BAPTIST

Bible school at 10 a. m.

Morning service at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Supreme Sense of Power"

Evening service at 7:30. Subject: "Between the Eternities."

Mid-week meeting for Bible study, Prayer and Conference, on Wednesday evening at 7:30. Cordial invitation to all Teachers and Bible students.

Last Sunday at morning service the Baptist church voted to set apart each fifth Sunday in the month for Union Service by the W. C. T. U. which action was lately endorsed by the City Ministerial Association. This will meet the desire of the W. C. T. U. for four Union services during the year, and will enable both the churches and the temperance people to plan ahead, and not conflict with the purposes of either. According to the first Union Service will occur on December 30th, at the Baptist church, and services will occur in rotation among the churches desiring same, during next year on March 30th, June 29th, August 31st, and November 30th. It is fervently to be hoped that all interested will be satisfied and no changes be attempted by any one.

The annual Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Christian Church on Thanksgiving morning at 10:30, with sermon by Rev. H. E. Tweedy. This early notice should enable those who don't forget to plan their affairs and attend the meeting as requested in the Proclamations of President and Governor.

The Ministerial Association has in process of preparation a Program for Union Service at the Congregational church, on the evening of Sunday, November 11th, at which it is hoped members of the American Legion will be in attendance, as well as some from out of the city. More ample notice will be given next week.

The weekly Choir rehearsal will occur on Friday evening at the home of the Pastor, to which all who are willing to assist are cordially invited.

We will appreciate your presence and a cordial welcome awaits you.

I. W. EDSON, Pastor.

Wheat as a Feed for Livestock

Because of the present relative low price for wheat and high price for corn, much interest is being shown in the feeding of wheat. There may be data available that will show favorable to feeding wheat of low grade; but there is nothing to show that it pays to feed a good high grade of wheat, unless it sells for practically the same price as corn. Government figures show that high grade wheat and corn are practically equal in feeding value, pound for pound, providing the wheat is ground, as it does not pay to feed it whole. When corn is 75 cents a bushel on the farm 80-cent wheat is practically equal in feeding value, and when corn is 93 cents wheat should be figured at $1.00. These figures do not take into consideration the cost of grinding the wheat, which is from 5 to 10 cents a bushel.

IT MAY PAY TO FEED THE LOW GRADE WHEAT

Two-thirds of the wheat received on the Kansas City Market falls in grades 1, 2 and 3; the other third falls in grades 4, 5 and Sample. The first three grades are by far the best for milling and sell for the highest prices. Carefully compiled figures from the Kansas City wheat receipts for the past two months (August and September, 1923) show that the price paid for low grade 4 wheat was almost 8 cents a bushel less than that paid for low grade 2. The same data shows that grade 5 wheat sold for almost 12 cents a bushel less than low grade 2. Sample grade sold at from 15 to 17 cents a bushel less than low grade 2. The average premium paid for the first three grades was almost 12 cents a bushel above that paid for the last three grades. While the three low grades sell for less money and are not suitable for a high grade of flour, they have almost as high feeding value as the better grades. THE FANNING MILL WILL HELP. Official data from the Kansas City office of the Federal Grain Supervision show that during the years 1919, 1920 and 1921 almost 68 per cent of the wheat inspected graded down one grade or more on account of low test weight per bushel. The 1923 receipts, up to October 1, show that test weight is affecting the grades more than during the three years named. While it may not be practical to run much, if any, of the better grades of wheat through a fanning mill or grain grader, yet much of the poorer wheat can be improved from one to two grades. The best re-cleaned wheat from the fanning mill will sell at from 5 to 10 cents a bushel higher than the uncleaned wheat, and the screenings will bring almost as much as the re-cleaned wheat when fed to hogs or other livestock.

The Southwestern Wheat Improvement Association, H. Bainer, Director.

Present to Past.

When a new literature succeeds, it obscures the effect of an earlier one, and its own effect predominates; so that it is well, from time to time, to look back. What is original in us is best preserved and quickened if we do not lose sight of those who have gone before us.—Goethe.
