

Stories of Our Little Folks

(Prize.)

In Pays to Be a Go-Hawk. Mrs. Smith was seated by the window waiting patiently for her son, Jack, who was a strong boy of 15, and worked in a store near by.

A Kind Deed.

Here I am again, Happy. This is my third letter to your page. Here is my story: It was cold, bleak, biting weather. People stamped their feet and clapped their hands to keep them warm.

Princess Vincala.

Once upon a time in a high tower there lived a princess. Her name was Vincala. Her father was a rich king, who had a large number of wise men.

Dot Puzzle

Why are teeth like verbs? Answer—Because they are regular, irregular and defective. What word is it, to which if you add a syllable it will be shorter? Answer—Short (shorter).

Must Hurry With Kind Deeds to Animals.

Many of you have never stopped to think what a short time we really have to be very kind to animals, because they do not live so very long. Many men and women live to be 80, 90 and some 100 years old.

Trail of the Go-Hawks

The Go-Hawks, a jolly crowd of boys who after school, and the girls, the girls who were as happy as the boys, were on their way to school.

CHAPTER XI.

"What do you suppose has become of the squaws?" asked Jack of Donald a few days after the dinner.

Grandpa's Story.

Dear Happy: A long time ago my grandfather drove through Omaha with his family in a covered wagon from Illinois.

Dot Puzzle

He ran with all his might and main, Until he reached the road again. Complete the picture by drawing a line through the dots, beginning at Figure 1 and talking down numerically.

By EMILIE BLACKMORE STAPP and ELEANOR CAMERON.

Two naughty boys, Jimmy and Bobby, went to the Happy Forest to play. Instead of starting for home when they should, they robbed a bird's nest and paid no attention to the cries of the mother bird.

KING OF THE JUNE BUGS.

Oh, he! Oh, he! and is that not well, VERY soon these two shall know that we mean to be kind to all the creatures of the forest.

QUEEN OF THE FIREFLIES.

(Dances over toward her Fireflies at the back of the stage.) Just now, my pretty Fireflies, I have a message to deliver to you.

WHEATHER.

Rose Petal Showers in Happy-land. Lily Anne, Alice and Janet were all sitting before the fire one evening talking earnestly about their futures.

Another Way to Be a Good Go-Hawk.

A Good Go-Hawk is thoughtful of others when traveling. Many of you are going away on summer trips and don't forget there are little acts of kindness that will lighten the journey for those about you.

Scouts in Camp.

As soon as the Teenie Weenie children are old enough they are taken out into the woods, where they are taught many useful things. They are told what berries make good food and where to find them.

Proud Barbara.

Barbara Lapan was the daughter of a French duke. Barbara had everything a child could wish for. But yet she was not contented. She wanted things that could not be gotten, as magic dolls and magic rugs.

Winter Is the Time for Sports.

All right, get ready for the fun! Everybody is down to the skating rink, but Doris and Donald are gazing out at the wonderful sight. They have no skates, but the children at the rink had some sympathy, so they called the twins over to the rink and borrowed them some skates.

A Little Go-Hawk.

Dear Happy: This is my second letter. I am 9 and in the fourth grade. I am enclosing a 2-cent stamp for my button.

A New Member.

Dear Happy: I want to join your Go-Hawk tribe. I will promise to be kind to all birds and dumb animals.

Likes Our Button.

Dear Happy: I received my badge and think it is very pretty. I wear it every day. I go to school every day and like it very much.

Likes Pigeons.

Dear Happy: I am 10 years of age. I am in the sixth grade at school. My teacher's name is Mrs. Guyer.
