FRANKLIN I. O. O. F. PROVE ROYAL ENTERTAINERS

The District Installing Officers of the I. O. O. F., consisting of District Deputy Grand Master J. E. Murnham, L. C. Fraser, A. B. McArthur, B. W. Stewart, E. J. Overing, Jr., and W. G. Hamilton together with twelve other Odd Fellows and Rebekahs went to Franklin Tuesday evening and installed the officers of the two lodges in joint public installation at that place. After the ceremonies the Franklin members served refreshments which were remarkable both as to the number and the excellence of the cakes. The Franklin folks are royal entertainers and those who went from here are unanimous in saying that the occasion was a most excellent one.

Chautauqua Opens

Wednesday morning the Chautauqua was opened by Miss Nan I. Sorenson meeting the children and organizing the Junior Chautauqua. She has a very pleasing personality and shows wonderful ability as an organizer.

In the afternoon the Chautauqua was opened in earnest by Miss Cornelia Ensinger, as platform manager. This is quite an innovation as heretofore we have been used to a gentleman manager. But Miss Ensinger shows great executive ability in the way she is handling the work. The Virginia Jubilee Singers and J. W. Zellinger comprised the afternoon and evening program. The first appearance of the Jubilee Singers assured their audience of their superior ability as entertainers. They acted as a prologue number at both afternoon and evening programs for J. W. Zellinger in his portrayal of our statesmen and heroes. For years Zellinger has held first place in this art. His average time for costume changing is but thirty seconds. His characters appeared with lightning like rapidity and with such startling likeness as to be almost human, and which for the moment amazed the audience. His Huck Finn was recognized immediately by the children. His Abe Martin was thoroughly enjoyed. The heavier part of his program won his audience as one by one Pershing, Lloyd George, the Tiger of France, Wilson, Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln and others stepped forth and gave extracts of their most famous speeches.

If the remainder of the chautauqua is a repetition of the first day we are assured of its success.

BAPTIST

Bible school at 10 a. m.
Morning service at 11 a. m., Subject: "Terms of the life eternal."

Evening Service is deferred on account of the Chautauqua, which ends on Sunday evening.

There was good attendance and excellent interest at the weekly prayer meeting, held this week on Tuesday evening. Those present expressed themselves well satisfied to meet a day earlier. The next will meet regularly on Wednesday evening 25th.

On Thursday evening July 26th, the Loyalty class of the Bible school will have a social at the church with home made ice cream and cake. Some special exercises and music will also be enjoyed. The young ladies ask special attention to this announcement.

By rotation Rev. B. S. Daugherty will be the preacher on the evening of July 29th at the Union Service, at which time the report of the Committee on Seats will be ready and will be given.

The Chautauqua is now on and we are all hoping for literary and financial success. So note it be.
I. W. EDSON, Pastor.

Defeats Osborne 5 to 0

Sunday afternoon the Red Cloud ball team gave the fans of Osborne, Kas., the sensation of seeing their team suffer a shutout on their diamond. Smith was at his best striking out 15 and allowed only two to reach second base. He had excellent support and our team is getting a reputation as a good one and hard to beat.

Elton Pope's Ford Stolen

Monday night, presumably about two o'clock, thieves entered the Chas. Smith garage in the Second Ward and stole the Ford touring car belonging to Elton Pope, and made their getaway. They did not molest the Ford coupe belonging to Mr. Smith.

A noise was heard by Smiths about two o'clock but nothing was thought of it and the loss was not discovered until the next morning.

Elton is the mail carrier on route 4 and the car is a great loss to them. The thieves evidently pushed the car a block or so before starting the engine. Mr. Pope carried no insurance.
