National Collegiate Track and Field Meet Is Scheduled for Today

Large Entry List to Compete in Final Events

Gardner of Nebraska Qualifies in Half Mile Run-Records Expected to Tumble.

Stagg Field, June 16.-With more than 300 athletes, the cream of Amer-ica's college athlete world entered. the national collegiate track and field meet will be held on Stagg field here tomorrow with indications favoring a shattering of records. The crack California team which won the eastern intercollegiate meet and Illinois, winner of the Western conference championship, are regarded as the favorites, while Nebraska, winner of the Missouri Valley conference title; Pennsylvania State, Notre Dame, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota are expected to be dangerous contenders for second place honors. All of these teams will have a full quota of 10 performers in the meet. There will be 53 universities and colleges represented.

Illinois, which won the 1921 meet, entered the games this year at the eleventh hour after Coach Gill had announced that his team would not compete. The finals tomorrow are expected to result in a duel be-tween Illinois and California, with the prospects that California will triumph. The California squad is well balanced and is particularly strong in the field events. Big Meet.

The meet probably will be the greatest college track event ever held. With very few exceptions all of the men capable of winning any starters. With the exception of Wolters of Ames' all of the winners of the recent Western conference meet will compete and a majority of the eastern and far western stars are en-

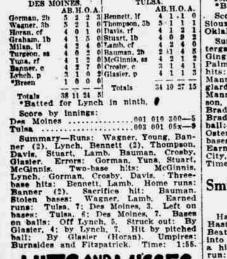

Trial heats were run off in the 440 yard run and half mile events this afternoon to reduce the fields for the finals. There were 21 starters in the three heats of the quarter mile. The first three runners in each heat, quali-fied for the finals. Cochrane, a rangy performer from the Mississippi A and M, made the fastest time in the 440. breaking the tape just ahead of Mc-Donald of California in the third heat in 50 4-5. California and Chicago qualified two men for the quarter mile final. Hendrickson of Cali-fornia, won the first heat in 51 3-5 and will go into the finals with Mc-Donald, his teammate. Pyott and Brickman were the Chicago entries to qualify. Brickman won his heat in 51 4-5. Fessenden of Illinois, is the favorite to win tomorrow. The Illinois flyer finished second to Brickman in his trial heat but did not extend himself.

winner of the half-mile in the east-ern intercollegiate meet in 1:55 2-5 his qualifying heat in this event in 2:00 7-10. Captain Yates of the Illinois team, took the first heat in 2:01 4-5, beating out Helfrich of Pennsylvania State.

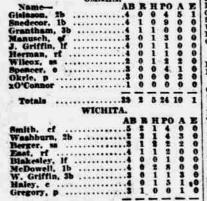

Sixteen starters ran the two qualifying heats of the half-mile, but only eight will start in the final. The qualifiers are: Yates, Illinois; Helf-rich, Pennsylvania State; Morrow, Iowa; Gardner, Nebraska; Brown, Pennsylvania; Noell, Iowa; Shields, Pennsylvania State and Martin, Central Wesleyan. Brown is regarded as the probable winner, although Yates may prove dangerous.

World's Record for Home Runs in One Inning Broken in Game of Wichita Falls and Galveston

vorld's record for home runs in one broken in the Galveston-Wichita Falls Texas league game here yesterday when Galveston drove out five homers in the fifth inning. Four of the drives went over the fence and one fell inside. A high wind aided materially in carrying the balls over the enclosure. The previous one-inning record was three.

Williams Gets Home Kun
St. Louis, June 18.—Accomplishing their long-sought objective, the Browns moved into the lead in the American league today by overwhelming Washington, 15 c. while the New York Yankees were losing to Detroit. As a result of today's games the Browns are one-half game ahead of New York. Kenneth Williams knocked out his 18th home run, and McManus also crashed out a circuit drive. It was the Browns' fifth consecutive vietory. nning in organized baseball was one-inning record was three.

Catcher Witry and Pitcher Devin-ey opened the fifth inning with drives over the left field fence. The next batter was retired. Third Baseman Moore then potted one over the left field barrier and Outfielder Hen Larry Brown of Pennsylvania, dricks followed with a terrific drive which bounded off the right field The ball bounded fence. toward the infield but before it could be recovered. Hendricks had crossed the plate. Second Baseman Connol-ly then lifted one over the right field palings.

Galveston scored two more homers before the game ended, making seven for the game.

eight frames, allowing but three Luque. Un scattered hits in that period. Okrie also pitched good ball after the first, but the Izzies scored enough in that inning to win. Omaha started with a pair. With one out Started with a pair. With one out Snedecor walked, Grantham, who has been the hitting king in the series here, cracked out a triple over the first bag, which scored his mate. Manush then got a lucky little pop fly which fell safely and Grantham scored.

Q. Can you give me some pointers on the different features introduced in stunt tournaments?

A. Driving on certain holes with a nibilck, putting with a driver, playing one shot on certain holes lefthanded, standing on one foot to play certain shots, etc. Use your own imagination and the wilder the better.

Q. In a three-ball match if one player's ball accidentally hit another player and be deflected into the hole, is the putt considered legitimate, and how does it affect the third man?

A. The putt counts as holed without interference so far as the third man is concerned. As between the other two, the man who interfered with the ball loses the hole, regardless of how the two stood in strokes played up to that time.

Q. Is a player entitled to recall the stroke where he finds that he played from outside the markers on the tee?

A. In match play he is not, but his opponent can if he chooses. In medal play the stroke counts, but the player must play another ball from within the limits.
