Big Musical Comedy Coming

George E. Wintz, producer of "Shuffle Along" and "Listen Irene" will submit "Venus" a musical comedy, one of the biggest hits showing in this state this season, at the Auditorium, Sunday, Dec 2nd. The cast consists of fifty people and a No. 1 Orchestra. They are only playing in Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, McCook and Red Cloud in this state.

American Legion Post 238 Elects Officers

Wednesday evening Red Cloud Post 238 met and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:
Commander—Isadore Johnson.
Vice Commander—R. V. Nicholson.
Adjutant—A. B. McArthur.
Finance Officer—Harry Yost.
Chaplain—H. S. Foe.
Com's Firing Squad—Fred Henderson and Everett Stroup.
Buglers—Elton Pope and Paul Polinsky.

The Inavale Barbecue

Altho the roads were very muddy Monday morning a large number of people were seen headed for Inavale and by noon a large crowd at that village to take part in the festivities of the day.

Rev. Henry gave a short interesting talk after which the American Legion firing squad fired the salute in honor of its dead and Paul Polinsky sounded taps.

The barbecue consisted of soup, sandwiches, pickles and coffee vanished very readily when the hungry ones got up to the serving line.

The afternoon was spent in athletic contests and event was brought to a close by a dance in the evening. All those present seemed to have a good time.

The Armistice Day Service

Sunday evening was windy, wet and disagreeable. The storm reduced the attendance at the Union service, the Congregational church being about half filled. The exercises were however, of very high order. A double quartette led by C. L. Cotting, sang with excellent effect. Rev. H. E. Tweedy was in charge and Rev. I. W. Edson read the 72d Psalm and offered prayer.

Rev. C. G. Nelson, first on the list of speakers, gave a concise history of events leading up to the organization of the League of Nations, and the World Court, and presented an array of facts, challenging and conclusive, that proved to be of very informing nature, and of deep interest to every person present.

Rev. B. S. Daugherty had as subject: "The attitude of the Religious forces of the Nation toward the World Court," and presented the facts set out by The Federal Council of Churches in America, together with conclusions he had reached, which were convincing and revealed the duty of the United States in no uncertain way.

Rev. H. G. Wilcox was given "The attitude of the 'Politicians' of the Nation toward the World Court," but his remarks were directed generally to the duty of the citizenship of the nation, and the politicians escaped with but casual mention, his emphasis being upon the duty of the ordinary citizen to so direct matters that the minority in the Senate should not count for as much as at present. The obligation of the citizen was made clear and unmistakable.

All the Speakers were given time to properly set out their conclusions and the service as a whole was exceedingly interesting. It is matter of regret that the state of the weather hindered a full audience.

Quite a number of the Legion boys were present, adding greatly to the interest of the occasion.

Union Evangelistic Meeting

The Union evangelistic meetings which opened last Monday beginning in the Baptist church are starting with a splendid interest. The church is filled each night and the evangelist Mrs. Wilcox has been preaching deeply interesting and pointed gospel sermons. It is very evident that her messages are gripping the hearts of the people from night to night as she so earnestly and ably presents the truth.

And such fine singing as there is each evening is worth going many miles to hear. The large chorus of Red Cloud's splendid singers led by Mr. Bush affords a privilege that is not often enjoyed in any other meeting like the one now in progress. There are solos and duets and chorus specials that are as fine as any singing on a lyceum or chautauqua program.

Rev. Mr. Daugherty with his skilled, well trained voice affords a rare treat to the congregation on each evening. And besides with an experienced hand he gets the best there is in song from the people who are in the audience.

This evening Mrs. Gallatly is on the program to render one of her well chosen specials and Mrs. Bush is recovered sufficiently to preside with her able manner at the piano which is a pleasure to all.

These meetings will be held at the Baptist church this week and on Sunday night will be held at the Methodist church owing to the larger auditorium. The music committee has secured a new song book "Hymns of Praise" one of the most recent song books published by the Hope Pub. Co. and there will be plenty of these to go around among the big crowd next Sunday night so come on, tune up, and sing.

Everybody around the country should crowd into the Methodist church on Sunday night to enjoy a real gospel treat and each night there after be right on hand to help make a great gospel campaign in Red Cloud. There is unqualifiedly nothing which our town and country need so much as the gospel of righteousness and right living and a real evangelistic meeting along these lines. And so it is desirable that there should be a generous spirit of cooperation and interest manifested in the Evangelistic meetings now in progress in Red Cloud.

Just here we take occasion in behalf of the pastors to thank the press of our city for their cordial and ready cooperation helping to make the campaign of the church a success.

LEGION FESTIVITIES CLOSE ON SATURDAY NIGHT

The Local American Legion Post No. 238 three day Armistice celebration came to a close on Saturday evening and besides affording no little merriment, substantially added to the Post's building fund.

The parlor suite, as previously advertised, was given away absolutely free by the business men, in the sale pavilion, at 8:30, with Messrs. E. C. Preston, W. G. Hamilton, Fred Henderson and Dr. R. S. Martin in charge. Duplicate numbers were placed in a large box, the eleventh one to be drawn to designate the winner. Doris, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hedge, was chosen to take the numbers from the box and 056055 proved to be the lucky ticket and was held by Mrs. W. A. Sherwood. Displaying her customary generosity, the lady proceeded to present the suite to the Legion to be sold at auction.

Ted Harris presiding as auctioneer proved equal to the occasion and as a result of his efforts the Legion's building fund, in this one instance, was strengthened to the extent of $133.00 and the festivities came to a close with a feeling of cheer, which it would be presumptuous to assume could continue for the next twelve months to come.

Mrs. A. J. White Dies

Rose A. Lytle was born March 5, 1892 in Boone County, Indiana. When a small child she moved with her parents to Linn county, Iowa and at the age of 11 years moved to Jewell county, Kansas, where she was married to Adoniram Judson White in the year 1880.

Four children were born of this union: Samuel Mevin and Marcellus Edward twins, the former dying in infancy, and Florence Grace, now Mrs. Frank Amack, and Mary Elizabeth who also died when quite young.

For four years after their marriage they lived in Smith County, Kansas, they then moved to Webster county, Nebraska where they lived until 1921 when they moved to Colorado to be near their children.

She died Nov. 5, 1923 at the hospital in Haxtum, Colo., following an operation. She had been a great sufferer caused by decay of the bone for the last ten months.

When a young woman she united with the Christian church of which she remained a member until her death. She was a true loving companion, a devoted mother and a consistent Christian.

During her last illness, tho racked with pain, she was kind, patient and considerate to all whose privilege or duty it was to care for her. Her many friends in Haxtum, Colo., unite with her former friends of Webster county where she lived so many years in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Haxtum cemetery, Rev. Nickey of the Brethren church conducting the funeral service. Those who came from a distance were: Mrs. Mary A. Patterson of Ravenwood, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Brubaker and daughter Vera of McCook, Neb., Wm. Gibson of Colorado Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Edward White of Atwood, Kansas and their son LeVerne of Ft. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. C. E. White of Gering, Nebr.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

(By H. R. Faulch, County Agent)
Members of the Webster county champion high school judging team and the Nebraska champion team were guests of the Guide Rock Community Club on Tuesday evening.

The Guide Rock high school team which won the county championship at the Webster County Agricultural Society were introduced. They were: Joan Yung, Marion Duffy and Clifford Howard. The Nebraska team are Cecil Means, Red Cloud; Alfred Sommerfelt, Blue Hill and Earl Portinier, Guide Rock. The people of Guide Rock and community are back of the team.

Carl Jones, assistant state club leader was present and presented the Nebraska team with six loving cups and the gold watches recently won at the Inter-State contest at Sioux City.

Eric Ohmstede and Allen Vaughn, first and second winners in Webster county ton litter were present.

These boys each won loving cups, given by the Bank of Guide Rock for the heaviest litter of pigs at 180 days old. It is inspiring to find backers like Mr. Auld who look far enough ahead to appreciate the far reaching influence of boys and girls clubs of the community. Money that has been contributed towards starting the boys and girls of our county in pig, calf and other organizations, will be returned with good interest. The youngsters if they have learned nothing else, have acquired a knowledge of credit that will be most valuable to them in years to come.

Every bank in the county might find it advantageous to invest in the boys and girls. The dividends are certain.

Miss Nellie Kailey went to Hastings, Wednesday where she had her tonsils removed.

It's What You Think and Say

It's what you think and say, my friend,
That makes the sort of town
The people find when they move in
Or travel up and down.

It's your opinions oft expressed
That tell the rest of us
If the town is good or if it's bad
Or if it's just a muss.

You see we get our slant on things,
We listen to your tale,
And so it's sort of up to you
To boost and not to wail.

You have your part to play, my friend,
Like all the rest of folks.
A forward look, a forward stride,
An achievement, not a hoax.

We all can push together and
Then the place will grow
To be the kind of town we need
And the world around will know.

That we have done our useful part
In planting potent seeds
In keeping drones and knockers out,
In barring graft and greed.

This town is ours but we must keep
It worthy, fit with an appeal
To all who seek the sort of place
That promotes the common weal.
—Foresight.
