

Reunited China in Near Future Now Predicted

Downfall of Sun Yat-Sen and Assistance of Chang Tso-Lin Expected to Complete Movement.

Pekin, June 19.—(By A. P.)—Two significant developments today pointed to a reunited China in the near future. One was found in official advices from Canton that Sun Yat-Sen's downfall was complete. The other came in a telegram from the three provinces of Manchuria where Chang Tso-Lin has attempted to establish a separate empire, that the three provinces were ready to join the united China movement.

The telegram from the Manchurian assemblies stated that, while Manchuria enjoys self-government, it nevertheless, was willing to join in the program for unification. "Advices from Canton, made public by the Peking government, declaring that Sun Yat-Sen, former president of South China, although still unconvinced of his defeat had been entirely eliminated from the field of Chinese politics and that Gen. Chen Chiang-Ming, ardent proponent of the unification movement, was in complete control of the former South China capital.

Repulse Gunboat Attack.

The Canton dispatches said that Sun's gunboats had opened fire on the city in a desperate effort to retrieve their commander's lost control, but that the attack had been repulsed.

Early reunion of China under a constitutional government is forecast by the Chinese press, as a result of the elimination of Sun Yat-Sen and the overthrow of Chang Tso-Lin. The vernacular papers describe both the north and the south as drawing together in the conviction that the interests of all factions are mutual and that China will be unable to make progress along any other road than that of reunion.

It is understood here that President Li Yuan-Hung, before accepting the presidency had received the pledge of Gen. Chen Chiang-Ming that the latter would attempt to abolish the Canton government and that Chen's coup of last week was carried out in furtherance of this promise.

Agreement Made.

In this agreement between Li and Chen to which Gen. Wu Pei-Fu, conqueror of Chang Tso-Lin, was a party, the following stipulations are said to have been made contingent on the fall of Sun Yat-Sen.

First. That the old republican parliament be recognized as the national legislative body with unlimited power to elect a president of the republic.

Second. That if the parliament elects as president any other than Li Yuan-Hung, present chief executive, its choice shall be undisputed, Li withdrawing without protest.

Third. That all the provinces of China shall enjoy autonomy with rights similar to those of the states in the American union.

Will Reduce Armies.

Fourth. That all armies shall be reduced to the minimum needs of national defense.

It is expected that parliament will be able to muster a quorum for a meeting August 1. All the Canton members have been urged by Chen Chiang-Ming to proceed to Peking for the reconvening of the old republican body.

Several of the provinces already have signified their willingness to disband their separate armies. The tuchun, or military government of Shansi has asked other provincial commanders to join him in his stand that China needs only one-sixth of her present standing army. The tuchun of Chekiang has gone a step further and has declared his willingness to resign.

Brown to Start Back to Nebraska Today would never be taken alive. The chain girls knew too much; that's all."

Conference in Omaha

In reply to a telegram from Sheriff Hyers asking the pleasure of County Attorney Shotwell with regard to prosecution of Brown, Shotwell declared he would rather have Brown brought to Omaha as soon as he is able to leave his bed.

Hyers wired suggesting a conference of officials to hold Shotwell, Police Commissioner Dunn, Chief of Police Dempsey, Sheriff Mike Clark, Attorney General Davis, Governor McKelvie, County Attorney Mattson of Lincoln and Hyers.

Hyers suggested this conference be held in his office or the governor's office, in Lincoln, or in Shotwell's office, in Omaha.

Recuperate at Pen.

"I would rather the case be handled here," said Shotwell, "for it would be far better both for the state and the counties concerned if the Sielken murder witnesses could see Brown here rather than be taken to Lincoln to see him."

"Brown should be left in the penitentiary hospital until able to leave his bed and make the trip here, for their facilities for medical and surgical treatment are better at the state prison than at either city or county jails here."

Hyers also wired that he is ready to honor Shotwell's wishes in the case. Detective Fred Franks, who is still working on the Sielken murder, yesterday, stated Miss Sylvia Kulakofsky, 319 North Thirty-eighth avenue, who was rescued from some man who followed her the night of the murders, had been shown a picture of Brown and had declared the photograph resembled the man who pursued her.

Detectives also have traced a handkerchief found at the scene of the Sielken murders to a laundry where witnesses are ready to attempt to identify Brown as the man who had the handkerchief laundered there.

Chief Clark yesterday wired Sheriff Hyers congratulating him and the posse on the capture of Brown and notifying the state sheriff he is ready at any time to personally bring Brown to Omaha from Lincoln which Clark now holds charging Brown with auto theft.

Parole Officers Return From Hunt for Fred Brown

Lincoln, June 19.—(Special.)—N. T. Harmon, state parole officer, and Walter Schroeder, assistant, returned today from Wyoming, where they were aiding State Sheriff Gus Hyers in his search for Fred Brown. Schroeder was stationed at the junction of one trail leading from the Medicine Bow country to Casper, and Harmon was stationed at the other. Brown was on the same trail Schroeder was watching and when about 100 miles south of Schroeder was when he was shot by a posse. There were just two trails in the country over which Brown could travel northward, and both were watched by state officials.

Special Jury Will Try Brown if Brought Here

If Fred Brown is returned to Omaha he will be given a speedy trial.

Although this is the last week of jury cases of this term of court, District Judge Leslie stated that he would summon a special grand jury in case Nebraska's Supplemental Water association will leave for Washington Tuesday to take up the matter of the preliminary survey with the reclamation bureau of the Department of the Interior.

The delegation will be made up of C. W. McConaughy of Holdrege, George P. Kingsley of Minden, President Kirk Griggs of the Hastings Chamber of Commerce and State Engineer Johnson.

The delegation will ask the bureau to make a survey of the south central Platte territory with a view to determining the practicability of the supplemental water project. The survey asked for will include an estimate of the cost at which the surplus water of the Platte can be delivered to the farms.

Treaty Friends Show Strength in Irish Election

Unexpected Heavy Voting for Independent Candidates Is Shown by Meager Returns.

Dublin, June 19.—(By A. P.)—Only fragmentary election returns were available at a late hour tonight, but the results thus far known show unexpected heavy voting for the independent candidates and as between the treatyites and the anti-treatyites on the panel, a predominance of support for the former.

Generally the results confirm the Cork conclusion that the laborites' second preference overwhelmingly favored the treaty and that the anti-treaty vote was less than one-fourth that given for the treaty. Nevertheless, at the headquarters of the republicans, it was declared that the republicans did not count on a diminution of their strength by more than 15 members of parliament. The most pessimistic estimate there were 40 republican members of the dail.

De Valera evidently is awaiting full results before venturing a statement on the elections. It is now considered doubtful whether a coalition can be formed. The difficulty of army unification has been a major prospect for peace are said to depend on an arrangement with the regular forces.

Noteworthy defeats in the late election as at present estimated, include Mrs. Tom Clark, whose husband was executed Easter week, 1916, who was at the bottom of the poll in mid-Dublin; Alderman Murphy, republican dail member, South Dublin, and Joseph McGrath, minister of labor in the provisional government, northwest Dublin.

Notable successes on the first count are: Lord Mayor O'Neill and Alderman Byrnes, Daniel McCarthy, chief election agent for the treatyites; Richard Mulcahy, minister of defense, and Philip Cosgrove, pro-treaty members of the dail and brother of the local government minister.

Marconi Unable to Talk to Mars

Wizard of Wireless Fails to Again Hear Strange Signals Registered Last Year.

New York, June 19.—Earth dashed past Mars in the great cosmic race yesterday. Mars was conveniently near, a mere 42,000,000 miles or so away, and closer than it has been since 1909.

But Guglielmo Marconi, wizard of the wireless, aboard his yacht Electra moored in Hudson river, spurned the grand little opportunity to get a duplicate of the strange signals he caught in the Mediterranean sea more than a year ago, registering the unheard-of wave lengths of 150,000 meters and just possibly—so he thought—of dots and dashes of some scientific Martian.

Marconi remembers the Sabbath day to keep it holy and refrained from any and all scientific exploration, but he admitted he had one receiving instrument so tuned to an extraordinary wave length that he would catch any signal from a neighbor planet.

"There are more important things occupying my attention these days than communicating with Mars and I am making no experiments along that line," he said. "A whole lot of the piffle has been written about experiments I have made—not a tenth of it is true."

"If there is life on Mars, some day we will hear from its people. But there is plenty of time. I'm on the verge of verifying a lot of other facts about wireless just now and I can't stop, even for Mars. I have one receiving set so adjusted however that I should catch any strange signals coming through the ether. If Mars tries to signal earth, I'll know it."

Churches Ask U. S. to End Miners' Strike

prising Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, had pledged themselves two years previously to counter with the union in order to negotiate a new contract.

Approval of U. S. Action

"We wish to express our approval of the action of the administration in publicly fixing responsibility for the failure of such a conference upon certain of the coal operators who were unwilling to be governed by the terms of their agreement. Our resolution further called the attention to the fact that the union is not concerning the facts necessary to a just settlement of the controversy and urged that a thorough investigation of the industry should be made by federal authority.

"We urge that unless the operators and miners in the central competitive field can be yet induced to meet the miners in joint conference in accordance with precedent, a national conference be called by the government sufficiently representative of all the bituminous coal fields to set standards and secure stability and prosperity for the entire industry. We believe that thorough, frank and open discussion the way will be found to restore health and stability to the industry. Without conference, undertaken in mutual good faith, no lasting peace can be attained.

"We would respectfully call your attention again to the necessity of securing adequate information concerning the essential facts of the coal industry. In particular, the absence of authoritative information concerning cost of production and profits, has served to increase discontent among the mine workers.

"In the anthracite fields where conference are still in progress the lack of full information regarding the financial facts of the industry may cause the failure of all attempts to negotiate a new government. The consumers resent high prices for coal, but are unable to form an intelligent judgment as to the cause, on account of the lack of authoritative information.

For Well Being of Nation

"We urge that if it is not feasible to restore to the Federal Trade commission the authority which it formerly exercised, the administration recommend congressional action creating an authoritative body which shall have power to secure and make public all the essential facts of the industry. Any settlement of the present strike, no matter how it is reached, will have only temporary force unless it is accompanied by provision for full knowledge and publicity concerning the industry, which a satisfactory organization of the industry must be based.

"We call upon our government, out of concern for the well being of the nation as a whole, the health and preservation of the mining industry, to take immediate steps to bring the disputants together in order to secure a just settlement of the present strike and an organization of the coal industry on the basis of the maximum service to the nation."

Thousands Flee 500-Mile Flood in Southern Texas

Cloudbursts and Torrential Rains on Southwestern Border Inundate Towns, Cover Rails, Destroy Bridges.

San Antonio, Tex., June 19.—Cloudbursts in Terrell county, Texas, torrential rains in many southwestern Texas border counties and in the mountains of Mexico, which drain into the San Juan river, a tributary of the Rio Grande, had last night swollen that boundary stream into a 500-mile flood, perhaps the greatest in 25 years. At midnight the following were outstanding results of the flood:

Southern Pacific railroad and international foot bridges at Eagle Pass, Tex., swept away by a stage of 12 feet.

Eighteen thousand inhabitants of Piedras Negras, Coahuila, Mexico, across the river from Eagle Pass, fled or were preparing to flee from their homes.

Southern Pacific traffic suspended between Del Rio and Sanderden with the water 10 feet deep over the track in many places.

A stream three miles wide in Starr county at Rio Grande City, Tex., forcing all the inhabitants of Camargo, Mexico, on the opposite side, to leave.

Record breaking stages of the Rio Grande have been reported from many points.

At Langtry, Tex., a small border station, the water was 65 feet deep Sunday morning. Points on the Southern Pacific track, where the railroad skirts the international boundary, and which normally are 40 feet above the water level, were tonight from 10 to 15 feet under water. The number of bridges damaged or washed out on the Southern Pacific cannot be determined until Monday. Meantime passengers bound from New Orleans are being detoured through Fort Worth and California Pass.

McCormick Operation Remains a Mystery

Chicago, June 19.—The veil of mystery drawn about an operation performed last Monday on Harold F. McCormick, chairman of the executive board of the International Harvesting company, remained as impenetrable tonight as it was 48 hours ago when word of Mr. McCormick's illness first became public.

That Mr. McCormick is making satisfactory progress and that the operation was a success, was indicated by a bulletin issued today by Dr. Victor D. Lepsinasse, who operated on Mr. McCormick.

His condition from a surgical standpoint is excellent. Pulse, 80; temperature, 98.

Mr. McCormick remained in seclusion in the walled-off wing of the Wesley Memorial hospital, where the operation was performed.

Members of the family visited the patient during the day but refused to discuss his condition or comment on widely published reports that Mr. McCormick had been the subject of a gland transplantation operation.
