

Senator Norris Attacks View of Secretary of War

Says Abolition of Direct Primary Would Be Step in Direction of Monarchy.

By GEORGE F. AUTHIER.
Washington Correspondent of The Bee.
Washington, June 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Norris of Nebraska today took up the challenge contained in the address of Secretary of War Weeks at Cleveland yesterday, attacking the direct primary methods of making nominations.

Senator Norris attacked this view, saying he believed abolition of the direct primary is in the direction of monarchy. He expressed the hope that the time would come when all officials would be selected by primary, from the president down to road supervisor.

He added that men were prejudiced, perhaps, because he knew that if it had not been for the direct primary, he would not be here. He said that President Harding might be prejudiced against it, because in the primaries that were held on president "the president never got to first base."

Says Primary Fundamental.
Senator Norris said the direct primary was fundamental, inasmuch as it was as important to select candidates as to elect them.

Referring to the recent Iowa primaries, Senator Norris said he was pleased over the nomination of Smith Brookhart and said he had heard that the campaign cost only $500. He said this was proof it was not necessary to spend large sums of money to be nominated under the primary.

The Nebraska senator took up the charge made by Secretary Weeks that the primary had a tendency to eliminate partisanship and party responsibility. Senator Norris said that if the primary did this and nothing else, it had justified itself.

He expressed the opinion that nothing caused so much harm to government as partisanship. This was evidenced, he said, by the fact that when the finance committee brings in a tariff rate a mile high, the republican senators are expected to vote for it. In the house, he charged, Representatives Woodruff and Johnson had undertaken to have an investigation. This was refused by the arbitrary action of a few self-appointed leaders.

Tills Lance With France.
Senator Norris became engaged in a spirited colloquy with Senator France of Maryland, who claimed the 18th amendment was the one referred to by Secretary Weeks and maintained this amendment was subversive of the principle of self-government. He said it was just as permissible to adopt an amendment which would make selling liquor compulsory.

Senator Norris said there were many foolish things that might be done, but they were not done. He said if it was possible the senate might make a fool of itself, and sometimes did, but it was not the rule, nor would it be the rule among the people.

One Day Is Left for Office Filings

Dozens of Candidates Send Names to Secretary of State for Legislative Berths.

Lincoln, June 16.—(Special.)—There is one more day for candidates for office to file.

Today, dozens of candidates for legislative and state senatorial positions placed their names on file.

Thomas Cronin of Omaha filed for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor and Otto Meyer of Lincoln filed for the democratic nomination for attorney general. Congressional filings today follow.

M. F. Hall, Neigh, Third district, progressive; John Havelok, Hooper, Third district, progressive; Oswald Byron, Walthill, Third district, republican.

Arthur H. Briggs, Omaha, and Tom Hall, Verdon, filed for the republican nomination for state railway commissioner. Hall formerly was a member of the commission.

W. A. Ransdall, Beatrice, filed for the republican nomination for congress in the Fourth district.

D. M. Amsberry, secretary of state, announced that clerks would be on duty until midnight Saturday at his office to receive filings. Sunday, June 18, is the day set by law to close filings. On Monday Amsberry will receive all filings sent by mail if the postmark shows they were mailed on Sunday or earlier.

Assistant of Davis Wants Parmele Tried

Lincoln, June 16.—(Special Telegram.)—J. B. Chase, assistant to Attorney General Davis, announced today that he would demand another preliminary hearing in county court at Plattsmouth against Charles C. Parmele, former president of the now defunct bank of Cass county.

The state had filed charges against Parmele on 17 counts, in all of which Parmele was acquitted by Acting County Judge William Deles Derner yesterday at Parmele's preliminary hearing.

Chase declared new hearing was possible because a preliminary is not considered a trial.

Train Ordered to Allow 5-Hour Period for Shoppers

Lincoln, June 16.—(Special.)—The Missouri Pacific railroad was ordered by the Nebraska railway commission today to revise its schedules of trains running daily between Omaha and Auburn so that passengers will have five hours to shop in Omaha.

The company had complained it was losing $40,000 annually because of motor bus competition. Witnesses at a hearing held here insisted the train would be profitable if the road would give travelers an opportunity to remain a few hours in Omaha. The company asked that the passenger trains be discontinued.
