

For Economical Transportation

Every Farm Needs Two

EVERY farm needs two automobiles, one of which should be a closed model Chevrolet.

The open touring car is best for general farm use, carrying passengers or perhaps miscellaneous bulky produce or merchandise, but for cold or rainy weather, and for church or social use the family needs a closed car, either a 2-passenger Utility Coupe as illustrated, or the 5-passenger Sedan. The extra large rear compartment is a feature of the Coupe.

These closed cars are very finely made, furnished, upholstered and trimmed. The windows are of plate glass and can be lowered, providing as much air as an open car, yet affording full protection against wind, rain, snow or cold when raised.

With a second car on a farm, one is always available for those at home when the other car is out.

The low prices of Chevrolet make the ownership of two cars feasible for most farm families.

Hero Gets His Request.
Recently two French soldiers were bathing in the Rhine river. Since they were unable to swim, the soldiers were in a serious condition. A young German, who was watching, swam out and rescued both of them. The French Consul, to reward him, promised that anything he asked would be granted. He asked that the lives of seven men, who had been condemned to be shot for causing trouble to the French authorities, might be spared. The request was granted.

A Suspicion.
"Your boy seemed to take a great deal of interest in religious matters last summer."
"Yes," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "I'm suspicious he got it into his mind that prayin' for rain was more restful than gettin' into the garden with a waterin' can."

Double-Crossed Him.
"Lench played me a mean trick the other day," complained Robinson.
"What did he do?"
"He was visiting at our house, and boasted before the whole family that he had never been ill in his life."
"I don't see anything mean about that."
"Perhaps not," snorted Robinson. "But one night, not more than a month ago, I told my wife I had to go and sit up with him through a malaria attack!"

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 25

CHRISTIANS CALLED TO BE MISSIONARIES

LESSON TEXT—John 17:18; Matt. 28:16-20; Acts 1:6-8.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Go ye therefore and teach all nations."—Matt. 28:19.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling Everyone About Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Marching Orders.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Working Together With Christ.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—World-Wide Witnessing for Christ.

I. Christ by Christ (John 17:18). Sent was sent into the world to save it. Just as He was sent, so He sends us. Just as He was obedient to the Father's command, so we should be to His command. That this might be possible Christ set apart himself, and that the disciples might be fit for this work they are to be sanctified through the truth of God's Word. That which fits the one called to represent Christ is the knowledge of God's holy Word.

II. The Great Commission (Matt. 28:16-20). At an appointed meeting place in Galilee on a mountain side, Jesus appeared before the disciples and gave this great commission.

1. His Claim of Authority (v. 18). He does not claim to be merely the King of the Jews, but King of Kings and Lord of Lords. He stands clothed with the authority and power of the universe. Before there will be any great concern about evangelizing the world there must be an understanding of the power and might of Jesus Christ as Lord. The Lord must and shall be obeyed.

2. The Obligation Imposed (vv. 19, 20). They are to make disciples of all nations. The obligation of the Christian is not merely to preach the gospel to the Jews, but to all the nations. Those who accept Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. By this means they openly acknowledge their allegiance to Jesus Christ as their divine Lord. To secure public avowal of loyalty to Christ is important. It strengthens the character of the confessor. They are also to be instructed to render obedience to all the commandments and requirements of the divine Lord.

3. The Divine Presence Promised (v. 20). To assure the disciples of the success of their undertaking, Jesus guarantees His presence at all times and under all circumstances. That which gives courage and encouragement to the missionary today is the assurance of the unfailing promise of the Lord Jesus Christ.

III. The Missionary Program (Acts 1:6-8). It is essential that the missionary program be understood. The work incumbent upon the church is to witness of Christ's gracious salvation to all the nations. After this is done there will follow the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom by converted Israelites. This was not clear to the disciples, therefore they put the question, "Wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" They were right in thinking that the kingdom will be restored. The Davidic kingdom shall be re-established, but not till after the gospel of the grace of God is preached and the body of Christ is completed. Its realization is certain, but the time is unknown. Times and seasons are in the hands of God. The program which the disciples are to carry out in this present time is witnessing for Christ.

1. In Jerusalem (v. 8). This was done by the Twelve immediately following Pentecost.
2. In Judea and Samaria (v. 8). This was done by the disciples after the hands of the persecutors were laid on them. Not only the Twelve but many others took part in this.

3. Unto the Utmost Parts of the Earth. Beginning with the first foreign missionary enterprise this work has been carried on with varying degrees of success till the present time.

Being Self-Centered.
Nothing is more wearing or a more fruitful source of unhappiness in the long run than to be self-centered. If our thoughts and plans, our hopes and fears, our ideals and ambitions all center in our own personal comfort and happiness, there must come many a day of infinite weariness and self-disgust when life does not seem worth living. Poverty or riches have very little to do with it. You will find just as many well-to-do people as poor, for whom life has lost its spice and enthusiasm. It is not a question of capital, but of character.

No Place Sweeter Than Home.
It is very dangerous for any man to find any spot on this broad globe that is sweeter to him than his home.—H. W. Beecher.

A Mind in Health.
The first sure symptom of a mind in health is rest of heart, and pleasure felt at hope.—Young.

God Should Be There.
A cottage, if God be there, will hold as much happiness as might stock a palace.—J. Hamilton.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

J. R. QUINN, NEW COMMANDER

National Convention at San Francisco Selects Californian to Head American Legion.

John R. Quinn of California was elected national commander of the American Legion, at the recent national convention held in San Francisco. He succeeds Alvin Owsley of Texas.

Quinn, a typical westerner of the open plains, announced he would dedicate his administration to conducting a vigorous campaign to obtain immediate passage of the ex-service men's adjusted compensation act, and a close and human contact between the disabled veterans and government agencies in charge of rehabilitation and hospitalization.

Quinn was elected on the eleventh ballot. His total vote was 592, compared with 342 for James A. Drain of Washington, D. C., 80 for Clarence R. Edwards of Boston, and 54 for Wilder S. Metcalf of Kansas.

The following national vice commanders were elected: Thurman Duffy, Fond Du Lac, Wis.; Thurman Mann, High Point, N. C.; William B. Healy, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; C. M. Stoddard, Arizona; and Lester Albert, Idaho. Ezra C. Clemens of Minnesota was elected chaplain by acclamation.

Commander Quinn remained all appointive Legion officers: Lemuel Bolles, Seattle, national adjutant; Russell Croviston, Indianapolis, assistant adjutant; Eben Putnam, Wellesley, Mass., historian; Robert Tyndall, Indianapolis, treasurer; Robert A. Adams, Indianapolis, adjutant. Mrs. Franklin Bishop of Leicester, Mass., was elected national president of the American Legion auxiliary.

ONE MAN GOT 245 MEMBERS

John Smith, Monahan Post, Sioux City, Ia., Sets Pace for Other Hustlers.

Membership records went flying when John A. Smith of Monahan post of the American Legion in Sioux City, Ia., staged a campaign of his own and signed up 245 new members.

Smith invaded the packing houses and stock yards, and made arrangements for 150 to join the Legion on the installment plan, their employers taking a dollar a month off their pay checks until dues had been paid.

As a result of his activities Smith won a round trip to the convention in San Francisco with pullman fare included and was decorated by National Commander Alvin Owsley when he visited Sioux City. Since his invasion of the packing houses, Smith has specialized in enrolling members by mail.

Veteran Refuses Prize Car.

John Dunphy, a big, red-headed, Irish sergeant in "A" battery of the One Hundred Fifty-first field artillery during the World war, recently tossed away a ticket which entitled him to receive a $500 automobile, because he said some other person was more deserving of it. A merchants' contest held in connection with a "fun festival" of a St. Paul post of the American Legion was enlivened by the award of a car to a certain lucky person, and Dunphy's name was the first drawn. The former soldier, busy at work "boosting" the festival, had tickets, but because he was so closely connected with the event, he refused the car when his number was selected, saying that he preferred that it go to some citizen who supported the Legion's show.

In Baseball Tournament.

Many American Legion posts in western Kansas participated in a baseball tournament, held under auspices of the Legion post at Smith Center. A purse of $750 was offered to the winner of the tournament and the winning team was sent to compete for the state championship.

Internal cleanliness protects against disease
IT is but a step from those immediate results of constipation—headache, heaviness, loss of appetite—to serious disease. Such minor ailments are a warning that poisons from food waste are flooding your body. Keep clean internally.
In constipation, say intestinal specialists, lies the primary cause of more than three-quarters of all illness including the gravest diseases of life.
Laxatives Aggravate Constipation
Laxatives and cathartics do not overcome constipation, says a noted authority, but by their continued use tend only to aggravate the condition and often lead to permanent injury.
Medical science, through knowledge of the intestinal tract gained by X-ray observation, has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste, and thus hastens its passage out of the body. Thus Nujol brings internal cleanliness.
Nujol is not a laxative and cannot gripe. Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world.
Don't give disease a start. Adopt this habit of internal cleanliness. Nujol is not a medicine. Like pure water, it is harmless. Take Nujol as regularly as you brush your teeth or wash your face. For sale by all druggists.
