Flags Are Here

A few weeks ago some fifty of the Red Cloud merchants purchased the uniform flag decoration of the Red Cloud Fire Department. The flags are 180 feet and stand on a 12 foot staff, the same having arrived this week. The members of the department have been busy the past two days putting the holders in concrete in front of each purchaser's place of business. The merchants will no doubt use this decoration next week during Hell's Half Acre, and they are requested by the Legion officers to take the flags in each night before sunset.

Mrs. Elizabeth Potter Called to Her Reward

Elizabeth Thimpson was born in Ireland Feb. 17, 1847, and died at her home in Red Cloud on October 26, 1923 at the age of 76 years, 8 months and 9 days. When but a child she came with her parents to America, locating at New York. Shortly thereafter her father became head of the Toronto, Canada educational institutions and the family moved to that place. Here the deceased was married in 1865 to John G. Potter. Very soon thereafter they moved to northeastern Iowa and in 1873 together with other early pioneers journeyed overland to Red Cloud where they have resided since. They were the only couple left among the early pioneers who came to Red Cloud at that time.

Mrs. Potter had always been active in the work of the Methodist church of which she became a member early in life. She was the last survivor of the original charter of the Ladies Aid society. During the active years of her life she took a lively interest in the Order of the Eastern Star, which has honored her in the past years. She was well known and liked by all with whom she came in contact. Her first concern was always for others rather than for herself.

Six children were born of this union: Oscar M., Frank N., Robert T., Lulu V. (now Fuller) Archie C., and John G. Potter, all of whom grew to manhood and womanhood in this city.

During her long illness she was always patient and frequently spoke of her acquaintances, never failing to appreciate the many acts of kindness which they bestowed.

Funeral services were held at the late residence on Monday, October 29, at 2 p. m. and were in charge of Rev. H. G. Wilcox, pastor of the Methodist church.

C. B. & Q. MUST PAY FOR WM. BRUNNER'S DEATH

Commenting upon a rather novel case in so much as it holds an interstate carrier, under the compensation act, and concerning the passing of a former Red Cloud citizen, the State Journal of yesterday, has the following to say:

"Compensation Commissioner Frye has held that the Burlington railroad company must pay $4,666 for the death of one of its employees, William S. Bruner, in spite of the fact that the state compensation law excludes railroads from the state law and places them under the federal compensation law.

"The state commissioner finds that the employee was killed while employed as a workman upon a culvert near Red Cloud, January 11, 1923, and that his widow is entitled to $13.33 1-3 a week for not to exceed 350 weeks. The employee was a laborer working about four miles east of Red Cloud. Because he, with other employees, was working upon a new culvert for the railroad. This culvert was not open to interstate traffic at the time and the state commissioner holds that the status of the employee should be taken at the time of the injury. He finds the work was not contributing to interstate commerce. To exclude a railroad company from the state compensation law the employee himself must be acting in furtherance of interstate transaction as well as the employer. He said it is not reasonable to say that because an employee was not acting in furtherance of interstate commerce at the time of an accident or death, he or his dependents would be barred from recovery.

"Altho the railroad company has not insured its employees or satisfied the state commissioner or its ability to pay, such non-action, according to court decisions, has the effect of causing the company to elect to come under the compensation law. Payments now due under this order are to commence immediately and to date from January 11, 1923. Burial expenses are also added to the weekly compensation. The railway company pleaded specific exclusions from the state law by reason of being an interstate carrier".

The C. B. & Q. was represented by Attorney P. E. Boslaugh of Hastings while Attorney F. J. Munday of this city acted in behalf of Mrs. Mina Brunner, the widow.—Commercial Advertiser.

CHRISTIAN

"The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul:

The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple."

Next Sunday being World's Temperance Sunday, the services will be appropriate to the day.

The meeting of the Sunday Council last Wednesday evening was well attended and of good interest. School organization was discussed. Nov. 14 will be the next meeting at which we will take up Sunday School Literature. Considerable interest is being shown in the new Home Department.

Don't forget the Ladies Aid Lunch Nov. 10th.

Gertrude Crabill is entertaining her class, The Beacon Lights at a Halloween Party Friday evening.

The Social Circle has set December 8 for their Bazaar.

Last Friday evening, the Endeavor and a few friends, held a Halloween Party at the Parsonage. They were met by Ghosts and a Witch who made each one take a solemn vow to enter into all the evening's fun so of course each one had a good time unless it was during the ghost stories. The entertainment committee were: Ruth Patten, Jessie Christy, and Fern Deiderich.
