

Magnate story folks never drink anything, they always sip it.

Modern girls just love water, provided it isn't in a dishpan or a wash-tub.

A great trouble with high ideals is that they so often lead to plain dem foolishness.

A man's best friend is his dog. And the lowest form of humanity is the dog poisoner.

McKinley Square in Buffalo is round and Times Square in New York City is three-cornered.

A western Nebraska editor says to be bald is an affliction but whiskers are your own fault.

The biggest slump in business will come when people begin to buy only what they can afford.

Colleges would be more useful if all the students had to learn to support themselves before attending.

The biggest fool of all is the man who thinks a locomotive will turn out and give him the right of way.

One reason for the high cost of living is that the old fashioned dime novel now costs $1.75, plus postage.

The reason I don't like to eat corn off the cob is because it is so much trouble to wash the butter out of my ears.

It is a good thing that plasterers, who get fifteen dollars a day, don't have to take their pay in marks or rubles.

Too many people demand high wages nowadays without having demonstrated their ability to earn anything.

In my opinion, a lot of people ain't got much sense about politics. But they think the same about me so we are even.

This world would be a better place if newspapers would play up more of the sacrifices of life and fewer of the frailties.

Women are easily flattered but did you ever notice how a man acts when someone suggests that he should run for office?

Nebraska country editors sometimes lambast Omaha but they do it for the good of her soul not merely for the purpose of finding fault.

If taxes were a little lower a man could make a living and if they were a little higher he would quit trying. As it is, no one knows what to do.

Lew Shelley says it takes years of time and considerable wisdom to produce a healthy tree in Nebraska but a fool can ruin one in a few minutes.

I am perfectly satisfied for The Boss and The Junior to have their own way if they will only shut up and let me have my way once in a while.

One reason thrifty, old fashioned men are still satisfied with the wives they started with is because modern methods of courtship are so expensive. A dime's worth of mixed candy and a road cart wouldn't even start a fellow nowadays.

Someone remarks that black eyes denote passion and vehemence. From the depths of his years of newspaper experience Gus Buechler soulfully adds, "Yes, usually on the part of the other fellow." Gus should be less effusive in expressing his editorial opinions.

We all know it is a lie but, at the same time, most of us feel puffed up when a book agent tells us that he is only allowed to sell a limited number of copies in our vicinity and that we have been selected as one of the beneficiaries.

What the public needs is not a new political party, remarks one Nebraska editor, but more sensible use of the old ones.

Since the price of gas went down Madron folks want to sell their cars. They want something more expensive to play with.

It may be that I am killing myself with strong tobacco and black coffee as some of my friends claim, but the fact is that I have much better health than the average man of my age.

Most of us can remember the time when a girl put on breeches she was called a goner. Now look at 'em.

If I could get paid for all the advice I give I'd be richer than Hank Ford and Jack Rockefeller, both rolled into one.

Hank Leggett and Bill Maupin say they would be glad to repent and confess all their sins if they had any reason to think the Lord would be serving on the grand jury about that time.

WORLD'S GREATEST BANKING SYSTEM

By CRAIG B. HAZLEWOOD
President Association of Reserve City Bankers

Conceived in the spirit of common good, for the best interests of government, banks and public alike, based on broad and correct principles relating to the nation's currency and credit, the Federal Reserve System represents the greatest piece of economic legislation enacted by an American Congress.

The System's record of achievement through a world war, an inflation period of dizzy heights, and months of serious and costly liquidation. It is a matter of greatest importance that very earnest and patriotic thought be given to the two questions: How far has the system succeeded, and in what particulars has it failed, to give our country as strong and as useful a financial system as human mind can devise?

The hope and expectation of those who framed the Federal Reserve Act that the machinery set-up for the origination, distribution and automatic retirement of currency issue, which should be entirely responsive to the needs of trade and the varying conditions of business, have been wonderfully well realized. Every possible effort must be exerted to preserve the Federal Reserve System from political alliance and to keep its powerful influence entirely devoted to the building up of the greatest banking system in the world.

The first bank of the United States was established in 1791 and failed to obtain a renewal of its charter in 1811, the opponents charging that the bank was a "money trust" controlled by foreigners, a tool in the hands of the Federalists, and that the act chartering the bank was unconstitutional. Note the use of the words "money trust." We have the idea that this is a modern term. The suspicions which animate the demagogue today have not changed in a century.

The second bank of the United States was chartered in 1816 and failed to obtain a renewal of its charter in 1831, the reasons being a widespread belief that the bank was unconstitutional, the hostility of the states, the opposition of the state banks, the rise of democracy, and the envy and hatred which the poor always feel toward the rich.

Both banks functioned well and accomplished much for the country during crucial times. The downfall of both was caused simply and solely by attempts to place the determination of banking policies in the hands of political authorities.

The delicate handling of currency and credit, to the high end that the best interests of all may be served with special privilege to none, cannot be left to others than those who are competent through proven judgment and experience. The danger of politics in the Federal Reserve System is a real one; upon us is placed the grave responsibility of forever keeping the great system clean.

MAKING CAPITALISTS OUT OF WORKMEN

Festus J. Wade Says Anarchy Disappears With the Development of Thrift.

When the savings pass-book comes into a man's life to stay the red flag goes out. What the country needs is to bring about a condition whereby the man who works with his hands shall take the same interest in his affairs as the capitalist does in his. Probably the best way to do this would be to turn the workman into a capitalist. And this is exactly what he becomes when he saves his money and builds up a reserve fund. He remains a capitalist as long as he holds on to that money. The satisfaction of seeing his money reserve mount up will discourage the waster to take a layoff now and then. It will encourage him to work a full six-day week and thereby increase the labor hours applied to production.

The American people can solve any problem they set themselves to. We provided for a sound currency when the greenbackers and inflationists were routed and the gold basis established. The Federal Reserve Bank was established and solved a problem for which most people thought there was no solution. A number of years ago, when there was a crisis or when a bank failed, we all used to shut up our vaults tight and let nothing get out. Instead of bettering conditions we made them worse. Now if failures occur few people, except those directly interested, are disturbed.

Perhaps the most important problem of all right now is to do away with labor waste. It never can be done by preaching, by agitation or by force. It can be done by selling the workman on the idea of becoming a capitalist. This can be brought about by the right kind of bank advertising. Who is there to say that an advertising dollar bringing about this result would not be a constructive dollar?—Festus J. Wade.

Farm Loans

I can make farm loans in Webster, Franklin, Jewell and Smith counties at positively the lowest rate, best terms and opt on offered. J. H. BAILEY

LUTHERAN

Regular services every first and third Sunday in the month in the Adventist church at 11 a. m.

If you are not worshipping elsewhere you are cordially invited to worship with us.

O. R. Heinitz, Pastor

CHRISTIAN

"And all the people gathered themselves together as one man... and Ezra read... from early morning until midday... and... the people were at notice unto the book of the law."

Next Sunday, September 30, is Rally Day. Let's all attend Sunday School and stay to Church service. The Sunday School is preparing a special program.

Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 1 and 2 the County Sunday School convention will be held in the Christian Church.

The Social Circle meets Friday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Clyde Smith.

GRACE EPISCOPAL

"The true citizen today is a citizen of the world, and his first loyalty is to mankind. Patriotism comes as a second loyalty, to be checked, disciplined and determined by the first and greater loyalty. This must extend to every department of life, religious and intellectual, political and commercial."

The Church helps us to become better citizens. Come to Church. The church needs you and YOU need the church. A cordial welcome awaits you at all of our services.

Church School at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Morning Prayer at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Evening Prayer at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

You are welcome. Come and worship with us.

Rev. Basil S. Daugherty.

"What's in a Name?" by MILDRED MANNHILL. Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; influences; your lucky day, lucky level!

MIRANDA

THE Latin adjective mirandus is responsible for the existence of charming Miranda, a name forever associated with poetic fancy. Miranda signifies "admirable" or "worthy to be admired" and, aside from its harmonious syllables, claims the right to fame through the kindly offices of Shakespeare.

When the master dramatist wrote "The Tempest," he called his beautiful and modest heroine, daughter of Prospero, Miranda. She it was who, brought up on a desert island with the delicate spirit Ariel and the savage and deformed Caliban as her only companions, became the object of the love of Ferdinand, son of the King of Naples, who was shipwrecked on the island.

The exquisite love story which the poet dramatist wove about the young couple and the efforts of the young prince to prove the sincerity of his devotion by performing the lowest menial tasks prescribed by Prospero, has made the name of Miranda one of the love heroines of history. She ranks with Dante's Beatrice and Petrarch's Laura.

The pearl is Miranda's talismanic gem. It signifies the modesty, charm and affability for which the name stands. Monday is her lucky day and 4 her lucky number. The wild rose is her flower.

(© by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Community Morals

"There have been a great many arrests in Crimston Gulch."

"Yes," replied Cactus Joe. "We can't make up our minds whether the Gulch is getting worse, or whether bootleg liquor is stupefying the lawless element and making it easier to come up with."

Depth and Guinness. Clear writers, like clear fountains, do not seem so deep as they are; the turbid look the most profound.—Walter Savage Landor.

EAGLE MIKADO No. 174 The YELLOW PENCIL with the RED BAND EAGLE PENCIL CO. NEW YORK, U.S.A.

Northeast Pawnee

Mr. C. McCoale was in Inavale last Saturday for a load of coal.

E. Myers and wife were visiting Mrs. E. Nelsen and family last Sunday.

Harve Blair was doing his trading at Duckerville the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Pagett were doing their trading at Womer the end of last week.

J. Collins and wife were in Red Cloud one day last week transacting business.

John Goulaie (line man) was repairing the phone lines a couple of days last week.

Max Jones and A. Spurrier were at Duckerville one day last week doing their trading.

H. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. B. Mohler drove to Red Cloud last Saturday to do some trading.

Messrs. J. C. Williams and O. Stone were in Lebanon last Saturday transacting business.

E. and J. Ryan and their wives were doing their trading at Womer the middle of the week.

Roy Fruit's 5 year old boy got his arm badly dislocated last Saturday by falling off a wagon. Dr. Creighton was at once called upon and put it in place, the boy is getting along nicely now.

Mrs. Brown and her daughter Mrs. W. L. Taylor who was here visiting for two weeks with the former's sister, brother and niece Mrs. Bill Francis, Mr. J. C. Williams and Mrs. B. Mohler returned last Monday to Indianapolis, Ind., so on the eve of their departure (Sunday) a most elaborate and sumptuous dinner was given by their relatives and well wishes at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Mohler all bringing large baskets filled to overflowing. After dinner Mrs. Mohler and Mrs. Taylor entertained the guests in rendering some fine selections on the piano also Mr. J. C. Williams a much noted musician showed his ability in giving several tunes on the viola received with great satisfaction by all. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fruit and family, Mrs. J. Fruit, Mr. and Mrs. D. Elliott and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Elliott and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fair and family, the Misses Davis, Miss Barton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. R. Relihan and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fair and family, Messrs. F. Stone, I. Collins, J. Fair, C. McClure and C. McCoale.

Notice of Hearing

Estate of Johannes Himmelberg Deceased, in the County Court of Webster County, Nebraska.

The State of Nebraska, To all persons interested in said estate, creditors and heirs take notice, that Mary Lemke has filed her petition alleging that Johannes Himmelberg died intestate in Webster County, Nebraska, on or about September 13, 1911, being a resident and inhabitant of Webster County, Nebraska, and died seized of the following described real estate, to wit: The South half of the South East Quarter, of Section Two, (2), in Township Three, (3), Range Nine, (9), West of the 6th P. M. Webster County, Nebraska.

leaving as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to wit: Addelide Himmelberg, his widow; Lydia Birch, Dena Lemke, Anna Herz, Mary Lemke, and John Himmelberg, his children.

That the interest of the petitioner herein in the above described real estate is one of the heirs above named and the owner of an undivided interest in said premises.

and praying for a determination of the time of the death of said Johannes Himmelberg, and of his heirs, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of the real property belonging to the said deceased, in the State of Nebraska.

It is ordered that the same stand for hearing the 27th day of October, A. D., 1923, before the court at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M.

Dated at Red Cloud, Nebraska, this 25th day of September, 1923. (Seal) A. D. RANNEY, County Judge.

H. S. Foe, attorney for the estate.

A Fresh Start.

Miss M. writes that while she was visiting her sister in the country she overslept one morning and was awakened by her little niece, 3 1/2 years old, who exclaimed: "Aunt Annie, get up; the world has begun."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Mixing Printers INK With Brains. Printers' ink has made thousands of men rich when it was mixed in the right proportion with Brains. LET US HELP YOU MIX THEM. BOTH PHONES. The Red Cloud Chief.

UNDERTAKING. The I. T. Amack Undertaking Co. Auto Hearse in Connection. Licensed Embalmer. Best Service to Others Means Real Happiness to Ourselves. BOTH PHONES. RED CLOUD, NEB.

ANNOUNCEMENT. Webster County Bank. WE WISH to announce that we have opened up a savings department in our bank for the use of the children, adults and every one. Thrift and saving is something that has been neglected. We kindly invite you to take advantage of this savings idea and make this your banking home with your savings—no matter how small, you are always welcome. A saver is a hustler and we are for both. Bank with us and you can bank on us. We welcome every child in the community to become a customer of this new department. THE WEBSTER COUNTY BANK.

Dr. W.H. McBride. DENTIST. OVER STATE BANK. Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Dr. R. V. Nicholson. DENTIST. Red Cloud, Nebraska.

GARFIELD COMMUNITY. Sunday is Rally Day in all Departments. The order of the day is as follows: Sunday School 10 a. m. Rally Day Program of Sunday School 11 a. m. Young Peoples Rally 8 p. m. Address to Young Peoples Dept.—H. G. Keeney of Cowles. A social for the Young Peoples Department and Chorus will be held Saturday evening in the rear room of the church. Members of the orchestra are invited to bring their instruments for this occasion. The Sunday School Rally program will be several recitations and short talks. Please note that Mr. Keeney will give the evening address Sunday.

The Margin of Safety. Is represented by the amount of insurance you carry. Don't lull yourself into a fancied security. Because fire has never touched you it doesn't follow that you're immune Tomorrow—no today, if you have time—and you better find time—come to the office and we'll write a policy on your house, furniture, store or merchandise. —LATER MAY BE TOO LATE— O. C. TEEL. Reliable Insurance. Elaborate Tattooing. A feature of Maoriland is tattooing. Some of the extraordinary facial features take six years to complete.

