

This is one of the colorful scenes from "Comus", presented last month by pupils of the St. Berchman Academy

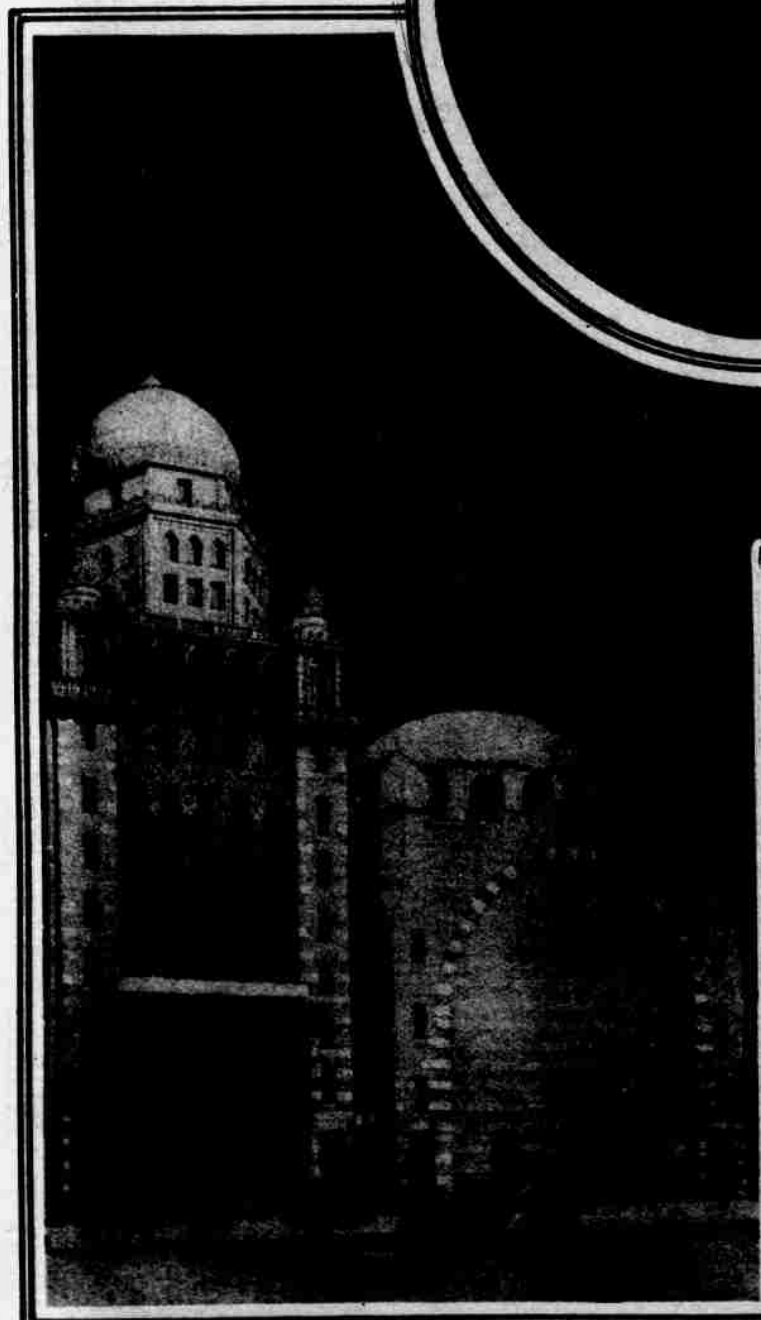

A new grocery store starts business—in the midst of the ruins at Rheims. Pacific and Atlantic.

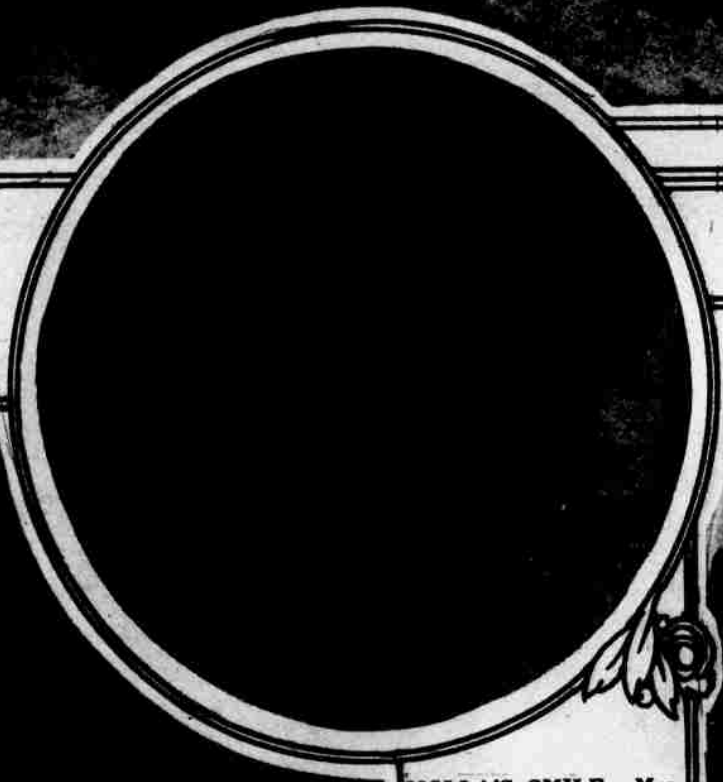

Students at Marymount College, in Westchester, sketching nature on one of the campus paths. The young women are, left to right, Miss Ursula Murphy, Miss Annette La France, Miss Ursula Keefe, Miss Catherine Baxter, Miss Anna Mae Gagnier and Miss Esther Linnehan. New York Herald Photo.

"Princess Pat" and her husband, Capt. the Hon. Alexander Ramsay, photographed during one of their every morning spring walks in the park near their London residence. Wide World.

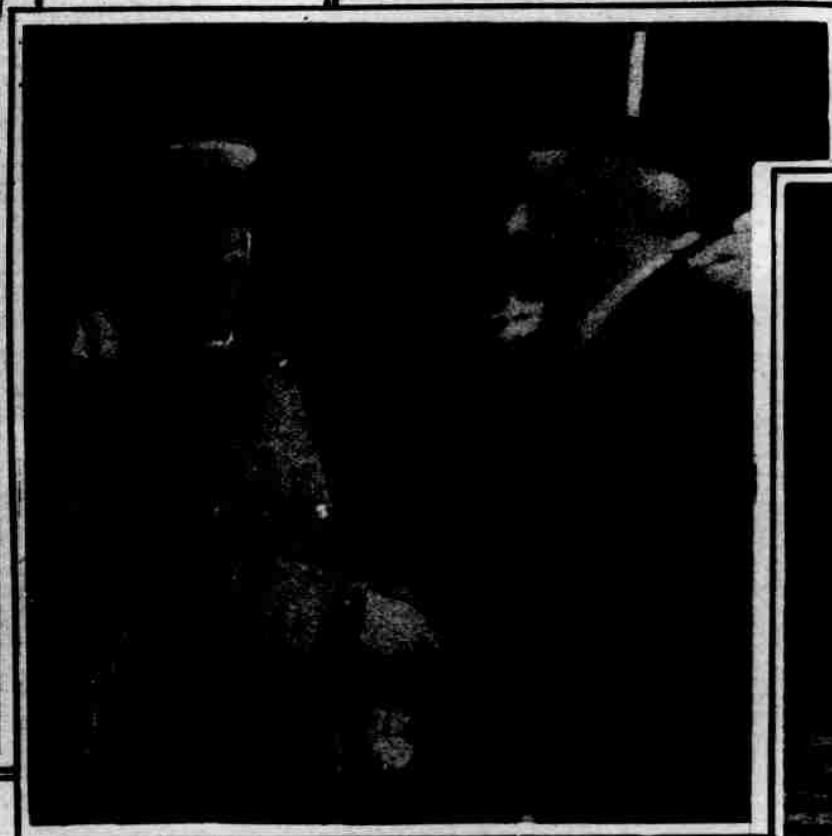

The Mecca Temple to be built at Sixth avenue and Fifty-fifth street and dedicated in 1922 during the golden jubilee of the mother temple. The architect is H. E. Knowles, N.Y. New York Herald Photo From Architect's Drawing.

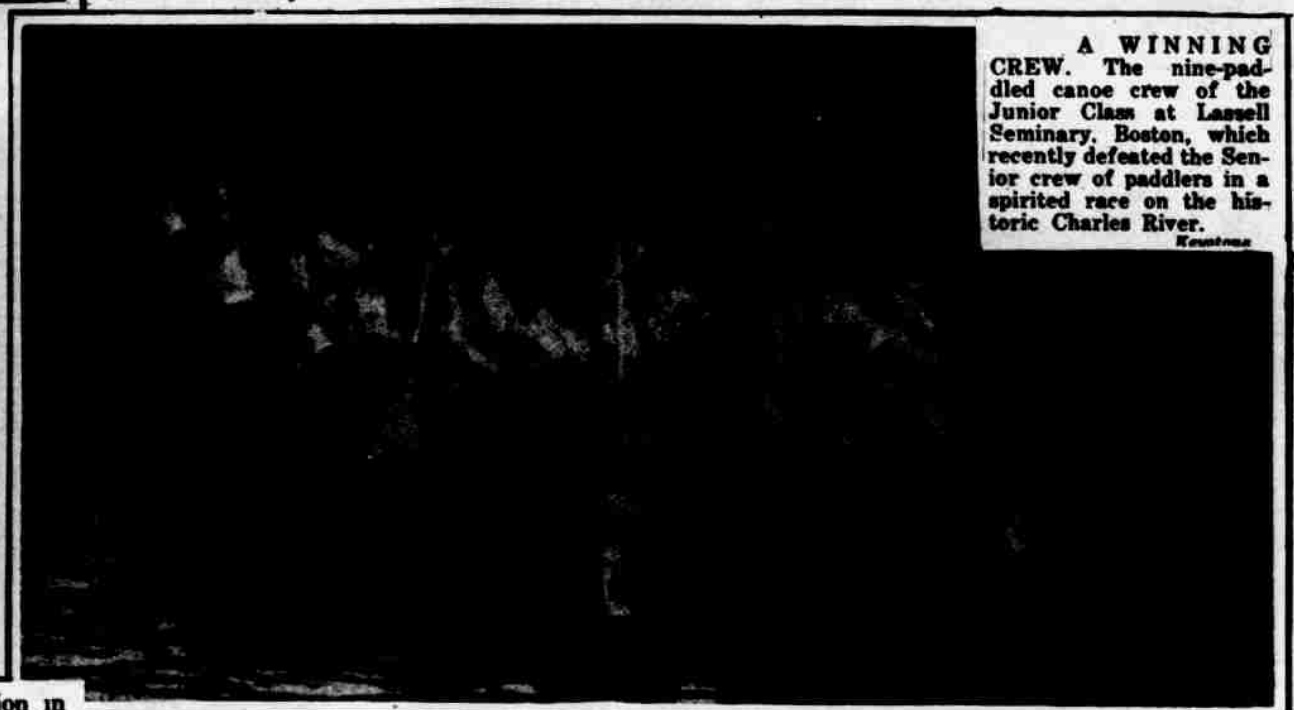

MOLLA'S SMILE. Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, our national woman tennis champion, sails to compete in the women's world championship at Wimbledon June 26th.

Citizen soldiery in India drilling at Bombay preparatory to whatever support the Crown may ask of them in the event of insurrection. This is a battalion made up entirely of Parsees, whose homes are near Bombay. International.

Gen. Tanaka of Japan, who narrowly escaped assassination in Korea, welcomed upon his return to Tokio by U. S. Ambassador Warren. Gen. Tanaka is one of the leading Japanese military figures.

A WINNING CREW. The nine-paddled canoe crew of the Junior Class at Lowell Seminary, Boston, which recently defeated the Senior crew of paddlers in a spirited race on the historic Charles River.