Finley Bright returned to his home at Lincoln Monday afternoon after spending the past few days here attending to business matters and visiting at the home of his brother Ed Bright.

MEN YOU MAY MARRY

By E. R. PEYSER

Has a Man Like This Proposed to You?

Symptoms: Almost 45, good looking, sweet, thoughtful, yet thoughtless. His clothes look like an artist's palette with age-old stains, his shoes are rarely ever polished and often backed some, his hands are clean but could be cleaner, his ties were good once upon a time but now hanker after the rubbish heap.

IN FACT

He needs the rub in rubbish. Prescription to the Bride-to-Be: Learn the use of all cleaning fluids and powders. Hire some valeting system to use when he is out.

LOCAL ITEMS OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

Aaron Conover and wife are home from the world's fair.
Red Cloud will have the eagle scream in good shape.
Mrs. Cronie and children leave tonight for Fairfield on a short visit.
Prof. G. M. Caster is spending his vacation in Missouri. Before returning to Red Cloud he will take in the world's fair.
The city dads have decided that Red Cloud should have more territory and consequently have decided to commence proceedings in the district court to annex the out lying precincts. This is a move in the right direction. Red Cloud city limits should be at least two miles square.
Fourteen years ago last Saturday night, Red Cloud had a very serious cyclone which destroyed much property and injured a number of people, and fourteen years ago Friday night a very heavy frost prevailed here which spoiled nearly every growing object that had been planted.
The following are the names of teachers for our public schools for the coming year and who were elected last Friday:

Superintendent—G. M. Caster.
Principal—Miss Elizabeth Brown.
2nd Assistant—Mrs. E. J. Case.
The following have not as yet been assigned to rooms: Miss Jennie Waddell, Miss Edith Ely, Miss Nellie West, Mary Nye, Miss Rhoda Waddell, Miss Mattie Kelley, Miss Lula Warner, Miss Fidelity Schaffnit, Miss Dora Henderson. The board has made good selections in every instance and should be highly commended for their action.

40 YEARS AGO
Senator Case is able to get around again, after a protracted siege of the rheumatism.
Married by the Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser on the 2nd of June, 1883, Mr. James Sutton and Miss Hattie Watt all of Webster county, Nebr.
It is currently reported, and upon pretty good authority, that there will be at least two more brick buildings erected on Webster street the present summer.

10 YEARS AGO
Miss Clara Burgess spent Tuesday in Hastings.
Dr. Bales was a passenger to Lincoln last Friday morning.
James Miner had the misfortune to have one of his arms broken last week.
Mrs. Belle Keagle, left for Victor, Colo., Sunday evening for a short visit.
Miss Ruth Johnston departed Monday morning for Peru to attend Normal.
Nellie West Caster arrived in the city the last of the week from York, Nebr.
Father Fitzgerald and Bernard McNery were in Nelson, Tuesday, on business.
Col. J. H. Edinger is now driving a new Cadillac auto which he purchased last week.
Miss Marguerite Richardson has returned home from Indiana where she has been attending school.
Harry Cramer is back again in his old position in Turnure & Son's store after a short stay in Omaha and Plattsmouth.
Dr. R. V. Nicholson of Lincoln has arrived in the city and taken possession of the Dr. Trumble dental business which he purchased a few weeks ago.

Miss Beatrice McKeighan was seriously injured on Tuesday, in Lincoln, where she had gone to visit her mother. She was standing near a bon-fire when a cartridge, which had been gathered up with the trash, exploded, the bullet passing through her wrist.

10 a. m., Sunday School.
19:30 Childrens Day Program.
Program by Young Peoples Department, 8 p. m.
8:45 Sermon.
The Sunday School session on Sunday will be shortened in order to get time for the Childrens Day Program.
For the evening program, the Devotional committee of the department request that each one, both old and young come prepared to read or recite a scripture verse with the word righteous or righteousness in it.
The Vacation Bible School began Monday with 33 pupils in attendance. All children and young folks are invited to the sessions of the School each forenoon of next week. The School will close with an exhibit and program Sunday evening June 17.

CHRISTIAN

"Suffer the little children, and forbid them, not, to come unto me; for to such belongeth the kingdom of Heaven."
Sunday morning we will have the regular services. In the evening the Sunday School will put on the Childrens Day program. The committee, Virginia Caldwell, Ruby Hanson, and Grace Huntington, are putting lots of time and thought into the preparations. This being Home Mission day the offering will go to Home Missions.
The church was filled almost to capacity to enjoy the very helpful Union service Sunday evening.
The Missionary meeting, Friday afternoon was especially interesting. Mrs. Cocheran, who has taught in both Indian and Negro schools told us something of the work and some very lively discussion ensued. The Society voted to put Every Land, a childrens magazine into the City Library and the magazine has already been ordered.
Rev. Nelson returned Sunday morning from the Western Christian Convention and reports very fine progress throughout the whole territory.

WITH a single tool—the combination wrench and screw driver shown below, which is included with every De Laval—you can take it apart and set it up again in a few minutes.
Could anything be easier or simpler?
There are no complicated parts—no chain drives, no cog wheel puzzles, no ball bearings to get flattened or broken. Every adjustment can be made quickly by the man on the farm without special tools of any kind.
Such simple construction makes the De Laval not only the longest lasting but also the easiest separator to clean and care for.
We will sell you a De Laval on terms that can't help suiting you. Come in and examine the machine; let us show you what it will do.
