Roy Fetty, aged 26 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fetty residing west of Inavale, passed away at a hospital in Chicago, Friday.

While driving a taxicab in Chicago he had his arm extended from the car as a signal while making a turn when a street car ran into him breaking his arm after which infection set in causing his demise.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Inavale Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in the city cemetery.

Fall Planting of Bulbs

In proportion to cost and care bulbs offer a maximum attraction. A gorgeous display of striking color contrasts may be provided next spring for flower beds and shrub borders by planting suitable bulbs this fall. Too often people forget all about it until they see them in their neighbors' garden. That bulbs may be planted any time from the first of September until the ground is frozen, the earlier the better, is stated by the Agricultural College horticulturists.

Fall bulbs include those early spring flowering plants such as tulips, hyacinths, narcissus, jonquils, crocuses, scillas and lilies. They may be planted in formal beds, in borders near the house, or in the perennial shrub border.

For formal beds and working out geometrical designs, tulips and hyacinths are especially valuable. The shape and size of the bed must be determined by the individual taste of the planter. No matter what the shape is to be it must be borne in mind to plant varieties which bloom at the same time, are of the same height and whose colors harmonize. Good contrasting colors should be used and so arranged as to accentuate the adjoining colors.

Bulbs may be used to advantage in the shrub and perennial border wherever there is a vacancy. They are very effective if planted at irregular intervals in large or small groups. The Darwin tulips are especially suitable for this type of planting showing off advantageously against the background of shrubbery. If cut flowers are prized this is the place to get them rather than from the formal bed where the absence of a flower or two is quite conspicuous. In the hardy border among the shrubs too, is the place for little irregular groups of narcissus, jonquils, lilies and crocus. Here they may be left year after year, to increase in numbers and each spring to bloom out in a great variety of colors.

Birthday Dinner

On Tuesday, September 25 a very delightful birthday dinner was held at the beautiful home of Mrs. Mary Arneson, in honor of Mrs. Susan Dixon 80 and Mrs. Alice Tennant and Mr. Henry Wolfe both 79. Some thirty years ago, Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Tennant, living side by side, learned that their birth days came on consecutive days and began having dinner together, serving on alternate years, never missing a year excepting when one or the other was away. In these later years, their friends have taken it up and made quite a large affair of the day. When it was learned that Mr. Wolfe's birthday was also the 25th, he was added to the guests of honor.

Of the thirty guests, twelve had past the three score and ten year mark and a greater part of them had been here in the very early days. Ye scribe will defy any dozen of any age in Red Cloud to display more sparkling eyes and spier wit than this group did in the afternoon as they recounted experiences of the early days—some of them very funny and all of them trying.

Those of us who listened to them for the first time, wished that the youth of our town might have heard the stories that they might more fully appreciate the terrific price which has been paid to change this "great American Desert" to a land of beautiful towns and comfortable homes. The whole day reminded us of Robert Browning's Rabbi Ben Ezra which begins:

Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
The last of life, for which the first was made:

Our times are in His hand
Who saith, "A whole I planned:
Youth shows but half; trust God, see all, nor be afraid!"

G. W. Dought, a traveling salesman for the Hastings Fruit Co., says he would appreciate it if the federal road between here and Hastings was kept up in better shape.

So far this month there has been twenty eight cars of cattle shipped in here, which will be fattened this winter and shipped to market in the spring. This promises to be one of the heaviest feeding years in the history of the county.

Big beyond description—that's "Hollywood!" All the praise-laden adjectives in the dictionary couldn't do it justice. You've got to see it—that's all! In no other way can you grasp the glorious immensity of it—the thrill of seeing ALL your favorite movie stars in ONE picture! BUT—"Hollywood" has more than its colossal cast. It's not a "news weekly"—not a parade of celebrities—not a mere sight-seeing tour of Hollywood. Here is a story—a gripping, throbbing, irresistibly human story of a small-town girl who goes to Hollywood to break into the movies. And meets with a thousand and one adventures that put this picture in a class by itself.
