

Omahan Accuses Consular Agent of Taking Bribe

Complaint Sent to Secretary of State Alleges Mistreatment at Consulate in Greece.

Under request from the Douglas county post of the American Legion, Congressman Albert W. Jeffers Monday afternoon dispatched to the office of Secretary of State Hughes in Washington a complaint against the consular service signed and sworn to by Paul Kazakas, member of Douglas county post and there Kazakas alleges, in his complaint, that he was forced into paying a bribe to consular employees at Patras, Greece, and got no return from such payment.

Goes to Consulate.

When he left the ship he went immediately to the consulate, he stated, to get his passport and there he was told by a clerk that he would be drafted into the Greek army and that the consular office could do nothing for him.

He went to Philatras, he charged, and a week later returned to embark aboard a ship for the United States, but read in the newspapers where immigration to America had been stopped.

He went to the consular office, again, he said, to get his passport and there a Mr. Novaris, assistant, told him he could not see the consul and refused to stamp his passports, he alleged.

But the assistant told him he knew a way he could smuggle him out of Greece for $300, Kazakas charged, and told him he would have to leave the money with the assistant's wife.

Investigation to Follow.

Kazakas said he had only 3,000 dracmas, or $240, and he deposited this, but when he was not booked for passage 12 days later, he asked for the return of the money and it was refused.

Finally however, through the aid of Saul D. Winkler, American commercial agent, he alleges, he was smuggled aboard a ship for Constantinople. He had borrowed enough money from his mother to pay his passage home, he charged, and had to return to America without his parents.

Congressman Jeffers says the charge of bribery in the consular service is a serious affair and that an investigation undoubtedly will result from Kazakas' complaint.

Ex-Head of Farmer's Company Must Pay

Fremont, Neb., June 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Arthur H. Schultz, former president of the Farmers' Co-operative Mercantile Co., charged with misappropriating $60,000 of the company's funds, will have to make a complete return of a similar sum to the company, but he will be given a moral victory in the decision to be handed down formally by Judge A. M. Post in district court.

The judge will find in Schultz's favor on the charge of misappropriating funds of the company.

The case was tried in district court several months ago and was attended by a large number of people of Scribner and vicinity who had a direct interest in the result. Judge Post took the case under advisement at that time.

Omahan Must Go to Missouri on Larceny Charge

Man Accused of Theft of $1,800 in Bonds From Woman—Securities Discovered Here.

George Lloyd Nickolson, 21, who has been held at Central police station for investigation since June 13, will be returned to Colecamp, Mo., where a charge of grand larceny will be placed against him, says Dickinson of the United States secret service announced yesterday.

Nickolson's arrest was the result of the accidental discovery of $1,800 in government bonds, cached in a locker at the Wellington Inn, by Manager Ramey of the inn.

Manager Ramey turned the bonds over to Mr. Dickinson, who learned from Washington that they had been stolen from Mrs. Henrietta O'Farrell of Colecamp.

From Colecamp, Dickinson obtained a description of the man who took the bonds from Mrs. O'Farrell. Using the description, and with the assistance of Manager Ramey, Dickinson picked out Nickolson, who was employed in a restaurant adjacent to the Wellington Inn.

A photograph of him has been identified by Mrs. O'Farrell and her son, according to Dickinson. The bonds were unchanged in any respect, the officer says. Mrs. O'Farrell also charges that Nickolson, who was in her employ on a farm, stole $350.

School Classes Vie in Gift to Bee Milk Fund

More Than "Book Learning" Taught at Saunders School, Where Pupils Show Unselfishness.

Before school closed Friday four grades of Saunders school, Forty-first and Cass streets, vied with each other in showering coins into The Bee's free milk and ice fund for poor children.

The Eighth Grade Boosters collected $8; the First Grade Elephants, $1.15, and the Seventh grade, $1, the balance left from a picnic fund. Another classroom contributed earlier in the week.

More than "book learning" is taught in this school. It is evident that a spirit of unselfishness and thoughtfulness for others in more needy straits is inculcated. The pennies of these little ones will do much for less fortunate children of their own age and younger.

The fund, which the Visiting Nurse association administers, yesterday went over the $200 mark, as follows:

GIRL HAD PAINFUL TIMES

Mothers—Read This Letter and Statement Which Follows

Portland, Indiana.—"I was troubled with irregularity and constipation and would often have to lie down because of pains. One Sunday my aunt was visiting us and she said her girls took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well, so mother said she would let me try it. It is doing me good and I praise it highly. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial."—STELLA NEWTON, R. R. 8, Portland, Indiana.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure her.

FOR A CONSTIPATED CHILD

A small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will bring quick relief.

MOTHER, when one of the children is constipated are you going to give the first laxative within reach? It is dangerous to do so. Some have been known to rupture the intestines of little children. Don't be beguiled by the outside sugary appearance. Look into the formula. Calomel is seldom necessary; salts, minerals, coal tar, never!

Unlike these, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is admirable for children, as it is for grown people, too. Mothers have been giving it to children for 30 years. They know it does not gripe, and is free from narcotics. The formula is on every package, and you can see it is vegetable, just a combination of Egyptian Senna and other laxative herbs with pepsin. Use it yourself and you will find it is not necessary to take it every day, nor to increase the dose, and that it is pleasant to the taste. Bottles can be had at all drug stores, and the cost is only about a cent a dose. Have no hesitancy giving it to a baby in arms. It is absolutely safe.
