ANNOUNCEMENT

Webster County Bank

WE WISH to announce that we have opened up a savings department in our bank for the use of the children, adults and every one. Thrift and saving is something that has been neglected.

We kindly invite you to take advantage of this savings idea and make this your banking home with your savings—no matter how small, you are always welcome.

A saver is a hustler and we are for both. Bank with us and you can bank on us.

We welcome every child in the community to become a customer of this new department.

FLORENCE OIL COOK STOVES

Comfort, Economy and Efficiency

COMFORT—for it means a cool kitchen. Economy—for it wastes no fuel. You burn kerosene oil only when you need it. Efficiency—for a Florence Oil Stove is easy and quick of operation and every bit of heat is concentrated close under the cooking.

Come in and let our salesmen show its many good points.

We Give S. & H. Green Savings Stamps With All Cash Sales.

LOCAL ITEMS OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

Wm. Zeluff and Jos. Blair were in Superior, Sunday.

C. L. Cotting has a curiosity in the shape of a horned toad.

Miss Stella Ducker went to Lincoln Monday night.

Miss Belle Spangle returned home from Chicago Tuesday morning.

Flave Grice and mother returned from the world's fair Wednesday evening.

Robt. McBride, who has been on the road with a phonograph, is home on a short visit.

Miss Ada Skjelver is home from Fargo, S. D., where she has been attending school for a year.

Prof. Caster arrived home from the west on Monday, and on Wednesday started for the world's fair.

10 YEARS AGO

Mrs. J. H. Bailey has for her guest this week Mrs. Lucy McMan of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foe were spending a few days the latter part of the week in McCook.

Dr. Stockman departed Sunday for Chicago where he will remain for about ten days or two weeks.

Mrs. R. W. Koontz and daughters left last week for Long Beach, Calif., where they will spend some time.

George Morhart, who now resides at Pueblo, Colo., was visiting his father and brothers at this place the first of the week.

Frank Perry left the last of the week for eastern markets where he will purchase goods for the firm of Weesner, Perry & Co.

Elder J. E. Jarboe arrived on Monday from the western part of the state where he has been the past two weeks looking after things pertaining to Sunday school, etc.

Attorney Bernard McNeny and family and Alf McCall and family left yesterday for Colorado Springs, Denver, and other Colorado points where they intend spending some time and enjoy a few cool breezes.

Prehistoric Cliff Dwellers.

Several skeletons of prehistoric beings estimated to be from 1,200 to 1,500 years old have been unearthed in the Ozarks region of Missouri. These people were cliff dwellers, but they should not be confused with the cliff dwellers who lived high up on the faces of cliffs in Arizona and New Mexico. Many crude weapons and implements were found perfectly preserved in the dry soil under the overhanging cliffs.

LUTHERAN

Regular services every first and third Sunday in the month in the Adventist church at 11 a. m.

Coming Sunday being the fifth Sunday in the month, there will be no services in Red Cloud and Womer, Kas. Instead Union services will be held with our congregation near Campbell in Heinenberg's grove, five miles north of Riverton on the Campbell road and one-half mile west. Services will be held in the forenoon at 10:30 in the German language and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock in the English. The Campbell choir will help to beautify the services.

The local congregation is cordially invited. O. R. Heinitz, Pastor.
