CHAPTER V. Too Much Cousin.

Reddy Woodpecker wished that he hadn't been so pleasant to his cousin Mr. Flicker. It was all well enough Mr. Flicker to drum upon Redbarn so long as he drummed late in the morning. But when he drummed early, as he sometimes did, it usually before he could begin his own morning tattoo.

And Reddy Woodpecker didn't like that at all. In fact, it seemed to him that Mr. Flicker had quite forgotten his manners. For, if he happened to reach the barn first, he never stopped drumming until he had Il but drummed his head off. At east, that was the way it seemed to thing he could think of-short of actually fighting-to make Mr. Flicker stop. He made a sound tree toad, ktr-rr, ktr-r-r. He tapped tree toad, ktr-gles with his bill. He flew right over Mr. Flicker's head. But it seemed as if Mr. Flicker simply couldn't take a hint.

"I don't like to order him to hop away," thought Reddy. He's my cousin. Besides, he's bigger than I am; and he does look terribly fierce with that black mustache."

Though he may have looked fierce, Mr. Flicker always acted in the most pleasant manner possible. And when he finished his drumming, he never failed to ask Reddy Woodpecker

It was a hard question for Reddy so, either. But before Reddy could to answer, because he didn't care make up his mind to quarrel with his softly.

"Katie, for my sake, don't notice He thought his own were far better. Sometimes Reddy pretended not to hear his cousin's question, but started drumming at once. Sometimes he said. "I believe that's an improvement over yesterday's tattoo." And at last he exclaimed one morning. You ought to join the Woodchuck

Mr. Flicker was a great person to ask, "Why?" He asked it now. "Because," Reddy told him, "the

Recent Bride

A quiet wedding was solemnized at united in marriage by Rev. J. J. Bar- let me hunt the scissors." ton of the Immanuel Baptist church of Omaha. Mrs. Weber is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Burke of Lincoln and has just graduated from the state uni-

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chene and carried a shower of sweetpeas and Ophelia roses. Mrs. Lucille Thomas Chindor was matron of honor and Mr. George Olson of Stromsburg, cousin of the groom, was groomsman.
Mr. and Mrs. Weber will live in Reddy Woodpecker. by themselves over in the pasture.

At such times Reddy did every- And, as you must know, there's no music that sounds better than drumming, with a little shrill whistling to He made a sound like a go with it—unless it's a little whistktr—rr, ktr-rr. He tapped ling, with plenty of loud drumming."
hingles with his bill. He tower Mr. Flicker's favorite word "Why" he was making fun of her. I intertower Mr. Flicker's head. inquired, "do you not drum for the Woodchuck brothers yourself?"

Reddy Woodpecker shook his head. "I want to practice more, before I join a troupe? he said.
"There!" Mr. Flicker exclaimed. "I like to hear people talk that way. That shows that you don't think you're the best drummer in Pleasant Valley."

"I don't, eh?" said Reddy.

"No, you don't!" said Mr. Flicker And it was plain that he didn't think so, either. But before Reddy could question-not "Why?" but "Where?" "Where-" said Mr. Flicker earn-

"One can find them in the pasture, unless they're in the clover patch.

Just now they are probably in the pasture, for it's a bit early in the ed myself to suppress the indignant season for clover.'

"The pasture!" repeated Mr. Allen Drake. Flicker.

A Reader: If your wedding break-

Problems That Perplex BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Afraid of Marriage.

My Dear Miss Fairfax: I have been trying to solve my own problems, but cannot, so I am asking you and some of the readers for advice. I have gone with a marriage.

and which have an interesting story to hold your attention. All of these I mention I think you will thoroughly enjoy. And the best way to learn to love books is to keep reading. vice. I have gone with a man for a long time and because of unfriendfast is a formal affair, only the wed-ding party is seated at the bride's table and the rest of the guests at ly feelings between my parents and him I have tried to quit him many times, but it seems that we always him I have tried to quit him many times, but it seems that we always go back again, as we cannot get along without each other. I have thought many times I would give him up and then when he is with me I feel as if I cannot.

We are now engaged, but sometimes I become so dissatisfied that I wonder if I did the right thing in saying "yes." My parents are wealthy and if I marry I will be giving up my good times and the things to which I have been accustomed. Miss Fairfax, would this negative advice from my parents and my own fear of entering married life make me unhappy, or am I in love as I should be? I wonder if married life appalis every girl as it does me? Some of you that have had experience, please tell me, as I am so we cannot get the guests at the other stable and the rest of the guests at the other stable. If it is a small wedding, and you are all to be at one bigs table, the groom should sit on your right. The bridesmaid should sit at his right, and the rest on the guests at the other stable and the rest of the guests at the other stable and the rest on the guests at the other stabl perience, please tell me, as I am so worried I am nearly sick.

A FRIEND IN NEED.

You do not tell me why your par-ents object to the young man. How do their objections fit with what you know of him from your personal experience? You ought not to marry him unless you trust him. Every girl who contemplates marriage in the right spirit feels that it is a the right spirit feels that it is a serious step, and a good many are "appalled," as you say, at the prospect of shouldering all he responsibilities that go with married life. You have to expect to give up some of the things that you have always thought were fun, but as a rule the joys that come from a home and the companionship of a congenial husband and your children more than compensate for the good times you have to do without. If you don't honestly feel that the exchange is worth while I don't believe you are really in love. Ask exchange is worth while I don't be-lieve you are really in love. Ask yourself whether you are funda-mentally congenial, whether you could care about the man year in and year out, or whether the aftrac-tion he has for you is one which is likely not to last. Since you have known him a long ime, it does not sound like a passing fancy, but only you can decide whether you love him or not.

Rose: You ask me what books you should read to improve your mind, and you say you are in the eighth grade. Your teacher can give you a reading list, or, if you go to the public library and ask for the to the public library and ask for the reference librarian, she will be delighted to help you choose some books. Some good books which are easy to read and which rank as classics are Blackmore's "Lorna Doone"; "Pride and Prejudice," by Jan Austen; "Treasure Island, by Stevenson: "Oliver Twist" and "David Copperfield," by Charles Dickens; "Men or Irdn," by Howard Pyle. "The Story of Ab," by Waterloo, is a story, but contains much that is interesting and accurate about our ancestors of the stone age. If you wish some typical American books, read "Ramona," by Helen Hunt Jackson; "The Virginian," by Owen Wister; "Bob Son of Battle," by Oliphant, which is a dog story, and Washington Irving's "Sketch Book." The best way to learn to enjoy deep books is to start on the stone which are not too heavy MyMarriage Problems

'Revelations of a Wife" (Copyright 1922)

Why Madge and Allen Drake Had a Silent Disagreement. Reaction inevitably follows the tensest of situations, and I think re-laxation which the discovery of Katie's audacity gave us. At any rate, Lillian's exclamation was like a key unlocking our risibles Allen Drake led off with a hearty guffaw so oddly contrasted with his usual cynical poise that I stared at him in silent amazement, and Lillian, my father and I joined him in a chorus of laughter.

For a tense second, Katie stood motionless, patently undecided be-tween offended dignity and mirth. Then her face relaxed, and she giggled gleefully, all her fright forgotten, as is Katie's volatile way.

"Where are those scissors which are so needed to complete this film " Allen Drake asked when we had fin-A quiet wedding was solemnized at ally settled back into composure, the home of B. F. Thomas, 3225 Pop- "Katie, I am so lost in contemplapleton avenue, at 3:30 Sunday after-noon, when Miss Elmina Burke and never shall find myself again, until De Witt C, Weber of Lincoln were I see the end of this reel, so prithee

His eyes rested on the girl with exactly the same expression, I told myself hotly, that they would have held were he suddenly confronted with an unusually clever performing seal. To me Katie is a vivid, lovable, human personality, to Allen Drake, I saw clearly that at this moment she was an impersonal problem, a little less than human, whose antics appealed both to his sense of humor and to his love of tormenting, an instinct possessed by anything masculine, but which is especially well developed in Allen Drake. "Dot's It."

Katie's broad smile vanished bruptly at his request, and I saw her eyes flash, ominously. She could her keen preceptions told her that he was making fun of her. I inter-vened quickly, for I had no desire to discipline the girl for another outburst of rudeness.

"There are some scissors in a desk here," I said, rising and crossing the room to a desk in which I kept a few extra sewing things. "Come here, Katie." I made my voice kindly, but peremptory, and the girl walked obediently toward me, giving me the opportunity I wished to speak to her. I changed my position so that I ef-fectually shielded Katie from Mr.

anything he says." "Where—" said Mr. Flicker earnestly—"where can one find these Woodchuck brothers?"

"One can find them in the pasture,
"one can find them in the pasture, frown which I knew my face held for Woodchuck brothers are famous "Hundreds of them!" said Reddy. "Then I'll go to see the Woodchuck brothers are famous to drum for them while they whistle. I've often heard them chirping away Ticker decided. So he flew off.

With quick deft fingers Katie ripped a piece of the velvet covering the hat, and drew from beneath it a folded paper, which she held out to me, saying simply: "Dot's it."

I held it out to my father who With quick deft fingers Katie rip-

Then he looked at Katie with kindly relaxed face.

A Peremptory Tattoo. "Yes, this is the paper taken from the book. Thank you, Katie, you may go now. Mrs. Graham will talk to you later."

Katie looked at the hat whose covering she had just ripped.
"Vot you do mit dot?" she asked

"I'll attend to that, Katie," I re-turned, "It won't take but a minute. Go to bed now and try to get some

"I tink I never sleep again," she said mournfully, then she went slow-"That's a good lie," Allen Drake said approvingly, "but I can't echo it.

She snatched my hand and kissed

You never tasted Corn Flakes so joyously flavored, so That's why big and little folks who know the difference insist upon KELLOGG'S! The thing to do is to make comparison-Kellogg's against any other kind of corn flakes you ever ate! If it's quality, or all-the-time crispness or delicious or appetizing flavor you want—well, just wait till you eat Kellogg's! And, what a delight to know they're never leathery! You'll get so cheerful about Kellogg's that the day's best hours will be when it's time to ait down with the family in front of generous bowls all filled most to bursting with those big, sunny-brown Corn Flakes! Never

Insist upon KELLOGG'S—the kind in the RED and GREEN packs

Me! I think I like to sleep round shoost about now

He grinned maliciously at me as I turned from the desk with the thible, needle and black silk thread I needed for the resoration of my mother-in-law's hat, and at the County Attorney Abel V. S. grimace, even more at his arto-cious imitation of Katie's speech. I wished that I could substitute his features for the hat.

My father replied quickly before I could speak, though indeed I had on intention of answering Mr. Drake's thrust.

Upon the door which we had locked behind Katie sounded a preemptory tattoo.

to St. Mary Graduates

"All but one thing, I grant you,"
Mr. Drake returned.
"And that is?" my father asked.
"The restoration of this hat. I think we should form a second line of defense behind Mrs. Graham when she returns it, for if its owner should disover—" building, Nineteenth and Farnam and he will receive no mercy from get a parole until he pleaded guilty to the charge."

Sullivan, at any rate, could not get a parole until he pleaded guilty to the charge."
Sullivan's $500 bond was declared forfeited. Shotwell stated that he would suggest to District Judge Lesting that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Sullivan, at any rate, could not get a parole until he pleaded guilty to the charge."

Sullivan, $500 bond was declared forfeited. Shotwell stated that he would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he is not the would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Brown protests that he man the will receive no mercy from me. Sullivan, at any rate, could not to the charge."

Sullivan's $500 bond was declared that he will receive no mercy from me. Sullivan, at any rate, could not to the charge."

Sullivan at any rate, could not to the charge."

Sullivan's $500 bond was declared that he would suggest to District Judge Lesting to the charge."

Lincoln Ball Player Applies for Parole

Tommie Sullivan, Lincoln baseball County Attorney Abel V. Shot- player, arrested a few days ago after arrested at Fourteenth and Douglas well delivered the commencement he had jumped his bond in connec-address to 20 Mount St. Mary sem-tion with an assault case, wants to tectives Harry Buford and William sity auditorium. His subject was "Respect for the Law." The Auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends of the graduates.

"Respect for the Law." The Auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends of the graduates.

"Respect for the Law." The Auditorium was crowded with relatives and friends of the graduates.

"Bet a parole. Gurnett case, wants to dectives Harry I Gurnett on der wanted in Des Man were arrested for the street of the stree and sport de signs, elegant-ly finished, in

Crepe de Chine

Canton Crepe

Georgette

Crepe

Chiffons

Roshanara

Crepe

No sale like this has ever been put on in Omaha.

All colors-al

Store open at

Come early.

Every sale final.

Suspect in Des Moines Murder Arrested Here

Harrison Brown, 33, negro, was Gurnett on description of a man Three years ago Sullivan, Stanley wanted in Des Moines. He is held man were arrested for the alleged | The officers allege he is wanted on "My dear boy, I am thoughtless in keeping you up so long. I have forgotten that you are but a few days convalescent. The rest of this certainly can wait until tomorrow."

"All but one thing. I grant you."

"Sullivan at sure arrested for the anleged as wanted on a murder charge in connection with for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding, Nineteenth and Farnam me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

"Under no condition will I stand for a parole for Sullivan," said Shot-louding well. "He 'double-crossed' the state baseball player, shot to death in me. Sullivan at sure of two girls.

ADVERTISEMENT.

(Toilet Helps.)

You can keep your arms, neck or face free from hair or fuzz by the occasional use of plain delatone and in using it you need have no fear of marring or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered delatone with water. Then spread on the hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real delatone

Cuticura Be

Your Beauty Doctor

ADVERTISEMENT.

Troubles HAVE TO GO

Clogged Up Kidney Deposits Are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poi-sons) Completely Driven Out.

Druggists Told to Guarantee It in Every Instance.

"Your very life," says Dr. Carey, "depends upon the perfect functioning and health of your kidneys so whatever you do don't neglect them."

Dr. Carey's famous prescription No. 777 (Liquid or Tablets) is not recommended for everything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water night and day, with smarting or irritation, brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, bloating irritability with loss of flesh, backache, rheumatism or any other tendency to Bright's Disease, Diabetes or Gravel, for kidney disease in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until tomorrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription if you have any of the above symptoms. Kidney and Bladder troubles don't wear away. They will grow upon you slowly, steathily and with unfailing certainty.

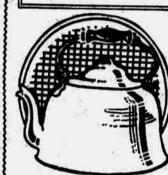

Never mind the failures of the past if you even suspect that you are subject to kidney disease; don't lose a single day for the $ Sherman & McConnell Drug Stores, and every good druggist has been authorized to return the purchase money on the first beitle to all who state they have received no benefit

Kidney and Bladder

Every Instance.

After This Treatment

Hairs Will Vanish

pass up 19c

Blue Enamel Coffee Pots A strong, serv iceable piece of blue white-lined enamelware. Coffee Pot-

55c $1.59

dandy wash

Copper Bottem Wash Boilers Aluminum Double

Spice Sets, 6 air-tight 89c Oil Mop and Bottle

$1.00 A WEEK IT

THE VALUE GIVING STORE

it is that Bowen's sell at such value-giving prices, it will enlighten you to learn that everyone connected with this institution is busy at all times working for your interests in keeping down prices to the value-giving point.

you have wondered how

Kitchen Cabinet, with porcelain sliding top and remov-

$39.50

Cabinet Gas Range, with white enamel panel oven door, with broiler and four burners, $36.00

Free! Free! Free! A fine Italian Walnut

eight-piece Dining Room 35 other useful articles to be given away FREE

Thursday, June 29th Ask, Any of Bowen's Employes About It. No Purchase Required.

Aluminum Tea Kettles $1.45

Galvanized Water Pails An opportunity you should not

65c Brass

Step Ladder Stools for ... Clothes Hampers, $1.25

of Oil for...... 65c Brooms with 4 rows 29c

> Fiber Furniture at Value-Giving Prices.

2-passenger Hardwood Porch Swing, complete with chains was a better time than tomorrow morning to prove that KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes are about the "gladdest of all good things to eat."

Sale Starts Thursday Morning at 9 a. m. 16th and Douglas St

The Juice of a Dozen Lemons and—not a Lemon to Squeeze!

NOT an extract—not a cheap mixture of chemi-Cals-but the real juice of real lemons, powdered and put up in little air-tight blue and yellow cans. That's Merrell-Soule Powdered Lemon Juice.

All that has been done is to remove the water from the juice, and when you restore the water to the powder, you can have a lemon juice as good and as fresh as on the day we squeezed the lemons for you.

Use it for lemonade—use it for pies—in fact, any way that you use lemons today. And because it is really, honestly, lemon juice with just a little sugar added, you will get the same results you have always had -without the work.

Your grocer can supply you with lemon juice in two sizes, 4-oz. and 10-oz. cans, and every ounce is equal to the juice of three big lemons

Merrell-Soule
POWDERED

MERRELL-SOULE COMPANY SYRACUSE, N. Y.