Every Farm Needs Two

EVERY farm needs two automobiles, one of which should be a closed model Chevrolet.

The open touring car is best for general farm use, carrying passengers or perhaps miscellaneous bulky produce or merchandise, but for cold or rainy weather, and for church or social use the family needs a closed car, either a 2-passenger Utility Coupe as illustrated, or the 5-passenger Sedan. The extra large rear compartment is a feature of the Coupe.

These closed cars are very finely made, furnished, upholstered and trimmed. The windows are of plate glass and can be lowered, providing as much air as an open car, yet affording full protection against wind, rain, snow or cold when raised. With a second car on a farm, one is always available for those at home when the other car is out.

The low prices of Chevrolet make the ownership of two cars feasible for most farm families.

LAWS BENEFIT SERVICE MEN

New York Veterans Are Well Provided for Through Efforts of American Legion.

New York veterans of the World War will receive substantial benefits as a result of the American Legion's successful efforts to obtain passage of laws in the state legislature.

Among the most important measures adopted were laws that include: Appropriating $150,000,000 for the construction of a road to the veterans' mountain camp of the American Legion.

Appropriating $1,500,000 for the construction of a state military memorial at Kings' Park, to be used solely for the care and treatment of World War veterans.

Appropriating $10,000 for the payment of $500 annually to each New York veteran totally blind as a result of war service.

Appropriating an additional $1,000,000 for relief of needy veterans, allowing $30 a month to single men, with additional allowances for dependents. Providing that the city of New York, as well as the board of supervisors in each county, may appropriate funds for the burial of ex-service men and increasing the maximum for such funeral expenses from $75 to $100.

Exempting the real property of the American Legion used exclusively by the posts from the payment of taxes.

Providing that new voters be eligible to vote must pass the literacy test to be given by the state board of regents.

An amendment to the constitution authorizing the legislature to vote on a bond issue for the payment of adjusted compensation to veterans, without submitting the bond issue to the people for approval.

HOSPITAL INSTEAD OF JAIL

American Legion Aims to Secure Liberty of Many Ex-Service Men Now in Prisons.

Many former service men of the World War, now in prison, are believed to have committed the crimes for which they are held when physically or mentally unfit as a result of war service. In the opinion of Joseph Sparks, chairman of the American Legion's national rehabilitation committee, Sparks has directed a survey by the Legion of the former soldiers and sailors incarcerated for crimes in the penal institutions and is reviewing these cases with a view of obtaining their release if a mental disability, traceable to war conditions, is proven. Chairman Sparks is of the opinion that many of these men "drifted into crime" as a result of their physical condition following discharge from service. He estimates that 20,000 such men are confined in the country, and seeks some way to bring relief to them, as the problem is of too great scope for the veterans' bureau to handle.

"It is shocking to think that there are thousands of men from all walks of life confined for crimes that many of them did almost unknowingly, because they were so removed from normal health and strength at the time." "We have made investigations in some states where conditions are worse than others, and have found that many of the men should have been in hospitals, instead of jail, so help their condition, and the jail life has not helped," he added. Experts of the veterans' bureau declare that it is remarkable that not more of the men are in jail, because so many left army service with shattered nerves and were compelled to adjust themselves to after-war conditions. Dr. Stanley Rinehart, one of the veterans' bureau specialists, said: "The states must see to it that every service man in prison gets an opportunity to have a hearing if he deserves it, or hospital treatment instead of a jail cell, if this is what he needs." This problem will be presented at the national convention of the American Legion, to be held in San Francisco.

LEGION OBTAINS NEW LAWS

Oklahoma Organization Accomplishes Much Good for Men Who Served in War.

The American Legion in Oklahoma has accomplished much good for the former service men in a legislative way, according to reports made by department officials. Among the legislation enacted through efforts of the Legion is the erection of a half-million dollar hospital at Muskogee, a quarter-million dollar institution for tubercular service men at Sulphur, maintenance of separate wards for former service persons at the University hospital in Oklahoma City, a fund of $50,000 for relief of sick and disabled veterans and for their dependents, exemption of personal property from taxation of veterans in amounts not exceeding $200, designation of Armistice day as a state holiday, requiring that the flag be displayed in all school rooms, requiring teaching of the Constitution in all public schools, and support of state compensation bills for World War veterans.

O'CONNOR GOOD LEGION MAN

Kansas Member Has Seen Long Army Service, Much of Which Was Unexpected.

John H. O'Connor, an active worker of the American Legion in Kansas, declares that the unexpected has always led him into a line of work that he did not anticipate. In fact, the Kansas man has said that even his military career in the World War was somewhat unexpected, for an early admiration for Kings military caused him to become a member of the National Guard at the age of fifty-one. He was discharged with citations and the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Born in Frankfort, Ky., he moved to Kansas with his parents in 1870, just as that state was emerging from a cluster of shacks and a few score of families to modern cities. He was educated in Winfield, and was thrown on his own resources early in life. He first tried southern California, but went "broke" 2,000 miles from home. He became a surveyor with a party in the Sierra Madre mountains, and accumulated enough money to get back to Kansas. A series of even less fortunate experiences followed, and in turn, O'Connor became a farmer, a laborer, a stone mason, a soldier, a printer, a traveling collector, until he finally returned to Winfield, where he remained until the World War. After discharge from the military service he was appointed postmaster of Winfield.

His military record is nearly as remarkable. He enlisted for service in the Kansas National Guard in 1882 and served until 1891. On the opening of the Spanish-American war, he volunteered for service. At discharge he was sergeant major of the Second Kansas Infantry. He then organized a company of the guard in Kansas in 1905, and had reached the rank of major in 1915, when detailed for border service. On May 28, 1917, he was detailed for a tour of instruction at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. In October, 1917, with 4,000 other Kansas men, he was mobilized and arrived in France in April, 1918, after a training period. He served in the Alsace sector, in the Argonne-Meuse, east of Verdun, and for a time was stationed in the Commercy area. Colonel O'Connor is now a member of the organized reserves.

A delegate to the Paris caucus of the American Legion, Colonel O'Connor has been an enthusiastic worker for the organization. He organized and was first commander of the Winfield post of the Legion, has served as state historian, and is an active member of the Forty and Eight.

RENAME BOATS FOR HEROES

Metropolitan Firemen's Legion Post of Boston Honors Members Who Gave Lives in War.

Believing that heroic deeds of members of the city fire department who perished in the World War should be commemorated, the Metropolitan Firemen's post of the American Legion in Boston has caused three fireboats to be renamed in honor of the department's dead heroes.

These three vessels, formerly known as Engine 31, Engine 44, and Engine 47 were rechristened as the John P. Dowd, Thomas A. Ring, and Angus MacDonald, respectively, at a special ceremony conducted by the Legion.

State and post officials, municipal officers and three thousand firemen of the department participated in the ceremony. Mayor James P. Curley was the principal speaker.

On the pilot house of each boat was placed a bronze tablet, reciting the valorous deeds of the man for whom the vessel was named. These tablets were unveiled by relatives of the war victims. A firing squad from the navy fired a salute as each boat was rechristened.

Home for California Post.

When the county supervisors of Tehama county, Cal., ordered the building of a new court house, the Red Bluff post of the American Legion succeeded in securing a portion of the old building for use as a Legion home. Only slight changes and repairs were necessary to make it into an excellent building for the Legion's purposes.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

DOCTORS WANTED TO OPERATE

Mrs. Quillon Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her from an Operation

Muskegon, Michigan.—"After doctoring for eight or nine years with different physicians without any relief at all, they said at last that medicine would not reach my case and I should have an operation. I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and often saw it advertised in different papers where some women had suffered just as I did and got well and strong again by taking the Vegetable Compound. I decided to see what it would do for me, and before I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and the severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. NELLIE QUILLON, 17 Morris St., Muskegon, Mich.

Women should heed such warning symptoms as bearing-down pains and weakness, for they indicate some female trouble, and a persistent and faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will seldom fail to help.
