Grinnell Star Smashes Two World's Marks

Paula Hangs Up New Time in 100 and 220-Yard Dashes -California Scores Heavily.

Chicago, June 17.-(By A. P.)-With the Illinois and California favorites to win first honors, 300 athletes, the flower of America's col-legiate stars, met on Stagg field to-day in the second national collegiate track and field classic.

A cooling breeze swept the field from the nothwest in contrast to the sweltering heat for the trials yester-day. The dodging in and out of the clouds made conditions favorable for record breaking.

Colifornia started to break into the point column early when Johnny Merchant, the versatile Golden State athlete won the shot pput with a heave of 44 feet, 61-2 inches. Mc-Donald, another Californian, took second in the quarter mile run, and Witter, a team mate, grabbed third place in the shotput. This gave Calfornia 10 points against five for Il-

The first record to be shattered was in the mile run, which was won by Shields of Penn State from a field of 18 starters. Shields covered the distance in 4:20 2-5, beating the former record of 4:23 2-5 established by Ray Watson, of the Kansas Aggies the meet last year. Dalton, of Earlham set the pace for the first two laps and then Shields grabbed the lead, maintaining it until the finish. Patterson, of Illinois, by a re-markable burst of speed, finished second, coming up from fifth place in the stretch. Paulu, the Grinnell sprinter, cracked the second record when he took the final of the 100-yard dash in :09 9-10, breaking the mark of :10, established by himself in the meet a year ago. Bill Hayes of Notre Dame was a close second.

Paulu established his second record of the day when he copped the 220-yard dash in :21 4-5 after winning the century in the record-breaking time of :09 9-10. Paulu's time in the 220yard event was only a second slower than the world's record, held by Charlie Paddock of California, and it heat the collegiate record of :22 3-5, made by Wilson of Iowa a year ago. Paulu's performance was the fifth record-breaker of the meet.

Pitcher Freddie Schupp of the White Sox, obtained from the Kansas City club of the American association, has a hard time trying to get over his wildness. Apparently he "has everything," but he doesn't seem to be shie to get the ball over the corners to suit the umpires. He was yanked again yesterday when he started a parade in the second.

Q. In a recent handicap event, I tied with another player for the low net prize. We agreed to play off the lie through our medal scores in our first round of match play. On one hole the opponent of my competitor conceded him a putt and knocked his ball away. After he had driven from the next tee, he was reminded of the play-off, went back and holed out. Was he entitled to do so?

A. No. He was entitled to return and replace the ball with a penalty of two strokes any time before he began play on the next tee. Thereafter, he was disqualified. If this happened on the 18th green, he must have finished play before leaving the putting green.

Q. Do the rules require that once a match, looking for a lost ball, signals another match to play through, it must wait until the second match has gone through?

A. There is no rule to this effect, but it is a recognized and approved practice of gelf ctiquet.

Kilbane's Cold Storage Crown

Dundee Seeking

Scotch Wop in Letter to New York Boxing Commission Asks for First Crack at Crown.

By RAY PEARSON. We certainly must give our Scotch Wop friend, Johnny Dundee, credit of the fist-slinging game. He's made a gob of kale out of the ring and is to prosperous that he is the owner of a string of race horses. All the world will say that anybody able to dabble in race nigs and get away with it suce cessfully is endowed steness to a remarkable degree. As the Italian scrapper seems to Lave accomplished the trick, we reiterate hat Dundee is a hard fellow to beat, But now we have in mind the latest move of Dundee, who has the honor of being junior lightweight champion of the world. Johnny grabbed off the crown when Tex Rickard put on some matches to determine the man worthy of being called a champion in that new class. But the joy of being junior light-weight titleholder doesn't seem to have filled out completely the ambitions of the Scotch Wop. thinks he ought to do something that few other ring men ever have done-win two titles and hold them both at the same time, Wants Kilbane Match.

In order to become a double champion, Dundee wants to train down to 126 pounds and battle Johnny Kil-bane for the featherweight championship. Does he think he can beat Kilbane? Well, we'll say he does, judging by a letter which he has sent to us. He informs us that the letter is a copy of the one he has sent to the New York state boxing commission, and in it he airs his views in the breezy and confident Dundee

One may wonder if Dundee is able to box at 126 pounds. We'll say he can, for the Italian is about the lightest lightweight we ever had. For years he has been giving away such fellows as Benny Leonard, Charley White and others. But such weight concessions didn't make any great difference, f r Johnny was able to hold his own in battle. Seldom has he notched more than 130 pounds, and now he figures that he can make 126 and hand a pasting to Mr. Kilbane.

Kilbane Dodges Meeting.

Champion Kilbane, however, doesn't seem anxious to engage in a battle with Dundee. At least he is demanding more money for the match than any promoter is willing to give, and that is one way of preventing it. But regardless of Kilbane's stand. Dundee is making the most of the situation and hopes to meet the featherweight titleholder in the ring some of these days.

We have mentioned the Dundee letter, which is interesting because Dundee tells a few things which may or may not be reasons why Kilbane steering clear. Here's what Johnny, in part, says in his letter to the commission:

"I am sincere in challenging Johnny Kilbane for a bout for the title at the recognized weight-126 pounds-at 2 o'clock day of contest. You have taken this matter up several times in your meetings and, reports are correct, your ruling is that unless Kilbane recognizes my challenge you intend to have him forfeit his title, leaving it open to be fought out amongst the contenders, and the true champion found this way.

Claims He Won.

"If you will allow me, I wish to ake exception to this. I fought Kilbane eight years ago, when Kilbane was fighting oftener and after he had won the title. The referee called it a draw after I had licked him, and the newspapers bear out my claim. So I think I am entitled to the title if he steps out or is forced out, as no one has ever done the same since in a decision bout. I showed that I was on the level with my challenge, which no other challenger did, so why should they benefit by what I have done

"I have never picked my oppo-nents or looked for soft ones, and in nearly every instance have given away 5 to 15 pounds, when I am a legitimate featherweight.
