BAPTIST

Bible school at 10 a. m.

Morning service at 11 a. m., Subject: "Not good if detached."

At the evening hour, we shall unite with the brethren of the Methodist Church, in the final service of Rev. H. W. Cope.

Baptists without exception regret the proposed removal of Brother Cope. His four years of ministry here have been fruitful of good feeling and steady effort for the benefit of all the community. In all interchurch relations he has exhibited the most kindly and genial spirit.

The idea gains among us that his transfer is required not because of any local need or suggestion, or because he particularly desired it, but for the effect it might have on his Denomination in the Conference.

Long term Pastorates are significant in the veiled reproof of the short term men, as well as the estimate people are wont to make of those who successfully hold on. That they are productive of greater good to the favored church than shorter terms, is undoubtedly true, but all churches may not have them, so men must move, i. e. in the churches with overhead management.

In the other churches Pastors stay awhile and leave when the minority decrees a change.

The Aid Society gathering at Mrs. E. B. Goble's, was a fine affair, with excellent refreshments. All enjoyed it greatly.

Our next Mid-week meeting will begin at 7:30, the first half hour to be given to Bible study for the teachers of the Bible school. All persons interested are cordially invited.

Choir meeting every Friday evening. Everybody welcome.

I. W. EDSON, Pastor.

PHOENIX HOSTELY

FINER FOOTWEAR FOR FALL

Like the apparel for the new season, the prominent color in footwear is brown, although black will never be unpopular. Much suede will be worn this fall and the exquisite models with straps, lace oxfords and gore oxfords in lustrous blacks and rich browns, with Spanish block heels and French toes, will be evident wherever fashion's whims are satisfied.

Our footwear for women is so varied that space is not sufficient for its description. A visit to our most complete shoe department on our left balcony will convince you of your opportunity here as to the price, the quality, and as to being satisfied with your purchase.

WHEN IN TOWN

And hunger strikes you unaware just drop inside our front door and you will see a delicious, big display of sweets that will satisfy that hunger at once. No matter what particular kind you like, you will find it there because the kinds are too numerous to mention.

THERE ARE THINGS

Right now that cannot be put off any longer. That new blanket for the spare bed, that curtain for the dining room, that sauce pan that you have meant a dozen times to get—winter is coming on fast and you must get the house in order.
