunday evening will be used to pay for the music used at that time. The Pink Rose is a story, accompanied with several songs, of the experiences of Mrs. Whittemore in her christian work in New York City. You will enjoy both the story and the songs it will be given Sunday evening.

Obituary

Loretta B. McDaniel, daughter of Ab and Elizabeth McDaniel, was born Dec. 22, 1861 at Mt. Pleasant, Stephenson county, Illinois and passed away March 31, 1923 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sterman Lawver, Freeport, Illinois. She was aged 61 years, 3 months and 9 days. On January 25, 1883 she was united in marriage to Chas. C. Crago and to this union four children were born: Mrs. Sterman Lawver of Freeport, Ill., Roy Crago and Mrs. Lee Whitehead of Brownstown, Wis., and Mrs. Dave Bell of Red Cloud, Nebr. She is also survived by two sisters: Mrs. James Van Matre of Martintown, Wis., Mrs. Wm. Lathrope of Spokane, Washington, one brother, John McDaniel of Altoona, Kansas, eleven grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Since the death of her husband last November she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lawver. She was a member of the Christian church, being baptized when a young girl, and was a kind and loving mother and will be greatly missed. The body was laid at rest in Greenwood cemetery, Monroe, Wisconsin, beside her husband.

Handel Expurgated. The following anecdote is given in the preface to a copy of Dr. John Clark's edition of the "Messiah," the testimonial of which is signed by Henry R. Bishop, William Parsons, John Brahan, and Muzio Clementi.

"Being on a visit to a friend in a country place the inhabitants of which were more primitive than scientific, Doctor Busby, on his way to church on a Sunday morning, overtook one of the choristers with a bundle of music books under his arm. 'What have you got there, my man?' said the doctor. 'Zum of Handel's music, zur, that we're going to sing at church today,' was the rejoinder. 'Handel,' said the querist, somewhat astonished, 'don't you find his music difficult?' 'Why,' said the countryman, 'we did at first, zur, but we altered in a bit, and he goes very well now!'"

Clever! A fascinating Chicago widow had her ex-husband in for dinner and he presented her with a check for alimony due her. She took it, laughingly, saying: "This is taxation without representation."

Raise all the Chicks you hatch

Raise them the Pan-a-ce-a way

Start them right—keep them growing—without any backset. PAN-A-CE-A gives chicks good appetite and good digestion—gives vigor to resist disease. PAN-A-CE-A prevents food fermentation—that's where most of the bowel troubles start. PAN-A-CE-A prevents and cures gapes, indigestion, diarrhea, leg weakness. PAN-A-CE-A your chicks and then watch them feather. A PAN-A-CE-A chick will out-feather a non-PAN-A-CE-A chick every time.
